JFK, Soviet Berlin Talks Inconclusive

Report By Rusk Fails To Indicate Deadlock Broken

WASHINGTON (AP)—Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko met with President Kennedy for more than two hours on the Berlin crisis late Friday and said afterwards he stressed the importance of a peace treaty with Germany.

While Gromyko described the parley as useful, neither he nor Secretary of State Dean Rusk gave any evidence of a breakthrough in the U. S.-Soviet conversations which have made little progress so far.

GIVES REPORT

Rusk reported the White House conference was a continuation of inconclusive meetings he has held with Gromyko in New York in a search for evidence of Kremlin willingness for negotiations on the explosive Berlin issue on terms the Western powers will accept.

Friday's meeting "was interesting and that's all you can say about it," the American foreign policy chief said.

Presidential press secretary Pierre Salinger had nothing to add after the conference between Kennedy, Rusk, Gromyko and a handful of top advisers.

Both Rusk and Gromyko said they had no plans for a further get-together before Gromyko returns to Moscow. Gromyko said he will leave New York for home on Monday.

This is the way Gromyko summed up the session to newsmen: "We touched several important matters relating to the Soviet Union and the United States.

"Of course as far as the position of the Soviet government is concerned, we stressed first of all the importance of the question of the peace treaty with Germany.

"I think that this conversation was useful."

Gromyko's stress on a peace treaty with Germany is along familiar Moscow lines. Rusk has been trying to find out, without much success so far, just how the Soviet-proposed peace treaty with Communist East Germany would affect West Berlin rights which the West deems vital.

Kennedy for his part was reported to have re-emphasized Western determination not to yield Berlin rights. His emphasis to Gromyko was expected to be relayed by the Soviet minister to his chief, Premier Khrushchev.

Soviets Touch Off Powerful Nuclear Blast

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Atomic Energy Commission said Friday night the Soviet Union had exploded another atmospheric test in the arctic.

The AEC statement, coming hours after Paris and Tokyo reported the nuclear blast, said the test device was detonated early Friday in the vicinity of Novaya Zemlaya.

The only word given out by the AEC on the size of the explosion was that it had a yield of several megatons.

The U. S. agency has attributed the several megaton yield to at least four previous Soviet tests in the arctic, including one two days ago.

Friday's blast was the 18th in the Soviet Union's current test series, which began Sept. 1.

French government detection services, first to report the explosion, called it the biggest yet. Japanese experts estimated its strength at 10 megatons.

The French report said the blast was several megatons in strength and occurred about 1 a.m. A megaton is the equivalent of a million tons of TNT.

INDICTED BY JURY

Agent Of Hoffa Union Posts Bail

DETROIT (AP) — George Roxburgh, 49, business agent of Teamster President James R. Hoffa's home Local 299, was accused by a federal grand jury here Friday of taking illegal payments from an employer.

Roxburgh, who lives in suburban Huntington Woods, was arraigned before U. S. Dist. Judge Thaddeus M. Machrowicz and released on $2,500 bond.

The grand jury's indictment charged Roxburgh with six violations of the Taft-Hartley Act, including participation in two conspiracies to receive illegal payments.

AGENT SINCE 1943

Roxburgh has been an agent of the 15,000-member local since 1943. The union paid him $14,580 plus expenses last year.

Hoffa told a Senate investigating committee in 1957 that Roxburgh was among a number of business agents who loaned him cash without collateral or interest. Hoffa said the amount was $1,000.

Hoffa gave that testimony when U. S. Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy, then chief counsel for the committee, questioned him about large amounts of cash he had on hand.

Roxburgh is the third Teamster official indicted recently on similar charges. Indictments were returned in Chicago last month against Thomas H. Keegan, business agent of Local 710, and Edward J. Donovan, secretary-treasurer of Local 755.

One count said Roxburgh conspired from May, 1959, to the present to receive $200 a month from Interstate Motor Freight System Inc., of Grand Rapids, Mich., which employes a number of Local 299's members.

A second count does not specify an amount.

The other counts charge that

WINNFIELD — Climaxing four days of the 14th annual Winn Parish Fair and Louisiana Forest Festival, will be the dangerous, hair-raising Winn Parish wild boar marking contest, starting at 8 p.m. Saturday in the rodeo arena.

The unusual, first - time - here thriller, which is being staged in lieu of the annual rodeo show, will have 10 contestants. Each contestant will select his boar competitor before the start of the event.

Equipped with a tie rope, a marking knife and accompanied by one cur hog-catching dog, each contestant will be stationed under the judges stand. The boar will be released in the arena and agitated to full combat temper. He must be beyond the center post and brush pile cover when the contestant and his dog charge the knife-sharp tusked predatory quay, catch, tie his hind legs together, drag and tie him to the center post, place marks in the ears, release the boar, and try to race back to safety at the starting post.

The contestants will be judged on time only.

First, second and third cash prizes will be $150, $100 and $50. The fair association assumes no responsibility for injuries to man or dog, as the event could mean ripped legs for the man or a disembowled dog.

Ear marking has long been a method of branding wild hogs in Winn and other central Louisiana parishes, where old court records here indicate that there have been more law suits in Winn over wild hog claims than all other types of civil suits.

Pilot Bails, Jets Shoot Down Plane

Missiles Used As Craft Flies Wild Off Coast

NORFOLK, Va. (AP) — Two Navy jets firing Sidewinder missiles shot down a U.S. photographic reconnaissance plane over the Atlantic Friday after the photo plane's pilot bailed out to escape a cockpit fire.

Headquarters of the Atlantic Fleet Air Force said the jet fighters from Oceana Naval Air Station scored direct hits with two Sidewinders as the photographic plane, a Crusader jet, flew "in helpless circles over the ocean" some 15 miles off the North Carolina Outer Banks. It was shot down to keep it from becoming a menace.

PILOT ESCAPES

The pilot of the photo plane, Lt. Cmdr. Charles Price, had ejected from the plane a few miles inland and parachuted safely to earth near the community of Fentress, Va. He received minor burns.

Price's plane circled for 65 minutes before it was brought down by the Sidewinder-firing jet fighters piloted by Lt. Cmdrs. Joseph Simons and Ralph Rutherford, both from Oceana.

Earlier, there had been unsuccessful attempts by two other Navy fighters to steer the pilotless aircraft toward the sea and to shoot it down with a 20mm cannon.

The Atlantic Fleet Air Force said Lt. Russ Rose of Oceana tried to turn the photo plane seaward by nudging her wingtips with the wingtips of his own Fury jet fighter. When the pilotless

U.S. Urges Atomic Ban U.N. Action

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—The United States urged the U. N.'s main political committee Friday to give urgent top billing to a treaty ban on nuclear weapons tests. It ran into immediate opposition from the Soviet Union, now engaged in a series of such tests.

No decision was reached in this committee, but the assembly's special political committee brushed aside Soviet opposition and supported a Canadian request to take up immediately the latest U. N. reports on possible dangers to mankind involved in atomic radiation stemming from tests.

Paul Tremblay, Canadian delegate, recalled to the special political committee a report that radioactive fallout over Toronto had increased 1,000-fold due to resumption of Soviet tests in the atmosphere.

He said the issue is "a matter of common and urgent concern to us all."

Semyon K. Tsarapkin, the Soviet delegate, said there is nothing in an anticipated report by a U. N. scientific committee on effects of atomic radiation that could be regarded as out of the ordinary.

Tsarapkin, the chief Soviet negotiator at the test ban negotiations in Geneva, expressed fear the debate might be political rather than scientific.

He did not press the matter to a formal vote, and the committee chairman, Yordan Tchbanov of Communist Bulgaria, declared that atomic radiation would be taken up as the first item of business.

U.S. Ousts Czech Envoy In Reprisal

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A Czechoslovakian diplomat has been ordered out of the United States in reprisal for the ouster of an American envoy from Prague.

The State Department said Friday that Jaroslav Skacil, third secretary of the Czech Embassy here, was told Wednesday that he is "no longer acceptable to the U.S. government."

ORDERED TO LEAVE

Six days earlier, Robert W. Kent, Jr., 32, of Oakland, Calif., second secretary at the U.S. embassy in Prague was accused by the Czech government of espionage and was ordered to leave in the "shortest possible time."

The Czech news agency also accused Timothy J. Burke, 45, of Buffalo, N.Y., another second secretary at the U. S. Embassy, of "abuse" of diplomatic status, but apparently no move has been made to expel him.

The State Department categorically denied the espionage charge. It said the whole story took place as follows:

On Saturday Sept. 23, Burke, while on a family outing, "inadvertently" entered a military area near Prague and was stopped by Czech military officials and detained several hours.

The next day, Kent, en route with his family to the nearby city of Podebrady, drove along a public road in the same area and came to a sentry standing by a sign which said "military area-no entry."

Kent asked directions and the sentry waved him on. Less than a half a mile farther Kent came to a second sentry and asked if he could proceed. The sentry said

Cuts In Tobacco Revenues Noted

By JIMMY HATTEN
State Editor

Cities and towns in Louisiana will miss out on a total of $85,023.45 when they receive their quarterly checks next week from tobacco tax revenues, State Treasurer A. P. Tugwell said in Baton Rouge Friday.

Tugwell, who spot-checked eight northeast Louisiana municipalities for the Morning World, said a total of $4,152.87 would be held back from their share of the taxes.

The loss in tax collections is due to a five per cent holdback in state allocations until state officials determine whether revenues match budget estimates for the fiscal year.

DEPENDS ON TOTAL

Although the municipalities will miss out on five per cent of their take, it does not necessarily mean that the revenues from the tax will be less, Tugwell said.

They may make as much or more, depending on the total take this quarter compared to last quarter.

Some 200 cities and towns share in the tobacco tax collections.

In this section of the state, Monroe loses out on the largest share — $2,490.19. The city's share totaled $49,803.87, of which $47,313.68 will be received.

Tugwell is sending a complete rundown on each municipality to the newspapers here.

Meanwhile, here are figures for other northeast Louisiana towns

Stork Gives Bush Pilot Busy Time

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (AP) — "Get off the air!"

Crackling over the radio went the warning to all points from the Federal Aviation Agency's air traffic control center: "Get off the air!"

"We're having a baby in flight!

And from bush pilot Don Sheldon, flying wing to wing with the stork 4,000 feet over Talkeetna: "He's half born. What do I do now?"

Sheldon had picked up Joanna Rock at Cantwell for a flight to the Alaska Native Hospital's maternity ward in Anchorage. High in the air, Sheldon suddenly found himself doubling as midwife while flying the plane.

In answer to his radio cry for help, the aviation agency got Dr. Gloria Park on the telephone and relayed questions and answers:

"Is the baby born yet?"

"Yeah, we're doing great."

"Is it breathing?"

Yeah, he's kicking around

DOCTORS REPORT

Many Are Victims Of Medical Quacks

WASHINGTON (AP) — Fear, desperation and ignorance are making some cancer and arthritis victims easy prey for medical fakers, the National Congress on Medical Quackery was told Friday.

In some cases, Dr. Henry L. Garland of the American Cancer Society said, quacks delay effective treatment of patients with curable cancer until the disease becomes incurable.

Arthritis victims spend more than $250 million a year on "unproven and misrepresented products in a vain attempt to obtain unrealizable relief from their suffering," said Dr. R. W. Lamont-Havers, medical director of the Arthritis and Rheumatism Foundation.

Some 500 medical men are attending the conference, sponsored by the American Medical Association and the Food and Drug Administration in a drive to force quacks out of a $1-billion-a-year business.

Quack cures offered for cancer and arthritis range from elaborate electric rigs to a variety of chemical concoctions—in some cases containing little more than plain water.

Garland said some cancer victims go to quacks because they fear that all cancer is incurable, or because they are afraid of surgery or radiation treatments.

The quack's victims also are desperate, he said. "They fear that their own doctor has given up hope; they are ready to clutch at straws of any type."

Garland called for public and professional education to help force cancer quacks out of operation.

Authorities Are Puzzled; Autopsy Due

CHAPEL HILL, N. C. (AP) — This college town was shocked and mystified Friday by the death of two University of North Carolina students who were found dead in adjoining beds in their dormitory room.

Authorities said there were no marks of violence on the bodies of William Henry Harrison Johnson Jr., 24, of Statesville, a graduate student in industrial relations; and James Michael Barham, 21, a junior from Burlington.

ORDERS AUTOPSY

A coroner's jury ruled "death by unknown causes" and ordered an autopsy. A report on the post-mortem was not expected until Saturday.

Discovery of the bodies came a day after Robert S. Mauldin, 33, a dental school laboratory photographer and former graduate student, was found dead under similar circumstances Thursday.

The bodies of Johnson and Barham were found by a janitor at Cobb Dormitory, near the center of the picturesque university campus. He had gone to their room to investigate when the two failed to show up for their self-help jobs in a university dining hall.

Police Chief W. D. Blake said there were no signs to indicate the cause of death. He said he found no pills or bottles which would indicate poison.

"Everything hinges on the autopsy report," he added. "We have nothing to go on as of now."

A spokesman for the university said the boys were lying on their backs, dressed in nightclothes. A dorm resident said one of the students had complained of illness Thursday night.

University Chancellor William B. Aycock described the deaths as "a terrible tragedy."

Moon Trip Tickets To Be Costly

WASHINGTON (AP) — A U.S. space official estimated Friday that a round-trip ticket to the moon would cost about $15 million in 1968, if you could buy one.

If you were willing to wait until 1975 the cost should be down to about $2 million, what with improved power plants and all.

The estimate was provided at the International Astronautical Congress by H. H. Koelle of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration. Koelle, director of the future projects office at the Marshall Space Flight Center in Huntsville, Ala., reported on studies being made to establish estimates for planning purposes of such costs as for one-way cargo missions to the moon or Mars, and for round trips of personnel between earth orbits and Mars.

Koelle estimated the cost of delivering cargo to the moon or Mars, on the early missions, at about $1,000 a pound, but said that in five to seven years the cost should be reduced to close to $100 a pound.

Ernst Stuhlinger, director of the research projects division at Huntsville, forecast that the United States would land a man on the moon within this decade meeting the goals set by President Kennedy—and would put a man on Mars before the end of the next decade.

U.S. Ousts Czech Envoy In Reprisal

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A Czechoslovakian diplomat has been ordered out of the United States in reprisal for the ouster of an American envoy from Prague.

The State Department said Friday that Jaroslav Skacil, third secretary of the Czech Embassy here, was told Wednesday that he is "no longer acceptable to the U.S. government."

ORDERED TO LEAVE

Six days earlier, Robert W. Kent, Jr., 32, of Oakland, Calif., second secretary at the U.S. embassy in Prague was accused by the Czech government of espionage and was ordered to leave in the "shortest possible time."

The Czech news agency also accused Timothy J. Burke, 45, of Buffalo, N.Y., another second secretary at the U. S. Embassy, of "abuse" of diplomatic status, but apparently no move has been made to expel him.

The State Department categorically denied the espionage charge. It said the whole story took place as follows:

On Saturday Sept. 23, Burke, while on a family outing, "inadvertently" entered a military area near Prague and was stopped by Czech military officials and detained several hours.

The next day, Kent, en route with his family to the nearby city of Podebrady, drove along a public road in the same area and came to a sentry standing by a sign which said "military area-no entry."

Kent asked directions and the sentry waved him on. Less than a half a mile farther Kent came to a second sentry and asked if he could proceed. The sentry said

Senator Soaper Says

For most people, Monday is the worst day of the week, but college football coaches seem to be at their gloomiest along about Thursday.

Roger Maris's name in the record books will be followed by a little mark to indicate that he hit his home runs in a longer season. History could garble his name so that future generations may think the great slugger of 1961 was Roger M. Asterisk.

If it weren't for progress we wouldn't be able to eliminate all those things that we yearn for nostalgically the minute they are eliminated.

An interviewer says that John A. McCone, new head of the Central Intelligence Agency, doesn't look like a spy. Well, maybe we could get him a little sign to wear in his hatband.

Cuts In Tobacco Revenues Noted

By JIMMY HATTEN
State Editor

Cities and towns in Louisiana will miss out on a total of $85,023.45 when they receive their quarterly checks next week from tobacco tax revenues, State Treasurer A. P. Tugwell said in Baton Rouge Friday.

Tugwell, who spot-checked eight northeast Louisiana municipalities for the Morning World, said a total of $4,152.87 would be held back from their share of the taxes.

The loss in tax collections is due to a five per cent holdback in state allocations until state officials determine whether revenues match budget estimates for the fiscal year.

DEPENDS ON TOTAL

Although the municipalities will miss out on five per cent of their take, it does not necessarily mean that the revenues from the tax will be less, Tugwell said.

They may make as much or more, depending on the total take this quarter compared to last quarter.

Some 200 cities and towns share in the tobacco tax collections.

In this section of the state, Monroe loses out on the largest share — $2,490.19. The city's share totaled $49,803.87, of which $47,313.68 will be received.

Tugwell is sending a complete rundown on each municipality to the newspapers here.

Stork Gives Bush Pilot Busy Time

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (AP) — "Get off the air!"

Crackling over the radio went the warning to all points from the Federal Aviation Agency's air traffic control center: "Get off the air!"

"We're having a baby in flight!

And from bush pilot Don Sheldon, flying wing to wing with the stork 4,000 feet over Talkeetna: "He's half born. What do I do now?"

Sheldon had picked up Joanna Rock at Cantwell for a flight to the Alaska Native Hospital's maternity ward in Anchorage. High in the air, Sheldon suddenly found himself doubling as midwife while flying the plane.

In answer to his radio cry for help, the aviation agency got Dr. Gloria Park on the telephone and relayed questions and answers:

"Is the baby born yet?"

"Yeah, we're doing great."

"Is it breathing?"

Yeah, he's kicking around

DOCTORS REPORT

Many Are Victims Of Medical Quacks

WASHINGTON (AP) — Fear, desperation and ignorance are making some cancer and arthritis victims easy prey for medical fakers, the National Congress on Medical Quackery was told Friday.

In some cases, Dr. Henry L. Garland of the American Cancer Society said, quacks delay effective treatment of patients with curable cancer until the disease becomes incurable.

Arthritis victims spend more than $250 million a year on "unproven and misrepresented products in a vain attempt to obtain unrealizable relief from their suffering," said Dr. R. W. Lamont-Havers, medical director of the Arthritis and Rheumatism Foundation.

Some 500 medical men are attending the conference, sponsored by the American Medical Association and the Food and Drug Administration in a drive to force quacks out of a $1-billion-a-year business.

Quack cures offered for cancer and arthritis range from elaborate electric rigs to a variety of chemical concoctions—in some cases containing little more than plain water.

Garland said some cancer victims go to quacks because they fear that all cancer is incurable, or because they are afraid of surgery or radiation treatments.

The quack's victims also are desperate, he said. "They fear that their own doctor has given up hope; they are ready to clutch at straws of any type."

Garland called for public and professional education to help force cancer quacks out of operation.

Moon Trip Tickets To Be Costly

WASHINGTON (AP) — A U.S. space official estimated Friday that a round-trip ticket to the moon would cost about $15 million in 1968, if you could buy one.

If you were willing to wait until 1975 the cost should be down to about $2 million, what with improved power plants and all.

The estimate was provided at the International Astronautical Congress by H. H. Koelle of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration. Koelle, director of the future projects office at the Marshall Space Flight Center in Huntsville, Ala., reported on studies being made to establish estimates for planning purposes of such costs as for one-way cargo missions to the moon or Mars, and for round trips of personnel between earth orbits and Mars.

Koelle estimated the cost of delivering cargo to the moon or Mars, on the early missions, at about $1,000 a pound, but said that in five to seven years the cost should be reduced to close to $100 a pound.

Ernst Stuhlinger, director of the research projects division at Huntsville, forecast that the United States would land a man on the moon within this decade meeting the goals set by President Kennedy—and would put a man on Mars before the end of the next decade.

The physician saw the body through a window and called police.

Mauldin had been out of the university graduate school since last year and lived in a room adjoining the campus.

State Signs For Start Of Mansion

BATON ROUGE (AP) — The state Friday signed a contract to build Gov. Jimmie H. Davis' new mansion, trimmed in cost to $856,425.

Work on the structure is expected to begin in about one month. Administration comissioner James S. Reily, who signed the contract for the state, said the completion date would be about Sept. 1, 1962.

The original cost was set at more than $1 million, exclusive of furnishings. It will be located on land valued at $200,000.

The contract was awarded to the Wilson P. Abraham Construction Co. of Baton Rouge on the basis of its May 5 low bid.

Reily said the firm had an initial low bid of $913,000 after excluding an $53,500 alternate proposal covering the swimming pool, and $25,000 alternate proposal covering the fallout shelter.

After the contract was signed, Reily said, change orders were put into effect to cut the total by $56,575, bringing the net obligation under the contract to $856,425.

Soviet Delegate Stages Walkout

VIENNA, Austria (AP) —The chief Soviet delegate to the International Atomic Energy Agency staged a walkout Friday in protest against the swearing in of Dr. Sigvard Eklund of Sweden as the agency's new director-general.

Vasily Emelyanov, who said Thursday that the Soviets might quit the organization because of what he termed Western domination, stalked out after a bitter attack on Eklund and the West.

The rest of the Soviet delegation including the No. 2 man, Vyacheslav Molotov, remained in the hall.

In a statement just before the inauguration Emelyanov declared Eklund's election over Soviet opposition Tuesday would have "very negative consequences for the agency" and warned that the Swedish nuclear scientist "will not enjoy the support of the socialist countries as director-general."

Major goal was to check the guidance system being developed for a more powerful Titan II missile, which will begin flight tests here later this year.

Titan Scores New Success

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) —A Titan missile blazed 5,000 miles to the South Atlantic Ocean Friday night, scoring its eighth straight success and the third successful long-range United States' rocket flight in five days.

Earlier this week, intercontinental-range Atlas missiles clicked off flights of 5,000 and 9,000 miles from this test center.

Directed by a self-contained inertial guidance system, the 98-foot Titan lifted from its searchlight-illuminated pad and sped unerringly to a target area off Ascension Island.

The Air Force reported the big rocket met all test objectives.

Major goal was to check the guidance system being developed for a more powerful Titan II missile, which will begin flight tests here later this year.

Benedictos and churchmen who accompanied him to the White House, said the medallion contains a fragment of the "True Cross." Church officials said Kennedy is only the eighth persons to receive the fragment of the cross since the fourth century and is the first American. (AP Wirephoto) most elusive of all wild animals in this section, are nocturnal in habit, browsing for food late at night, sleeping in dense thickets during daytime, and presenting a hazard to young pine trees greater than forest fire damage. They root up young pines and feed on the tender roots.

The flesh of these cunning denisons cannot be used for human consumption, and there is a local legend that a certain citizen, during a severe lard shortage, ventured to shoot one of these man and dog haters, placed the carcass in a fired-up wash pot to "render" out some much needed lard. Result: two pints of lard — eight pints of turpentine.

Hatley Lowery, long time state preditory trapper of ward nine, gave a local writer, Harley B. Bozeman, a first hand account of "Old Snort," a Dugdemonia River bottom wild "tush-hog," that related attempts of the late Gov. Earl K. Long and his helpers who tried to capture "Old Snort."

Bozeman asked Lowery what was the most dangerous animal now roaming over central Louisiana woods.

Without hesitation Lowery replied: "The wild tush-hog boar — he can whip any other wild beast or animal that roams the woods, and catching a wild boar hog is more dangerous than riding the meanest Brahma bull, or the buckingest bronc that ever came out of a rodeo chute — I just hope that nobody gets hurt badly."

State department officials said a truck then drove up blockking the way, and civilian photographers suddenly appeared and began photographing Kent's car. He was detained there about two and a half hours and then was released.

Five days later the Czech government accused him of abusing his diplomatic status for the purpose of espionage.

The State Department said Kent was at no time engaged in espionage activity. But in accordance with customary practice, the U.S. diplomat was returning home.

Asked whether the United States had placed any charges against Skacil, a State Department spokesman said, "No comment."

Eventually, the photo plane circled out to sea where Simons and Rutherford brought it down into the Atlantic.

Fire developed in the cockpit of Price's photo jet as it flew over Fentress. To escape the flames, Price ejected and parachuted. He was picked up by a helicopter from Oceana NAS and taken there, where his burns were treated at the naval dispensary.

Price is attached to Jet Photo Squadron VFP-62 at Cecil Field, Fla. First reports from the Pentagon in Washington had said the two fighter jets accidentally shot down the third while on a training exercise off the Virginia coast.

Police Probing Three Thefts-- Car To Watch

Twin City police Friday were investigating three separate thefts, involving the taking of items assorted from an automobile to a wrist watch.

Stolen Wednesday night from the lot of Ryan Chevrolet in West Monroe, according to officers in that city, was a 1961 model Chevrolet coupe, equipped with radio, but no antenna, white sidewall tires and large hub caps. While the license number was not known, the motor number was listed as 116375255181. The car is two-tone turquoise in color.

The theft of two pearl necklaces was reported to Monroe police by Mrs. Tom Gaumnitz, of 2304 Spencer. Valued at a combined worth of $75, the necklaces, one of them a string of cultured Japanese pearls, were taken from her home sometime Friday. Police said they were checking out several leads in the case. The same complainant reported missing a sterling silver drop pearl necklace about a month ago, along with three pieces of silverware, they said.

In another report to Monroe police Friday, Johnny Russell of an Auto Lec Store at 107 N. 4th here, listed as taken a man's Westclox thinline wrist watch valued at about $8. It was described as gold-plated with a leather band.

How To Keep Well

THE MATCH TEST

Can you blow out a match? If not, the air and breathing capacity of the lungs is not up to par. The match test was devised by Dr. Asher Marks and Dr. Jose Bocles of Miami as a simple measurement of pulmonary function.

The match test is done in a relatively draft free room with a well burning, penny, wooden safety match, held approximately 4 inches from the mouth. The individual takes a deep breath and tries to blow iut the flame with the mouth held wide open. The latter is important because pursing the lips allows a smaller and more forceful jet of air to strike the flame.

The Miamians tried the test on 158 persons with a wide variety of heart and lung disorders. Sixty-one could not deliver enough air fast enough to extinguish the flame. Most of these individuals had emphysema, a chronic lung disorder in which the air sacs are over-stretched and filled with dead air.

These men and women have more air in their lungs than they nee dbut are unable to blow it out because the respiratory tissues have lost their elasticity due mainly to age and years of bronchitis. Fresh air is prevented from entering the lungs because the stagnant air occupies most of the available space.

Victims of emphysema are short of breath because the air in the lungs lacks oxygen and they must breathe harder and faster, especially during exercise. Cough is usual because the majority were smokers.

The best medicines are bronchodilators that allow more air to enter. The types that come in nebulizers are most useful, especially when inhaled deep. Antibiotics help eliminate infection. The greatest relief follows exercise that increase the respiratory movements of the lungs to force out stagnant air.

SLEEPS AFTER SUPPER

W. C. O. writes: My husband works hard as a mechanic all day. When he comes home, he eats a large supper, and goes straight to bed. Isn't this habit a bad one?

REPLY

Not necessarily, as many people who sleep after eating live to be 90. Ask your husband how he feels and if he says fine and he looks well, why not conclude that he is healthy? On the other hand, a husband who goes to bed right after dinner is not much of a companion to his wife.

ARM-SHOULDER PAIN

C. B. writes: What is the treatment of post-coronary arm-shoulder syndrome?

REPLY

Physiotherapy — heat, massage, whirlpool baths, or ultrasound wave treatments. We do not know why some people develop this painful condition of the hand and shoulder following recovery from a heart attack.

HEART AND BLOOD VESSELS

F. R. W. writes: What is cardiovascular disease?

REPLY

Diseases of the heart and blood vessels, including the arteries, veins, and capillaries. Cardio means heart and vascular refers to blood vessels. Hardening of the coronary arteries is an example.

CLOTTED VEIN

W .J. writes: What causes blood clots in hemorrhoids?

REPLY

Clots develop because the flow of blood thru a protruding hemorrhoid becomes sluggish. In addition, the involved vein is easily injured and often irritated, causing infection of the outer wall.

BACK TO CHILDHOOD

J .S. writes: I'm past 58 and haven't jumped rope for years. Do you think this is a suitable exercise for me?

REPLY

Try it and I'm sure you will agree that walking is much better.

Best Possible Water Is Needed

An engineer of the Louisiana State Department of Health, James E. Coerver, told the northeast section of the Louisiana Conference on Water and Sewerage that a community must work hard to obtain the best possible water from its available supply.

The group, made up of 15 towns in this area met this week in West Monroe. Each town's water superintendents meet every month.

Coerver's speech, entitled "Standards of Drinking Water," dealt with the best drinking water available to the public for consumption. He said that a search for better methods of producing improved drinking water is still going on.

Northeast Group Slates TV Show

Members of the Northeast State special education center will participate in a television program over KLSE-TV, Channel 10, Tuesday at 11:30 a.m.

James Perry, state supervisor of special education from Baton Rouge, also will appear on the program. The program will explain the different phases of special education, and the Northeast staff will demonstrate techniques used by the Center.

POWER POLITICS

Kennedy Rated New Deal Expert

By LYLE C. WILSON

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Kennedy survived his honeymoon first session of Congress with his New Deal political machine not much damaged, if any.

Kennedy inherited the New Deal political coalition from FDR by way of Harry S. Truman. Adlai E. Stevenson was standby owner-operator of the New Deal coalition from 1952 to 1960. Stevenson was unable to master the controls of the political machine which was in his keeping.

The New Deal machine reacts effectively only to a master operator, according to the hard and often cynical rules of power politics. Stevenson was not much good at that. FDR and HST were experts. Another expert is John F. Kennedy.

New York, Missouri and Massachusetts politics are hard schools. Their graduates are hard men. Illinois politics also is a hard school in which Stevenson apparently was not an apt pupil. Kennedy's payoff for having been graduated cum laude from the school of Massachusetts politics is that he kept his political army intact after the first round of the congressional wars.

There is some thunder on the left. The left wingers of Americans for Democratic Action are complaining against the record of the recent Congress and against Kennedy's share in that record. ADA said the recent Congress' record was:

"At best one of callous expediency and, at worst, one of astonishing indifference to real national needs."

Starving In Red China

Three important facts are emphasized [illegible] South Korea [illegible] from Red China [illegible] that life for average people [illegible]

[illegible]

[illegible] produced enough food [illegible] of the time the food [illegible] has not equalled one-half [illegible] need.

[illegible] as far as the people is concerned.

There is no likelihood of an uprising in Red China now because [illegible] people there have never known [illegible] but starvation and because most of them are so [illegible] that their highest [illegible] is to try to get a little food to assuage their hunger for the moment.

Even in the prosperous United States, where technology and automation have progressed at a faster [illegible] than anywhere in the world [illegible]

[illegible]

Syrian Breakaway

[illegible]

[illegible] should be accused of their [illegible] brand of colonialism by the West.

It is strange but true that Syria got itself into the situation willingly. The United Arab Republic was formed in early 1958 as a federation of two independent nations, Syria and Egypt. A plebiscite in both countries gave almost unanimous approval of the merger. The Egyptian, Nasser, became president with strong support from both Syria and Egypt.

Now that one of two principals in the U.A.R. has chosen to pull out, there is speculation as to how much influence Moscow may have had in the revolt. If the communists did actually enter the scene, they would never reveal it because it might bring other outside influence to bear in the crisis.

England, for example, did not hesitate to intervene when the small kingdom of Kuwait was threatened by Iraq. It will also be recalled that U.S. Marines landed in Lebanon to keep law and order during an election there several years ago.

But as a mater of operational strategy, the Russians will make use of any trouble spot to further their own ends. If Syria becomes seriously weakened as a result of [illegible]

[illegible] from Cairo [illegible] representation in the Nasser government. The feeling voiced by the [illegible] was one of resentment. Syrians [illegible] backing the revolt [illegible] their country had been reduced to the status of an Egyptian satellite.

Nasser, in extending his influence over the old Moslem empire in North Africa and the Middle East, has urged the overthrow of European colonialism by countries in that area.

But the Syrian revolt could, among other things, point the guilty finger of "colonialism" right back at Nasser himself. With such an up-to-date definition of this term now on the books, the West might correctly apply it to Soviet actions in Europe and Asia since World War II.

That Is Question For Those Who Are Bothered By Gallstones

For months you have been complaining of fullness and belching after meals — especially if you have overeaten. Fats seem to bring on such distress. You put off going to the doctor because the discomfort is bearable.

Then one night you are awakened by nausea and severe abdominal pain that goes right through to the space between the shoulder - blades.

You have had what is commonly called gall bladder colic. At last you are interested in finding out what it's all about. The doctor takes X rays that reveal a gall bladder filled with dozens of stones.

What to do? Go along on a low fat diet hoping you will never have another attack? Or, as your doctor suggests, have it out before you get severe complications like jaundice, inflammation of the gall - bladder wall and peritonitis. In such cases, I usually advise the patient to submit to surgery.

But suppose routine X rays have discovered that you have one large or many small stones in your gall bladder. Surprisingly enough, you have never complained of indigestion or pain. What to do? Shall you have an operation or hope you never have an attack of colic?

For years I have been saying there's no hurry. I have known many patients who never got an attack of colic even though they went along for 25 years or more with a bladder full of stones. And even if it should come, patients in their seventies often withstand such surgery quite well.

You ought to know that the reason some doctors believe all gall bladders that have stones in them should come out is that studies have shown that stones left for years are likely to cause cancer of the gall bladder.

Other doctors do not agree. Take for example, one study of 1,296 case reports that concludes: "Gall bladder carcinoma (cancer) is not related to the presence of gallstones . . . There is no justification for the prophylactic removal of a gall bladder containing stones or polyps for the purpose of preventing malignancy (cancer)."

See what I mean? Diagnosis and treatment in medicine are not cut and dried. There are no blanket rules for gall bladder treatment. Each case is a problem unto itself. If you have gallstones that have never given you any trouble, get the opinion of at least two doctors (an internist and a surgeon) before you go rushing into operation.

AFRAID OF ORINASE

Dear Dr. Steincrohn: I have been reading much about Orinase in place of insulin in treating diabetes. Is it a steroid? I have heard that it can do much harm to the body. Will you kindly advise?—Mr. E.

Comment: It is not a steroid. It is not harmful when used under the watchful care of your doctor. If you are a fit subject for its use (and similar medications like Diabinese, etc.), you can take it without harm for many months. In some patients these drugs produce some inflammation of the skin and occasional intestinal upsets. These are rare complications.

Hill Testimony

Danger Of Castro And Communism In Cuba Pointed Out By Him

Robert Hill served in India, Costa Rica, El Salvador and Mexico. In Mexico he was United States Ambassador.

In 1957 Dr. Milton Eisenhower came to Mexico and was a house guest at the embassy. Ambassador Hill testified:

"The U.S. embassy in Mexico was very concerned about the Cuban problem and how it would affect our relations with Mexico. We felt that with Dr. Eisenhower coming to Mexico it would give us an opportunity to at least give him our point of view regarding the danger of Castro and communism in Cuba and how it might affect the relations between the United States and Mexico."

Ambassador Hill had tried to get this information before the State Department and President Eisenhower but had not been very successful. He hoped that he might use Dr. Milton Eisenhower's presence in Mexico for a briefing on the Cuban situation. Ambassador Hill found that his presentation of the situation about eight months after Castro took power was opposed by William Wieland, chief of the Cuba and Mexico desk of the State Department. During the long briefing of Dr. Milton Eisenhower, which took place on an airplane, each time any of the embassy people described Castro as a Communist or the Cuban Revolution as a Communist movement, the statement was denied by Wieland. The argument reached such heat that Colonel Glawe said that "Wieland was either a damn fool or a Communist."

Mr. Sourwine, the counsel for the Internal Security Subcommittee, asked:

"Did Mr. Wieland assert to Dr. Eisenhower that Castro was not a Communist or was not surrounded or influenced by them?"

To this, Ambassador Hill replied:

"In every instance where we tried to present Communist infiltration in the government of Castro it was met with a rebuff by Mr. Wieland."

Ambassador Hill began sending information to the secretary of state as early as 1957. Such dispatches continued until 1960. The dispatches were usually addressed to the secretary of State but [illegible] State Department procedure they passed over William Wieland's desk. Ambassador Hill, referring to information that [illegible] from the State Department, testified:

"On occasion, I wrote the Department of State, cited my differences of opinion and said I thought it was unfortunate that these pro-Castro documents were being circulated among the embassies around the world, because this man was evil and would cause embarrassment and trouble for the United States."

Regarding the San Salvador meeting of American ambassadors held in April 1959, more than three months after Castro took power in Cuba, Ambassador Hill says:

"My opinion was that the meeting was designed to set the policy of patience and forebearance in dealing with Mr. Castro.

"I took issue with Ambassador Bonsal because I felt that, despite his excellent presentation [illegible] that patience and forbearance in dealing with a Communist would lead to disaster for the United States."

Hill said: "[illegible] well, I think now we have an opportunity to judge whether it is a third country position or whether it is communism. I say it has been Communist from the start, beginning on January 1, 1959, when he came to power. He completely destroyed the military, one of the first moves destroyed the bureaucracy. His technicians were from Communist China and Moscow. I assume they weren't there advocating a third country position; that they were there promoting communism."

As one reads Ambassador Hill's testimony, it becomes clear that the State Department and the CIA had ample information on Castro but that the evaluation was incompetent. The information arrived in time but was ignored. Ambassador Hill's description of his chief, William Wieland, is given in this testimony:

Mr. Sourwine: "[illegible] you told us (in Executive Sessions) after Mr. Wieland had interrupted the briefing to defend Castro against the charges of communism or Communist connections, you finally turned to Mr. Wieland and said:

"I do not recall asking you to be in on this conversation. Dr. Eisenhower has agreed to listen to a man of integrity and experience in Latin America . . ."

Mr. Hill: "That is correct."

Mr. Sourwine (reading): "[illegible] as far as I can see, you do not qualify because what Mr. [illegible] is discussing at the moment comes from the joint intelligence report of June 1959, regarding Communist infiltration in Cuba.

Mr. Wieland said, "There is no evidence of Communist infiltration in Cuba."

U.S. Consumers

Eyed Anxiously, Relentlessly For Clues To Economic Trend

[illegible] consumer been analyzed so [illegible] for clues to the economic trend as at this [illegible] 1961 business upturn. [illegible] understandable [illegible] dramatic changes in spending by government and industry [illegible] consumers — account for more than two-thirds of all the spending in this nation, are unquestionably the most crucial force in our economic structure.

Who are we? What are we [illegible]? Why? For some revealing points, read the answers in the following interview with A. W. Zelomek, president of the International Statistical Bureau, visiting professor at the University of Virginia Graduate School of Business Administration, and expert on the U.S. consumer at work and play.

Q. PORTER: Who is the so-called new American consumer?

A. ZELOMEK: One thing is clear — he has little semblance to the U.S. consumer of the past. In 1960, 58 per cent of American families received annual incomes of $5,000 or over as compared with 19.3 per cent in 1947. Despite rising taxes and higher living costs, his total retained income also is the highest on record.

Despite the fact that today's consumer has a greater debt, his total net equity (his financial assets minus liabilities) is at an all-time peak too. And the stress about the consumer being overly in debt is quite exaggerated, I think, for there has been a marked increase in the growth of savings per $1 of increase in debt in the past 10 years. In 1950 this amounted to 49 cents, but in 1960 it reached $1.10.

Q. PORTER: What are the most dramatic changes in the consumer spending pattern in recent years?

A. ZELOMEK: The most dramatic is the extent to which we are spending more and more for services.

In 1950, of every dollar he had to spend, the consumer put 33.3 per cent into services, 66.7 per cent into goods. In 1960, he put 40.2 per cent into services, 59.8 per cent into goods.

These rising expenditures for services mainly reflect our higher standard of living. Who can deny that few youngsters today are sent to a clinic to have their teeth cleaned, but instead are sent to dentists? Who can deny that youngsters, who have to have their tonsils out today are sent to hospitals for as long as needed?

Aside from spending more on the better things in life, I believe today's consumer is not as price [illegible] as would be suggested by the current stress on some of the new type retail outlets, which are featuring reduced services and promotional goods. Today's consumer wants a bargain still, but he wants quality to go with it. The demand for status has gained and will continue to gain and therefore the desire for nicer things, even at higher prices, will continue to increase.

Q. PORTER: How will consumers react to rising living costs?

A. ZELOMEK: The new U.S. consumer, in his desire for more and more services, is responsible in large part for the rising cost of living. Since the base years of 1947-49 on the government's consumer price index, prices of services have risen 53 per cent as compared with 18 per cent for prices of commodities. Prices of services which have jumped far more than 53 per cent are auto insurance, transit fares, obstetrical care, hospital rates, men's haircuts. Short of staying at home and doctoring themselves, there is little consumers can do to cut demand and so to put a check on prices of these services. In addition, since these are the very services which lend themsleves least to automation, rising labor costs cannot be offset by increased productivity.

Q. PORTER: Do you expect consumers to add power to this upturn?

A. ZELOMEK: The U. S. consumer has not been frightened at any time since the end of World War II by changes in the economy, and this vital fact has moderated our postwar business declines. While consumer buying today is not as dynamic as many anticipated, over a period of time, public buying does reflect a favorable turn in the economy and there is no reason to expect 1961 and 1962 to be exceptions.

Starving In Red China

Three important facts are emphasized by a story out of Seoul, South Korea, quoting an escape from Red China as saying the people's communes are so poorly run that life for average people behind the bamboo curtain "is indescribably miserable."

These facts are: life in China has not improved under the Red regime; people on this earth and in any major country cannot produce enough food and other necessities for themselves without the benefits of scientific inventions and so - called automation; there can be no prosperity for any people of any country (and most of those people will face starvation) without prosperity by industry and production on a large scale.

The escapee from Red China said farm products decrease year after year, land is devastated, malnutrition is rampant and children fight for scraps of food.

This grim picture came from Shao Hsi-yen, 29, a pilot who fled for freedom in a civilian plane September 15.

He told a news conference that food doled out is so inadequate that the faces and bodies of many Chinese, particularly of infants and the aged, are swollen from malnutrition.

"The situation is a little better in the rural areas," he said, "but in most cities you will see kids fighting each other or against adults for a little morsel of food."

Shao told of seeing villagers cremating bodies en masse because so many were starving to death the bodies could not be buried separately.

Despite general misery, Shao added, there is small prospect of any uprisings because of the regime's iron-tight controls.

We might as well face the truth. The iron - tight controls used by the Reds are not the only reason for saying there will be no uprising. Within the recollection of any of us who are alive today, China has always been a land of misery. The communist take-over in China was made possible because, for hundreds of years, people starving to death in the streets were a familiar sight.

During those centuries China has never produced enough food and most of the time the food production has not equalled one-half of the need.

The communists promised they would change China from a land of starvation to a land of plenty. This is the promise always made by those who use socialism as a stepping-stone to complete domination by the federal government. Their promises are always big, their achievements small, as far as relieving the people is concerned.

There is no likelihood of an uprising in Red China now because the people there have never known anything but starvation and because most of them are so completely hopeless that their highest ambition is to try to get a little food to assuage their hunger for the moment.

Even in the prosperous United States, where technology and automation have progressed at a faster rate than anywhere in the world, we sometimes find those who say we would have no unemployment if we would discard the modern tools of agriculture and industry and go back to the old system of doing everything by hand. Red China is a perfect example of the fallacy of this theory. China has been such an example for hundreds of years.

Red China has demonstrated that communism, along with all other forms of socialism and complete government control, is totally incapable of doing anything for the people that free industry and free enterprise cannot do.

In addition to a well-developed moral fiber, the only thing that can bring real happiness, food, health and prosperity to the people of any country is a free-enterprise industrial system carried along with all the modern mechanical assistance science and initiative can provide.

In the United States, if we were to sell our freedom for the hope of more prosperity, we not only would lose our freedom but even the prosperity, with which we are now blessed — would disappear.

Syrian Breakaway

The Syrian breakaway from the Arab League last week tells us little except that conditions in the Middle East may still be compared to a powder keg.

Gamal Nasser of Egypt, a member of the "neutral" camp who had dared to enter a few strong words against Khrushchev at the Belgrade conference, has had plenty to say against colonialism on past occasions.

Now he has been accused of that same offense by the new government in Syria. In a like manner, Soviet Russia and Red China should be accused of their own brand of colonialism by the West.

It is strange but true that Syria got itself into the situation willingly. The United Arab Republic was formed in early 1958 as a federation of two independent nations, Syria and Egypt. A plebiscite in both countries gave almost unanimous approval of the merger. The Egyptian, Nasser, became president with strong support from both Syria and Egypt.

Now that one of two principals in the U.A.R. has chosen to pull out, there is speculation as to how much influence Moscow may have had in the revolt. If the communists did actually enter the scene, they would never reveal it because it might bring other outside influence to bear in the crisis.

England, for example, did not hesitate to intervene when the small kingdom of Kuwait was threatened by Iraq. It will also be recalled that U.S. Marines landed in Lebanon to keep law and order during an election there several years ago.

But as a mater of operational strategy, the Russians will make use of any trouble spot to further their own ends. If Syria becomes seriously weakened as a result of the break with Nasser, the communists will spare no efforts to make that country a Soviet "colony."

The tone of the new leadership in Syria is both nationalistic and idealistic. The voice of the rebel radio comes forth with: "We do not oppose Arab unity but we dispute Egypt's claim to Arab leadership."

Syria apparently feels now she has been run from Cairo for over three years and has had only token representation in the Nasser government. The feeling voiced by the rebels was one of resentment. Syrian officials backing the revolt said their country had been reduced to the status of an Egyptian satellite.

Nasser, in extending his influence over the old Moslem empire in North Africa and the Middle East, has urged the overthrow of European colonialism by countries in that area.

But the Syrian revolt could, among other things, point the guilty finger of "colonialism" right back at Nasser himself. With such an up-to-date definition of this term now on the books, the West might correctly apply it to Soviet actions in Europe and Asia since World War II.

Khrush's Berlin Price High

Wants "Sufficient Recognition Of East Berlin To Make It Going Concern," Membership In U. N.

Premier Khrushchev's minimum price for a West Berlin settlement goes considerably beyond "de facto" recognition of the East German Communist regime by the U. S., Britain, and France.

As spelled out by Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko in his private talks with Secretary of State Dean Rusk, Khrushchev's terms call for "sufficient recognition of the East German government, so that it can become a going concern."

Specifically, Khrushchev is demanding:

Recognition of East German control of all access routes from West Germany to West Berlin.

"De facto" recognition of present frontiers of Germany;

Admission of East German regime to the United Nations.

In his latter demand, Khrushchev is asking that the Western Big Three leaders make a pledge that they will not veto East Germany's U. N. application.

In exchange, the Kremlin leader promises that he will not use a Soviet veto to block West Germany's admission to the world body. Under Khrushchev's secret proposal, neither of the German applications for membership would be presented to the U.N. until 1962.

If the West will agree to these terms, Gromyko reports that Khrushchev will agree to support a United Nations "presence" in West Berlin that he claims will guarantee the "free" status of the city after the signing of the East German peace treaty.

Also, Gromyko made it clear that his government was going ahead with the signing of the treaty in December unless "some extraordinary event causes a delay."

ON THE INSIDE — In reply to a proposal by Secretary Rusk to include the question of German unification and Western European security on the agenda of a Foreign Ministers meeting on Berlin, Gromyko reported that Russia was willing to broaden the negotiations if the question of West German nuclear armaments was included.

During the talks, Gromyko was very cordial.

For instance, at one point he even apologized to Secretary Rusk when a brand of Soviet cigarettes called "Troika" was served at the end of the luncheon.

"An accident!" exclaimed Gromyko. "Pure coincidence."

Gromyko spoke again and again of Khrushchev's desires "to settle the German question once and for all without resorting to war." He kept repeating, "It is time to end the temporary settlement of World War II."

These statements of Gromyko greatly impressed Secretary Rusk, who in reporting to the President said, "I believe your warnings that the West will fight for Berlin have finally gotten through to the Kremlin."

Secretary Rusk urged the President to use his influence with President de Gaulle to win an Allied agreement for a Big Four Foreign Ministers meeting in November in either Geneva or London.

Secretary Rusk told the President that he personally favored granting some type of "de facto" recognition to East Germany in exchange for new Soviet guarantee to access to West Berlin.

He admitted that his talks with Gromyko left unsettled the real point at issue: If the East Germans are to have charge of the access routes, how extensively will the West have to deal with that Communist regime?

NOTE: If there is an East-West agreement to put a U. N. "presence" in West Berlin, Secretary Rusk plans to push for concentrating all U. N. Economic-aide activities in the German city. If this is done, he believes, frequent visits to the city by Asian and African delegates would force the Soviets and East Germans to keep the access route to Berlin open.

As one reads Ambassador Hill's testimony, it becomes clear that the State Department and the CIA had ample information on Castro but that the evaluation was incompetent. The information arrived in time but was ignored. Ambassador Hill's description of his chief, William Wieland, is given in this testimony:

Mr. Sourwine: ". . . you told us that (in Executive Sessions) after Mr. Wieland had interrupted the briefing to defend Castro against the charges of communism or Communist connections, you finally turned to Mr. Wieland and said:

"I do not recall asking you to be in on this conversation. Dr. Eisenhower has agreed to listen to a man of integrity and experience in Latin America . . .' ".

Mr. Hill: "That is correct."

Mr. Sourwine (reading):

". . . as far as I can see, you do not qualify because what Mr. Leddy is discussing at the moment comes from the joint intelligence report of June 1959, regarding Communist infiltration in Cuba."

Mr. Wieland said, "There is no evidence of Communist infiltration in Cuba."

U.S. Consumers

Eyed Anxiously, Relentlessly For Clues To Economic Trend

Not ever in history has the U.S. consumer been analyzed so anxiously and relentlessly for clues to the economic trend as at this point in the 1961 business upturn. Although there is an understandable tendency to dramatize changes in spending by government and industry, you and I — as consumers — account for more than two - thirds of all the spending in our nation, are unquestionably the most crucial force in our economic structure.

Who are "we"? What are "we" likely to do? Why? For some revealing points, read the answers in the following interview with A. W. Zelomek, president of the International Statistical Bureau, visiting professor at the University of Virginia Graduate School of Business Administration, and expert on the U.S. consumer at work and play.

Q. PORTER: Who is the so-called new American consumer?

A. ZELOMEK: One thing is clear — he has little semblance to the U. S. consumer of the past. In 1960, 58 per cent of American families received annual incomes of $5,000 or over as compared with 19.3 per cent in 1947. Despite rising taxes and higher living costs, his total retained income also is the highest on record.

Despite the fact that today's consumer has a greater debt, his total net equity (his financial assets minus liabilities) is at an all-time peak too. And the stress about the consumer being overly in debt is quite exaggerated, I think, for there has been a marked increase in the growth of savings per $1 of increase in debt in the past 10 years. In 1950 this amounted to 49 cents, but in 1960 it reached $1.10.

Q. PORTER: What are the most dramatic changes in the consumer spending pattern in recent years?

A. ZELOMEK: The most dramatic is the extent to which we are spending more and more for services.

In 1960, of every dollar he had to spend, the consumer put 33.3 per cent into services, 66.7 per cent into goods. In 1960, he put 40.2 per cent into services, 59.8 per cent into goods.

These rising expenditures for services mainly reflect our higher standard of living. Who can deny that few youngsters today are sent to a clinic to have their teeth cleaned, but instead are sent to dentists? Who can deny that youngsters, who have to have their tonsils out today are sent to hospitals for as long as needed?

Aside from spending more on the better things in life, I believe today's consumer is not as price conscious as would be suggested by the current stress on some of the new type retail outlets, which are featuring reduced services and promotional goods. Today's consumer wants a bargain still, but he wants quality to go with it. The demand for status has gained and will continue to gain and therefore the desire for nicer things, even at higher prices, will continue to increase.

Q. PORTER: How will consumers react to rising living costs?

A. ZELOMEK: The new U. S. consumer, in his desire for more and more services, is responsible in large part for the rising cost of living. Since the base years of 1947-49 on the government's consumer price index, prices of services have risen 53 per cent as compared with 18 per cent for prices of commodities. Prices of services which have jumped far more than 53 per cent are auto insurance, transit fares, obstetrical care, hospital rates, men's haircuts. Short of staying at home and doctoring themselves, there is little consumers can do to cut demand and so to put a check on prices of these services. In addition, since these are the very services which lend themsleves least to automation, rising labor costs cannot be offset by increased productivity.

Q. PORTER: Do you expect consumers to add power to this upturn?

A. ZELOMEK: The U. S. consumer has not been frightened at any time since the end of World War II by changes in the economy, and this vital fact has moderated our postwar business declines. While consumer buying today is not as dynamic as many anticipated, over a period of time, public buying does reflect a favorable turn in the economy and there is no reason to expect 1961 and 1962 to be exceptions.

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy Friday issued several recess appointments for U. S. attorneys and marshals.

The appointments are for persons whose nominations failed to receive Senate approval before Congress adjourned. Under the recess appointments, those involved will be able to serve and draw pay until their nominations are acted upon by the Senate in January.

The appointments for U. S. marshals included Joseph W. Keene, western division if Louisiana.

BECOMES BRITISH EARL

LONDON (AP) — Antony Armstrong-Jones officially became the Earl of Snowdon Friday night.

A formal announcement in the London Gazette, official organ for state and palace announcements, made it possible for him to use his title publicly and has the effect of dating the new earl's seniority in the House of Lords, where he is now entitled to a seat.

DURING OCTOBER

Two Conventions Scheduled Here

The Southeastern Airport Managers Association will hold their first convention west of the Mississippi River on October 25 through 27 in Monroe.

Approximately 10 airport managers are slated to attend.

One week prior to that, the mid-year meeting of the Louisiana Association of Insurance Agents will be held here on October 17-18, with 200 delegates.

Panel discussions by airport managers, Federal Aeronautics Agency personnel, airline and other representatives will touch on various phases of airport problems and progress.

All business sessions will be held in the Penn Resort Hotel.

R. Earl McKaughan, president of Trans-Texas Airways from Houston will be a featured speaker.

An innovation in convention procedure will be the entertainment slated for the opening night.

Through cooperation of the Chamber of Commerce, the Little Theater performance on the night of October 25 has been reserved for the delegates, their wives and guests, and they will see the play "Teahouse of the August Moon."

FIRST OCCASION

This is the first time that a convention will be hosted at the Strauss Playhouse.

An executive meeting will be on the first day's agenda. Constitution changes and recommendations by members may be included in this session.

Official opening, with greetings from Mayor W. L. Howard, will take place on October 26.

"Then," said Hargrove, "we'll go right to work."

Two airport managers' panels will include such questions as runway maintenance, land acquisition for runway extensions, handling costs and incomes of airports, terminal building maintenance.

FAA officials will explain the new airport aid act, and various changes in airport procedures that are pending or being discussed.

All types of procedures, from actual control to project aid applications, will be reviewed.

Several speakers will be included at sessions.

During the executive session, a nominating committee will be appointed. New officers will be elected on the evening of the last day.

Current president is Matt V. Pilcher of Sarasota, Fla., Gene Marlin of Newport News, Va., is vice president, and Marshall Harris, Roanoke, Va., is secretary - treasurer.

The program for ladies consists of a luncheon and style show the first day, tour of bayou homes another day.

A banquet and dance will conclude the convention.

Charles McKenzie, Monroe insurance man, will act as coordinating chairman for the Louisiana Association of Insurance Agents' meeting.

The sessions will begin at 9:30 a.m. on Tuesday, October 17, with an executive committee meeting.

The president of the Mississippi Association of Insurance Agents will be featured in a speech on coverage for low-value dwellings, on the morning of October 18.

"This has been a problem in the past," explained McKenzie. "We will hear Mississippi's solution to it."

Various problems faced by the independent insurance agents will be reviewed.

Members will decide on the annual budget, and discuss their 1962 advertising campaign.

A reception for the president and executive committee will be staged by the Ouachita Association of Insurance Agents from 5:30 to 7 p.m. October 17.

DEAR ABBY

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: My life is such an unhappy mess I don't know where to begin. I am 22 years old. I am not married, engaged or going with anyone. I never have had a date or kissed anyone. Once a boy tried to kiss me and I didn't know how to respond. When I was in high school I had several boys for friends, but they never asked me out.

All the girls I know are either married or have boy friends. If a boy shows an interest in me I become frightened and don't know how to act. My relatives call me "old maid" behind my back, and some even to my face. I am not unattractive. I am neat and clean and have a good figure and dress well. I don't go to church so don't send me to my clergyman. I can't afford the prices I've heard psychiatrists charge. I don't want to go through life alone. I'm sorry I can't sign my name. Sign me . . . OLD MAID AT 22

DEAR OLD MAID: To have friends, one must be a friend. For one [illegible] by shyness, this is not easy. But you must make an effort to give of yourself through association with people—at your office, in charity work, at church. No one goes through life wholly "alone" except by choice—his choice. [illegible] have nothing [illegible] your loneliness.

DEAR ABBY: When parents have passed away what happens to the gifts given to them by their children? Does any one of the children have the right to help herself to [illegible] appliances, linen, silver or anything else? I always thought the gift should go back to the person who gave it. This has caused a lot of hard feelings in our family, and I would like some opinions other than my own as I have been called [illegible]. — SMALL AND GRASPING

DEAR SMALL: The gift should be returned to the giver. The adjectives applied to you seem to fit other members of your family more appropriately.

DEAR ABBY: My mother doesn't care what she looks like when she goes anywhere. I gave her a few tips on how to fix her hair, and what to wear, but she says I am being fresh and, if I don't like the way she looks, to keep it to myself. She could be a pretty woman if she would take a little time with herself. How can I help her without getting her mad at me? I am 13. —EMBARRASSED

DEAR EMBARRASSED: It is understandable that a mother would resent "criticism" from her 13-year-old daughter. Offer your suggestions in a more tactful way, and your mother will probably be more receptive. And perhaps even grateful.

Halaby Says Changes Make Planes Safer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Administrator Najeeb Halaby of the Federal Aviation Agency said Friday a number of design and operating modifications have reduced the operating risk of DC8 jet commercial aircraft to an acceptable level.

Halaby told a news conference that his agency and the Douglas Aircraft Co. already have made a number of changes and have others under way as a result of investigations following a DC8 crash at Denver last July 11 in which 17 were killed.

The changes are aimed at improving operation of the hydraulic control system and to insure proper operation when reverse thrust is utilized on landing. Halaby said one or more of the four engines of the plane that crashed at Denver may have continued in forward thrust after the pilot applied the reversing controls.

Halaby said the FAA also has conducted renewed safety investigations of the turboprop Electra since one crashed at O'Hare Field in Chicago some weeks ago. The administrator said the investigations have wielded no evidence to indicate the airplane is unsafe.

Halaby said modification of the DC8 would be completed in 60 to 70 days.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:

A X Y D L B A A X R
is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

FIND TREASURE

OLDHAM, England (UPI) — Charles Wallwork, who always smiled as he sat outside his home in his chair, left the chair to his son when he died. The chair was so dilapidated the son gave it to some boys for a bonfire. The boys found $1,198 in the cushion and returned it to the son.

Yesterday's answers: CHUTE BASIS TOWARD BROKER—HIS WORK

Voice Of Broadway

By DOROTHY KILGALLEN

Ginger Rogers, on the long distance telephone from Hollywood, vowed that what the friends who have been spreading rift rumors about her and Bill Marshall "are no friends of mine." Ginger said, "sure we had some fights while we were touring this summer, but now we're home everything is fine. We couldn't be happier." . . . Multi-millionaire Huntington Hartford may be on the verge of gaining admission to the Clan. He and Sammy Davis Jr. have become very buddy-buddy in London Miles Lowell, whose marriage to society's Cynthia Foy Rupp chalked up some kind of a record for brevity, made the scene at El Morocco with Eleanor, Baroness de la Bouillerie.

Those who've heard Irving Berlin's music for the upcoming Lindsay - Crouse show say it's his best score in 20 years . . A major nightclub boom has developed in Canada. New York booking agents are sending acts to our northern neighbors for eight and 10-week tours of cafes, at top money Marc Bohan, Dior's chief designer, has signed U.S. model Jackie Cryer for his Paris atelier. He discovered her at I. Magnin's in San Francisco .... Jazz pianist Ahmad Jamal plans to hit the road again to recoup the losses incurred with his now-defunct Chicago nightclub. Reports are that he poured a huge amount into the venture, and really needs fresh money.

GUY PASTOR, HIS BROTHER Tony Jr., and their manager, Gene La Brie were Ava Gardner's escorts the other evening, in case you're keeping score. When Ava decided she'd like to go home with the fellows to visit their father — an old friend from the days of her marriage to Artie Shaw — she took along a flamenco guitarist to provide mood music.

Judy Garland, Sid Luft and Gabby Hayes were among the enthusiasts who gave Adam Wade a standing ovation at the Copacabana's late show the other morning Hollywood's most famous interior decorator is beefing about the New York job he did for a big-name glamor girl. He says he finished the job over a year ago and is still waiting to be paid Now that 20th Century Fox has dropped plans to film the story of Dr. Tom Dooley, the touching biog is up for grabs. Scuttlebut has it that Tony Perkins wouldn't play the leading role unless the picture was made on location, and 20th didn't think that was necessary .. Tourists traveling to New Orleans find it hard to believe that one of the city's landmarks, the Vieux Carre on Bourbon St., has closed. The bistro folded for the oldest of all reasons — bad business.

Jimmy Van Heusen's dinner date at Charles a la Pomme Souffle was Hollywood actress Angela Leeds, who had followed him to New York. The songwriter is in town to look over a number of scripts, hoping to find a musical comedy libretto suited to his talents.

Marti Stevens gets back to New York any day now, after making her movie debut in J. Arthur Rank's "All Night Long." Shes bringing with her a wardrobe from Paris that is bound to dazzle the Right Set all Winter long ... The Dolce Vita observers in Rome are agog over the infatuation of an American movie producer's wife for a young Italian actor There must be a depression somewhere. Elvis Presley couldn't afford to give Col. Parker (his manager) anything but a yacht for a birthday present.

THE PICTURE MAGAZINES are clamoring for "exclusive" rights to photograph the new Latin Quarter spectacle opening October 16. The beauties, from such far-away places as London, Paris, Amsterdam, Vienna and Geneva, are said to be the most gorgeous in L.Q. history Duke Ellington's score for "Paris Blues" is likely to make as much of a noise (pretty and musical) as his soundtrack notes for "Anatomy of a Murder." the Duke is swamped with Broadway and Hollywood offers, but prefers to keep his band, explaining: "My greatest reward is hearing what I wrote. I think that's why I keep the big band. The band gets the money and I get the kicks."

Fashion question: Has anyone in the vast audience out there figured out why Eddie Fisher wears a business suit and four-in-hand tie when Elizabeth Taylor is garbed in a silver evening gown with plunging neckline? Can't she get him into a dinner jacket? The news pictures of them in clothes made him look more like her bodyguard than her husband.

EX-MAYOR WILLIAM O'DWYER should be ecstatic over the CBS program "The Mayor Tree." It shows him off as the best chief executive New York has ever had — despite the fact that many of the fellows laboring behind the scenes on the film were Republicans.

TITO SENDS MESSAGE

Liberia Leader Leaves For U.S.

MONROVIA, Liberia (AP) — President William V. S. Tubman left by ship Friday for the United States and a visit with President Kennedy.

Tubman said he will discuss among other things American aid to Liberia but stressed he is not going hat in hand. He is due to arrive in New York Oct. 16 aboard the African Crescent.

Tubman's plans call for a medical checkup at Walter Reed Hospital, meetings with executives of American firms operating in his West African nation and a visit to Fairleigh Dickinson University, Rutherford, N. J., to receive an honorary degree.

Ginger Rogers, on the long distance telephone from Hollywood, vowed that what the friends who have been spreading rift rumors about her and Bill Marshall "are no friends of mine." Ginger said, "sure we had some fights while we were touring this summer, but now we're home everything is fine. We couldn't be happier." . . . Syrian Premier Brushes Off Nasser Gesture

DAMASCUS, Syria (UPI)—Syrian Premier Mamoun Al-Kuzbari Friday brushed off as a self-serving gesture United Arab Republic President Gamal Abdel Nasser's speech conceding the independence of Syria.

Al-Kuzbari's initial reaction to Nasser's declaration in Cairo Thursday that he would not oppose Syria's admission to the United Nations was reported to have been one of relief and satisfaction But his official reply broadcast over radio Damascus, was far from friendly.

Al-Kuzbari said Nasser abandoned his diplomatic blockade of Syria because of the "adverse consequences" to the U A R He said Nasser "could not keep breaking off relations with every country that recognized the Syrian Republic."

Nasser has severed relations with Jordan and Turkey, the first two nations to recognize the new Syrian government set up after the army revolt against Cairo last week.

Al-Kuzbari said that Egypt, instead of supporting the Syrian economy as Nasser contended, actually was "draining" it by a variety of methods What Nasser claimed were financial grants really were short-term loans, he said.

Khrushchev Lauds Reds' Berlin Wall

BERLIN (AP) — East Germany's Communists began celebration of their 12th anniversary of rule Friday to the applause of Soviet Premier Khrushchev for the wall they have erected across the heart of Berlin.

From Moscow, Khrushchev sent a birthday message to East German party boss Walter Ulbricht and his government, in which he described the new Communist control measures against escaping refugees as "a considerable contribution to the cause of peace."

The Soviet premier dropped his year-end deadline for an East German peace treaty, as he has been doing lately, though he predicted such a treaty would be signed soon.

The omission was noted as authoritative sources in Bonn said the West German government was ready to expand "administrative and technical relations" with East Germany.

The U.S. State Department denied, however, that West Germany had been approached with the idea that it take over the task of negotiating with East Germany an agreement on Western access rights to West Berlin, the focal point of the Berlin crisis.

While Khrushchev was hailing the Communists' wall as a contribution to peace, the Western commandants delivered a sharp protest against recent shootings that have turned the city into a perilous area of trigger-happy police and angry, jeering West Berliners.

Speaking on behalf of all three Western powers, British Commandant Maj. Gen. Sir Rohan Delacombe told Col. Andrei I. Solovyev, the Soviet commandant, shootings by East German police were a "dangerous and irresponsible action" and a threat to peace. The Briton told Solovyev he would be held responsible for preventing future incidents.

In the first of the series of border incidents an East German refugee was killed in a leap from a five-story roof while being chased by Vopos, the East German police. West Berlin police opened fire, when Communist bullets spattered into West Berlin, and a Vopo was shot in the leg.

In the second, a Vopo aimed a shot at a West Berlin policeman who demanded that the Communists stop throwing rocks at an angry West Berlin crowd. Later Red police fired warning shots at a West Berlin workman mending a cable after he stepped across the forbidden line.

Khrushchev Lauds Reds' Berlin Wall

BERLIN (AP) — East Germany's Communists began celebration of their 12th anniversary of rule Friday to the applause of Soviet Premier Khrushchev for the wall they have erected across the heart of Berlin.

From Moscow, Khrushchev sent a birthday message to East German party boss Walter Ulbricht and his government, in which he described the new Communist control measures against escaping refugees as "a considerable contribution to the cause of peace."

The Soviet premier dropped his year-end deadline for an East German peace treaty, as he has been doing lately, though he predicted such a treaty would be signed soon.

The omission was noted as authoritative sources in Bonn said the West German government was ready to expand "administrative and technical relations" with East Germany.

The U.S. State Department denied, however, that West Germany had been approached with the idea that it take over the task of negotiating with East Germany an agreement on Western access rights to West Berlin, the focal point of the Berlin crisis.

While Khrushchev was hailing the Communists' wall as a contribution to peace, the Western commandants delivered a sharp protest against recent shootings that have turned the city into a perilous area of trigger-happy police and angry, jeering West Berliners.

Speaking on behalf of all three Western powers, British Commandant Maj. Gen. Sir Rohan Delacombe told Col. Andrei I. Solovyev, the Soviet commandant, shootings by East German police were a "dangerous and irresponsible action" and a threat to peace. The Briton told Solovyev he would be held responsible for preventing future incidents.

In the first of the series of border incidents an East German refugee was killed in a leap from a five-story roof while being chased by Vopos, the East German police. West Berlin police opened fire, when Communist bullets spattered into West Berlin, and a Vopo was shot in the leg.

In the second, a Vopo aimed a shot at a West Berlin policeman who demanded that the Communists stop throwing rocks at an angry West Berlin crowd. Later Red police fired warning shots at a West Berlin workman mending a cable after he stepped across the forbidden line.

OPHS HOMECOMING

Bastrop Edges Lions 7-6 In Grimly Fought Battle

Coach Bob Ellen's Ouachita Lions came roaring back in the second half here last night, but their hard-hitting, fast-moving effort fell short and they lost their homecoming game to the Bastrop Rams in a 7-6 squeak before near capacity crowd of approximately 4,000.

The Rams scored in the closing minutes of the first quarter and retained their 7-0 lead through the rest of the first half as neither team could get a substantial drive going.

In the second half little halfback Timmy Gordy came out running and running hard as he continously picked up large gains on end sweeps.

Quarterback Dennis Warner did a remarkable job of throwing the ball as he completed 16 of 28 attempts. To start the second half he completed eight consecutive aerials before missing his mark.

Warner ended the Lion's scoring drive with an 11 yard pass play to halfback Butch Oglesbee. The play capped a 45 yard drive that required only nine plays. With a crucial fourth down and six yards needed for a first down from the Ram's 11 yard line, Warner hit Oglesbee with a pass down the middle. Oglesbee took the pass in on his four-yard line and did an excellent job of eluding Bastrop defenders to slip into the endzone for the six-pointer.

The TD play came on the first play of the fourth quarter and put Ouachita only one point behind the Rams at 7-6. On the all important extra point Oglesbee was holding and Warner kicking, but the kick was wide to the left to spell the difference for the Lions.

Bastrop won the toss and elected to receive to open the game. Ricky Hand gathered in the kickoff on his own five yard line and returned it to the 25 yard line where the Rams took over.

The heavy Ram line, which held a thirty pound per man advantage, overpowered the Loins and marched steadily and strongly down the field for a touchdown.

The Rams ground out the 75 yards in 20 plays as they controlled the ball for the first ten and a half minutes of the game.

Fullback Billy Deville, halfbacks James Chunn and Wade Akins alternated at lugging the ball as they picked up four and five yards a carry.

The Lions' defense almost held the Rams on their 36 yard line, but with fourth down and six yards to go for a first down from that point, quarterback Ed Worley hit end David Whitworth on an eleven yard pass play that gave the Rams new life with a first and ten on Ouachita's 24 yard line.

From there the Rams rolled up another first down on the Lions' 13 .

Akins then picked up four yards on two carries and halfback Pete Perot ground out five to the three and a half yard line. A measurement showed that the Rams were about two inches short, which brought up a fourth down with inches to go for the first.

Deville powered up the middle for about a yard, but Ouachita was off sides and the penalty moved the ball to within a little over a yard from the goal line. On the next play Perot burst through right tackle for the touchdown to put the Rams ahead 6-0 with only 1:30 left in the first quarter.

Worley then kicked the extra point to make the score 7-0.

After the Rams kicked off, the Lions got off only three plays before the quarter ended. On the frist play of the second quarter the Lions were forced to punt as they were faced with a fourth down and seven situation on their own 18. End Jack Trinble got off a beauty for 56 yards as it rolled dead on Bastrop's 30 yard stripe.

The teams then exchanged punts and Bastrop intercepted a Ouachita pass, but the half ended wtih the Rams on their own 37 yard line.

The Rmas dominated the first half as they overpowered the Lions and chalked up seven first downs on 70 yards rushing and 26 yards in the air. Ouachita managed only three first downs on 21 yards rushing and 43 yards passing.

Gordy was the Lions work horse in the second half as he picked up 41 yards on seven carries and gathered in four passes for 49 yards.

Ouachita received the kickoff to open the second half and came out looking like a different team as they showed great determination. Gordy did the damage on the ground and Warner displayed his fine passing ability as he connected on eight straight. He found the mark with Oglesbee four times, including the TD, Gordy three times and Billy Gerson on the other.

The Lions' first drive in the second half died on Bastrop's ten yard stripe, but the Rams couldn't move either and punted.

Ouachita took over on the 45 yard line and Warner passed on eight of the nine plays that lead to the score on the first play of the final stanza.

Bastrop could not move the ball gain, and once again had to punt.

Warner again went to the airways, but guard Laurence Nugent was ready for it and intercepted on the Lions' 40 yard marker and fell forward to the 38. The Rams then got a good drive rolling, with Deville doing the damage as he powered for gains of 15, ine, five, and three yards before the Lion defense could stop him.

The Lion defense finally got organized and dug in on the four as they fought Deville off on a fourth down and inches needed play to take over on their own four.

Once again Warner went to the airways, but was being rushed badly by the over-pwering Ram defenders and the Lions were forced to punt as they faced a fourth and 15 on their own 15 yard line.

Ouachita regained possession of the ball on their 14 as Bastrop punted with only two minutes playing tmie remaining, but Warner could not connect and the Lions punted with only 1:16 left and Bastrop ran out the clock.

"I was proud of the way the boys came back in the second half," a perspiring Coach Ellen said in the Ouachita dressing room minutes after the game hda ended.

"We just got out-knocked in the first half," he added. "We could not get our offense going in the first half because we didn't have the ball enough. After all, Bastrop used up just about the entire first quarter with that scoring drive."

In answer to the question, Coach Ellen said he and his staff didn't make any drastic changes at halftime.

"Offensivley, we were trying to hit the long passes in the first half and were not successful," he explained. "In the second half, we concentrated more on the short passes and that was the reason our offense perked up."

"Defensively, I though we did a good job of containing them after that early scoring drive," Coach Ellen pointed out. "And our tackling and pursuit looked much better in the second half."

Coach Ellen also had words of praise for Bastrop. "They have a hard-hitting, well-coached ballclub," he added.

Score by quarters:

Ouachita 0 0 0 6—6

Linemen At Tech Doing Great Work

RUSTON (Special) — Unheralded guys in the trenches have done a remarkable job on defense for Louisiana Tech in the first two grid games, holding two strong foes to only 62 yards rushing per game.

A few of the Tech linemen are well known in GSC grid circles but many of them are youngsters who will also be in the limelight before their careers are over.

The line is headed by Herschel Vinyard at tackle and Don Tippit, guard, both three-letter seniors who have been all-GSC twice. Andy Malone, playing tackle on the opposite side of the line from Vinyard, has earned two letters.

Ends Jerry Griffin and Charlie Bourgeois were promoted from last year's second unit, as was guard Pat Collins. John Williamson, the soph standout center, was on the third unit last year.

On the Tech alternate unit, Ends Jim Summerlin and Billy Keever were reserves last year. Guard Billy Jack Talton is a senior vet but Richard Enis, a soph without much previous experience is expected to soon rate as one of the loop's best.

Center Billy Ware holds down the same spot he did a year ago and tackles Tucson Dunn and Jim Willis, although reserves last year, saw a lot of service.

Tech's two defensive lines were a question mark before the season started, but after two games neither of the foes were able to rush for a touchdwon. Two touchdowns were scored against Tech on passes and a blocked punt was recovered in the end zone for the other.

Southwestern will test the Bulldog forward wall here this Saturday. Tech takes on Arlington State Oct. 14 at Arlington and the Texans like to grind out the yardage on the ground in the same fashion as Tech powerhouses of the past.

Fourth Of July?

NORMAN, Okla. (AP)—A duel between Iowa State tailback Dave Hoppman and Oklahoma quarterback Bill van Burkleo could provide some offensive fireworks when the teams meet Saturday.

A crowd of 45,000 is expected to watch the Big Eight Conference game at Owen Field.

Iowa State will be gunning for its third straight victory after triumphs over Drake and Oklahoma State. The Cyclones whipped Drake 21-0 and Oklahoma State 7.

The Cyclones scored their first decision in 29 years over Oklahoma last year, 10-6, and will be benefiting from a two-week rest when they try to cash in again.

Oklahoma, lacking in its usual depth, absorbed a 19-6 beating from Notre Dame last week but showed enough to be rated a one-touchdown favorite over Iowa State.

Madison Puts Fire In 39-6 Carroll Win

The Carroll High Bulldogs won their fourth straight football victory last night with a 39-6 decision over Jones High of North Little Rock, Ark.

Early in the first period a Jones attempt to score was broken up by a pass interception by Symartha Johnson who carried the ball 35 yards for the first Bulldog score. Charles Madison added the point.

Later in the first period Madison scampered 40 yards for another Bulldog TD. Thomas Harvey and Robert Coulberson led the interference.

Madison got away to the Jones three where Joe Everett carried over for another TD. Rufus Ford added the point.

On the kickoff, Jones broke loose with an 80-yard runback by Bothwell for its only touchdown.

Then Madison thrilled his fans again with a 75-yard run to paydirt for Carroll.

OUACHITA FULLBACK Bubba Via gains three yards and a first down early in the second quarter of last night's district game with Bastrop. Number 60 for Ouachita is Guard Roy Walton. NO. 5 FOR MONROE TIGERS

Early Neville Punch Bags Jonesboro-Hodge, 34 To 6

JONESBORO, La. (Special) — The Neville High Tigers of Monroe rammed over three quick touchdowns in the first quarter and coasted to a 34-6 victory over the Jonesboro-Hodge Tigers here last night.

It was the second district 2-AA victory for Neville's top-ranked machine in Louisiana double - A ball, and the Monroe club needs only to sack Ruston next Friday night to reclaim the district crown.

It was the fifth straight victory for the unbeaten Neville club. It was the fourth loss in five starts for a J-H club that has played nothing but triple-A and double-A rivals.

Neville mixed passes and running plays with a fumble recovery and a pass interception to total last night's score.

First, Neville returned a Jonesboro-Hodge punt to the hosts' 20, and a few plays later quarterback Jerry Jones rammed over from the one for the opening wedge

Jones unlimbered his passing arm for the next two Neville touchdowns, also in the first quarter.

Jones hit right end Herschel Walker on a pass and run play that covered 35 yards, and Jimmy Howard added the first of four conversion he made for the night.

Next, Jones shot a bull's eye at Mike Wilson on a 21-yard scoring play, and when Howard added the point, the Tigers were in front 20-0 after one quarter.

Taking advantage of a J-H fumble recovered by Neville, the invading Tigers were on the march again in the second quarter in a 20-yard drive with Howard charging over from three yards out. Howard converted and it was 27-0 at the half.

Robert Marrus carried the ball six straight times in a 37-yard Jonesboro-Hodge fourth quarter surge for the Jackson Parish Tigers' only touchdown. Marrus went five yards on the last trip.

Neville's only second half score resulted when Herschel Walker intercepted a J-H pass on his own 48 and ran in back 52 yards for the TD late in the final period. Howard added the final point.

Neville looked impressive offensively and defensively in their first half show. Jonesboro-Hodge made a good game of it in the second half.

The Monroe powerhouse led in first downs, 11 to 8, and rushed for 227 yards against 129 for Jonesboro-Hodge.

Cupit Named Best Rookie By Magazine

EVANSTON, Illinois (Special)— Twenty-three year old Jacky Cupit has been named "Rookie of the Year" by Golf Digest Magazine in the publication's November issue.

Cupit is the hottest beginner to hit the circuit since Ken Venturi started out with $18,761 in 1957. He is practically a cinch to become the first $20,000 freshman in PGA history. The young Texan has succeeded in one of the world's toughest professional sports by sticking to his own game and his own counsel.

"I don't worry about my swing," he says. "Ben Hogan, for instance, has his swing, and I know I wouldn't do any good if I tried to copy it. Anyhow, after watching Doug Ford and knowing how well he has done, I'm not concerned about form."

Jacky turned professional in October, 1960, after compiling an excellent record as a member of the University of Houston golf team. In his first pro start he tied for seventh and won $1,250 at Phoenix in February of this year.

Florida Wins 14-3 In The Last Half

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Florida's Gators resurrected an ancient sleeper play to score one touchdown Friday night and rallied in the second half to defeat wilting Tulane 14-3 before 30,000 fans.

Tulane led 3-0 when the second half opened, but Gator quarterback Bobby Dodd Jr., son of the Georgia Tech football coach, unleashed an attack that caught the Greenies napping after the intermission.

Fullback Jim O'Donnell at first appeared to be trotting off the field when Dedd called signals and passed to the 188-pound third unit fullback on the 20 and O'Donnell had clear sailing for the touchdown.

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Statistics of the Florida-Tulane game:

Tulane took the 3-0 lead on end Charles Connell's 30-yard field goal in the first quarter. But afterward the Greenies were unable to generate much of an offense.

The Gators went ahead in the third quarter when Dodd, an understudy to starter Larry Libertore, pushed to a touchdown on a 59-yard march. The score came when Dodd ducked through the line after connecting with end Russ Brown on a 30-yard pass to the Tulane two.

Halfback Ron Stoner and Bob Hoover gathered in three other Dodd swing passes during the first Florida scoring drive.

Hoover's fumble at the Florida 15, recovered by tackle Jim Evans, paved the way for Connell's field goal.

Earlier, Tulane center John Chaussin intercepted a Libertore pass on the Florida 41 but three plays failed to give the Greenies further yardage.

The victory was Florida's second as against one tie. Tulane took its third straight setback without a triumph.

Navy Upsets Big Favorite Miami, 17-6

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Halfback Jim Stewart raced 83 yards to a second - period touchdown and fired-up Navy never surrendered its lead as the Middies whipped Miami's two-touchdown favorites, Friday night, 17-6.

Stewart caught a swing pass from Ron Klemick at the line of scrimmage and, behind beautiful downfield blocking, sped to the score.

Thereafter, ferce Navy defenders held Miami's running and passing attack under control except for a third period drive that netted six points.

The Middies charged so hard that they not only knocked Miami's runners and passers back on their heels but also put referee John Lynch out of the game with injuries after he got in the way of a Navy back.

Greg Mather booted a 36-yard field goal later in the third quarter, and in the final period, John Sai drove four yards for another Navy touchdown after Bob Sutton had intercepted a pass from Bobby Weaver at the Miami 43.

Until Navy took charge, Miami's attack was sharp in the opening period and the Hurricanes just missed two touchdowns. Weaver hit Bill Miller with one 35-yard, all-the-way pass, but he had just stepped out of bounds when he threw.

Shortly afterward, Weaver lofted a perfect pass which went through Miller's hands at the Navy goal line.

OPHS HOMECOMING

Bastrop Edges Lions 7-6 In Grimly Fought Battle

Coach Bob Ellen's Ouachita Lions came roaring back in the second half here last night, but their hard-hitting, fast-moving effort fell short and they lost their homecoming game to the Bastrop Rams in a 7-6 squeak before near capacity crowd of approximately 4,000.

The Rams scored in the closing minutes of the first quarter and retained their 7-0 lead through the rest of the first half as neither team could get a substantial drive going.

In the second half little halfback Timmy Gordy came out running and running hard as he continously picked up large gains on end sweeps.

Quarterback Dennis Warner did a remarkable job of throwing the ball as he completed 16 of 28 attempts. To start the second half he completed eight consecutive aerials before missing his mark.

Warner ended the Lion's scoring drive with an 11 yard pass play to halfback Butch Oglesbee. The play capped a 45 yard drive that required only nine plays. With a crucial fourth down and six yards needed for a first down from the Ram's 11 yard line, Warner hit Oglesbee with a pass down the middle. Oglesbee took the pass in on his four-yard line and did an excellent job of eluding Bastrop defenders to slip into the endzone for the six-pointer.

The TD play came on the first play of the fourth quarter and put Ouachita only one point behind the Rams at 7-6. On the all important extra point Oglesbee was holding and Warner kicking, but the kick was wide to the left to spell the difference for the Lions.

Bastrop won the toss and elected to receive to open the game. Ricky Hand gathered in the kickoff on his own five yard line and returned it to the 25 yard line where the Rams took over.

The heavy Ram line, which held a thirty pound per man advantage, overpowered the Loins and marched steadily and strongly down the field for a touchdown.

The Rams ground out the 75 yards in 20 plays as they controlled the ball for the first ten and a half minutes of the game.

Fullback Billy Deville; halfbacks James Chunn and Wade Akins alternated at lugging the ball as they picked up four and five yards a carry.

The Lions' defense almost held the Rams on their 35 yard line, but with fourth down and six yards to go for a first down from that point, quarterback Ed Worley hit end David Whitworth on an eleven yard pass play that gave the Rams new life with a first and ten on Ouachita's 24 yard line.

From there the Rams rolled up another first down on the Lions' 13 .

Akins then picked up four yards on two carries and halfback Pete Perot ground out five to the three and a half yard line. A measurement showed that the Rams were about two inches short, which brought up a fourth down with inches to go for the first.

Deville powered up the middle for about a yard, but Ouachita was off sides and the penalty moved the ball to within a little over a yard from the goal line. On the next play Perot burst through right tackle for the touchdown to put the Rams ahead 6-0 with only 1:30 left in the first quarter.

Worley then kicked the extra point to make the score 7-0.

After the Rams kicked off, the Lions got off only three plays before the quarter ended. On the frist play of the second quarter the Lions were forced to punt as they were faced with a fourth down and seven situation on their own 18. End Jack Trinble got off a beauty for 56 yards as it rolled dead on Bastrop's 30 yard stripe.

The teams then exchanged punts and Bastrop intercepted a Ouachita pass, but the half ended wtih the Rams on their own 37 yard line.

The Rmas dominated the first half as they overpowered the Lions and chalked up seven first downs on 70 yards rushing and 26 yards in the air. Ouachita managed only three first downs on 21 yards rushing and 43 yards passing.

Gordy was the Lions work horse in the second half as he picked up 41 yards on seven carries and gathered in four passes for 49 yards.

Ouachita received the kickoff to open the second half and came out looking like a different team as they showed great determination. Gordy did the damage on the ground and Warner displayed his fine passing ability as he connected on eight straight. He found the mark with Oglesbee four times, including the TD, Gordy three times and Billy Gerson on the other.

The Lions' first drive in the second half died on Bastrop's ten yard stripe, but the Rams couldn't move either and punted.

Ouachita took over on the 45 yard line and Warner passed on eight of the nine plays that lead to the score on the first play of the final stanza.

Bastrop could not move the ball gain, and once again had to punt.

Warner again went to the airways, but guard Laurence Nugent was ready for it and intercepted on the Lions' 40 yard marker and fell forward to the 38. The Rams then got a good drive rolling, with Deville doing the damage as he powered for gains of 15, ine, five, and three yards before the Lion defense could stop him.

The Lion defense finally got organized and dug in on the four as they fought Deville off on a fourth down and inches needed play to take over on their own four.

Once again Warner went to the airways, but was being rushed badly by the over-pwering Ram defenders and the Lions were forced to punt as they faced a fourth and 15 on their own 15 yard line.

Ouachita regained possession of the ball on their 14 as Bastrop punted with only two minutes playing tmie remaining, but Warner could not connect and the Lions punted with only 1:16 left and Bastrop ran out the clock.

"I was proud of the way the boys came back in the second half," a perspiring Coach Ellen said in the Ouachita dressing room minutes after the game hda ended.

"We just got out-knocked in the first half," he added. "We could not get our offense going in the first half because we didn't have the ball enough. After all, Bastrop used up just about the entire first quarter with that scoring drive."

In answer to the question, Coach Ellen said he and his staff didn't make any drastic changes at halftime.

"Offensivley, we were trying to hit the long passes in the first half and were not successful," he explained. "In the second half, we concentrated more on the short passes and that was the reason our offense perked up."

"Defensively, I though we did a good job of containing them after that early scoring drive," Coach Ellen pointed out. "And our tackling and pursuit looked much better in the second half."

Coach Ellen also had words of praise for Bastrop. "They have a hard-hitting, well-coached ballclub," he added.

Score by quarters:

Bastrop	7	0	0	0—7
Ouachita	0	0	0	6—6

Linemen At Tech Doing Great Work

RUSTON (Special) — Unheralded guys in the trenches have done a remarkable job on defense for Louisiana Tech in the first two grid games, holding two strong foes to only 62 yards rushing per game.

A few of the Tech linemen are well known in GSC grid circles but many of them are youngsters who will also be in the limelight before their careers are over.

The line is headed by Herschel Vinyard at tackle and Don Tippit, guard, both three-letter seniors who have been all-GSC twice. Andy Malone, playing tackle on the opposite side of the line from Vinyard, has earned two letters.

Ends Jerry Griffin and Charlie Bourgeois were promoted from last year's second unit, as was guard Pat Collins. John Williamson, the soph standout center, was on the third unit last year.

On the Tech alternate unit, Ends Jim Summerlin and Billy Keever were reserves last year. Guard Billy Jack Talton is a senior vet but Richard Enis, a soph without much previous experience is expected to soon rate as one of the loop's best.

Center Billy Ware holds down the same spot he did a year ago and tackles Tucson Dunn and Jim Willis, although reserves last year, saw a lot of service.

Tech's two defensive lines were a question mark before the season started, but after two games neither of the foes were able to rush for a touchdwon. Two touchdowns were scored against Tech on passes and a blocked punt was recovered in the end zone for the other.

Southwestern will test the Bulldog forward wall here this Saturday. Tech takes on Arlington State Oct. 14 at Arlington and the Texans like to grind out the yardage on the ground in the same fashion as Tech powerhouses of the past.

Fourth Of July?

NORMAN, Okla. (AP)—A duel between Iowa State tailback Dave Hoppman and Oklahoma quarterback Bill van Burkleo could provide some offensive fireworks when the teams meet Saturday.

A crowd of 45,000 is expected to watch the Big Eight Conference game at Owen Field.

Iowa State will be gunning for its third straight victory after triumphs over Drake and Oklahoma State. The Cyclones whipped Drake 21-0 and Oklahoma State 14-7.

The Cyclones scored their first decision in 29 years over Oklahoma last year, 10-6, and will be benefiting from a two-week rest when they try to cash in again.

Oklahoma, lacking in its usual depth, absorbed a 19-6 beating from Notre Dame last week but showed enough to be rated a one-touchdown favorite over Iowa State.

Madison Puts Fire In 39-6 Carroll Win

The Carroll High Bulldogs wor their fourth straight football victory last night with a 39-6 decision over Jones High of North Little Rock, Ark.

Early in the first period a Jones attempt to score was broken up by a pass interception by Symartha Johnson who carried the ball 35 yards for the first Bulldog score. Charles Madison added the point.

Later in the first period Madison scampered 40 yards for another Bulldog TD. Thomas Harvey and Robert Coulberson led the interference.

Madison got away to the Jones three where Joe Everett carried over for another TD. Rufus Ford added the point.

On the kickoff, Jones broke loose with an 80-yard runback by Bothwell for its only touchdown.

Then Madison thrilled his fans again with a 75-yard run to paydirt for Carroll.

NO. 5 FOR MONROE TIGERS

Early Neville Punch Bags Jonesboro-Hodge, 34 To 6

JONESBORO, La. (Special) — The Neville High Tigers of Monroe rammed over three quick touchdowns in the first quarter and coasted to a 34-6 victory over the Jonesboro-Hodge Tigers here last night.

It was the second district 2-AA victory for Neville's top-ranked machine in Louisiana double - A ball, and the Monroe club needs only to sack Ruston next Friday night to reclaim the district crown.

It was the fifth straight victory for the unbeaten Neville club. It was the fourth loss in five starts for a J-H club that has played nothing but triple-A and double-A rivals.

Neville mixed passes and running plays with a fumble recovery and a pass interception to total last night's score.

First, Neville returned a Jonesboro-Hodge punt to the hosts' 20, and a few plays later quarterback Jerry Jones rammed over from the one for the opening wedge.

Jones unlimbered his passing arm for the next two Neville touchdowns, also in the first quarter.

Jones hit right end Herschel Walker on a pass and run play that covered 35 yards, and Jimmy Howard added the first of four conversion he made for the night.

Next, Jones shot a bull's eye at Mike Wilson on a 21-yard scoring play, and when Howard added the point, the Tigers were in front 20-0 after one quarter.

Taking advantage of a J-H fumble recovered by Neville, the invading Tigers were on the march again in the second quarter in a 20-yard drive with Howard charging over from three yards out. Howard converted and it was 27-0 at the half.

Robert Marrus carried the ball six straight times in a 37-yard Jonesboro-Hodge fourth quarter surge for the Jackson Parish Tigers' only touchdown. Marrus went five yards on the last trip.

Neville's only second half score resulted when Herschel Walker intercepted a J-H pass on his own 48 and ran in back 52 yards for the TD late in the final period. Howard added the final point.

Neville looked impressive offensively and defensively in their first half show. Jonesboro-Hodge made a good game of it in the second half.

The Monroe powerhouse led in first downs, 11 to 8, and rushed for 227 yards against 129 for Jonesboro-Hodge.

Cupit Named Best Rookie By Magazine

EVANSTON, Illinois (Special)—Twenty-three year old Jacky Cupit has been named "Rookie of the Year" by Golf Digest Magazine in the publication's November issue.

Cupit is the hottest beginner to hit the circuit since Ken Venturi started out with $18,761 in 1957. He is practically a cinch to become the first $20,000 freshman in PGA history. The young Texan has succeeded in one of the world's toughest professional sports by sticking to his own game and his own counsel.

"I don't worry about my swing," he says. "Ben Hogan, for instance, has his swing, and I know I wouldn't do any good if I tried to copy it. Anyhow, after watching Doug Ford and knowing how well he has done, I'm not concerned about form."

Jacky turned professional in October, 1960, after compiling an excellent record as a member of the University of Houston golf team. In his first pro start he tied for seventh and won $1,250 at Phoenix in February of this year.

OVER TULANE

Florida Wins 14-3 In The Last Half

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Florida's Gators resurrected an ancient sleeper play to score one touchdown Friday night and rallied in the second half to defeat wilting Tulane 14-3 before 30,000 fans.

Tulane led 3-0 when the second half opened, but Gator quarterback Bobby Dodd Jr., son of the Georgia Tech football coach, unleashed an attack that caught the Greenies napping after the intermission.

Fullback Jim O'Donnell at first appeared to be trotting off the field when Dedd called signals and passed to the 188-pound third unit fullback on the 20 and O'Donnell had clear sailing for the touchdown.

Tulane took the 3-0 lead on end Charles Connell's 30-yard field goal in the first quarter. But afterward the Greenies were unable to generate much of an offense.

The Gators went ahead in the third quarter when Dodd, an understudy to starter Larry Libertore, pushed to a touchdown on a 59-yard march. The score came when Dodd ducked through the line after connecting with end Russ Brown on a 30-yard pass to the Tulane two.

Halfback Ron Stoner and Bob Hoover gathered in three other Dodd swing passes during the first Florida scoring drive.

Hoover's fumble at the Florida 15, recovered by tackle Jim Evans, paved the way for Connell's field goal.

Earlier, Tulane center John Chaussin intercepted a Libertore pass on the Florida 41 but three plays failed to give the Greenies further yardage.

The victory was Florida's second as against one tie. Tulane took its third straight setback without a triumph.

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Halfback Jim Stewart raced 83 yards to a second - period touchdown and fired-up Navy never surrendered its lead as the Middies whipped Miami's two-touchdown favorites, Friday night, 17-6.

Stewart caught a swing pass from Ron Klemick at the line of scrimmage and, behind beautiful downfield blocking, sped to the score.

Thereafter, ferce Navy defenders held Miami's running and passing attack under control except for a third period drive that netted six points.

The Middies charged so hard that they not only knocked Miami's runners and passers back on their heels but also put referee John Lynch out of the game with injuries after he got in the way of a Navy back.

Operating without its star sophomore quarterback George Mira, Miami managed to drive 80 yards to a third period touchdown scored by Jim Vollenweider on a four-yard smash, but Charles Livingston missed the conversion and Navy gave the Hurricanes no more opportunities.

Greg Mather booted a 36-yard field goal later in the third quarter, and in the final period, John Sai drove four yards for another Navy touchdown after Bob Sutton had intercepted a pass from Bobby Weaver at the Miami 43.

Until Navy took charge, Miami's attack was sharp in the opening period and the Hurricanes just missed two touchdowns. Weaver hit Bill Miller with one 35-yard, all-the-way pass, but he had just stepped out of bounds when he threw.

Shortly afterward, Weaver lofted a perfect pass which went through Miller's hands at the Navy goal line.

Trojans Rout Bears

TALLULAH, La. (Special) — Six Trojans shared in the scoring as the Tallulah High Trojans smeared the Bears of Newellton, 45-7 here last night.

Chapman Lee burst over tackle and sprinted 72 yards for the Trojans' opening TD, and James Wilson followed with a 17-yard end run to paydirt. Lee kicked the point behind Wilson's score for a 13-0 quarter lead.

Freshman Mike Luckett dashed through tackle from the 30 for a second quarter TD, and again Lee converted to make it 20-0 at the half.

Luckett, only player to bag two TDs for the night, got his second with a 15-yard plunge over guard in the third quarter.

A bad Newellton pass from center gave Tallulah the ball on the Bear 10. Ed Yerger rammed center, fumbled, and second string tackle Mike Foster pounced on the loose ball for the TD. Lee again converted.

With Tallulah in possession and fourth and 32 from the Trojan 48, the Trojans elected to gamble instead of punt. James Reeves fired a pass to Edward Smith and he went the distance.

Then another bad pass from center by Newellton set up the final touchdown. Tallulah took possession on the bobble on the Bruin two from where freshman Don Martin rammed over to end the scoring.

Leonard Neumann, ace of the Tallulah backfield, was injured and saw service only for punting and a couple of running plays. Billy Ross Graves and Donald Hodge stood out in the Tallulah line, while Johnny Roberts, and Roy Sikes played good ball in the Newellton defense.

LaSalle Gains Tie

LaSalle scored 14 points in the last quarter last night to gain a tie with Menard.

Menard's scores came in the second and third quarters and gave them a comfortable 14 point lead until the hectic fourth when LaSalle came storming back.

Larry Moreau did most of the damage for Menard scoring all 14 of their points.

Moreau's first score came in the second on a four yard plunge, and he kicked the point after.

In the third he scored again on a 10 yard jaunt, after which he kicked the extra points.

In the last quarter Arnold got LaSalle's first score from one yard out. Jimmy Moody then kicked the extra point.

Johnny Higgins plunged over from the two for the last TD, AND THEN Moody ran the all important point after to give LaSalle a hard earned tie.

Moments later Coushatta tied the score when Jack Price intercepted a pass and ran 20 yards to paydirt to make the score read 6-6 at the half.

After a scoreless third quarter, Coushatta took charge by taking advantage of the too-highly centered ball that started Coushatta on the way to the tie-breaker, a one-yard plunge by Stanley Dickson over the middle. The blocked punt minutes later set the stage for the final Coushatta thrust, a 20-yard touchdown burst by Henry Horton over the left side. Donald Horton ran for Coushatta points in the fourth period.

Winnsboro came roaring back in the same quarter when David Elkins ran 17 yards to give the Wildcats their first score. The try for the extra point was no good.

TWO of the young stars on this year's surprising Northeast State eleven are big Bill Burns (left), a freshman tackle from Shreveport and halfback Morris Douglas (right), a sophomore from Jonesboro. Burns played his high school ball at Byrd High and, along with Douglas, is one of the defensive standouts that will tackle undefeated Northwestern in Natchitoches tonight.

Tribe Plays First Conference Tilt

The two highest-scoring elevens in the Gulf States Conference — Northeast and Northwestern — clash Saturday night in Natchitoches' Demon Stadium in the first league clash for each.

The kickoff is scheduled for 8 o'clock.

Northeast has scored more points than any other team in the GAC this season, 98, but Northwestern is only one point behind at 97. Northwestern is unbeaten after three games while Northeast has won two and lost one.

FROM INDIAN TERRITTORY is Northwestern State College's Bob Martin, 203 - pound guard from Mangham. Martin is a member of the "Blue" defensive unit and is expected to see action against Northeast State tonight. He's a three-year letterman, returning for his final year of eligibility this season.

Jack Rowan's Northeast Indians have defeated Mexico Polytechnic, 28-0, and East Texas State, 36-0, while losing to Lamar Tech, 33-34. Jack Clayton's Northwestern Demons have beaten Stephsn F. Austin, 35-19, Mexico Polytechnic, 55-8, and Louisiana College, 7-0.

In addition to leading the conference in scoring, the two teams are also highly ranked in NAIA team statistics. Northeast is the NAIA's 13th ranked team in total offense and 17th in team rushing defense. Northwestern is 20th in total offense and 26th in rushing offense.

Northwestern leads in the friendly rivalry between the two schools, 7-2, but lost last year, 7-6. The other Northeast win came in the first game of the series in 1952. Both Northeast's president and head coach were formerly at Northwestern. President George T. Walker was dean at the Natchitoches collebe before being named head of Northeast in 1958 while Rowan was a Demon assistant coach before taking over his Northeast post, also in 1958.

Both the Indians and the Demons have been surprises this season after being picked for the GSC's second division in preseason polls. Northwestern is rated a slight favorite for the game.

Besides giving the winner a share of first place in the GSC, Saturday's game may also break a tie for the conference individual scoring lead. Northeast freshman quarterback Ronnie Myrick and Demon halfback Kenny Thompson share the lead with 24 points apiece, all scored on touchdowns.

Myrick is the pacesetter of the Northeast attack with 291 yards, 112 on the ground and 179 through the air. With Myrick in the Tribe's Gold team backfield will be Ken Newton and Al Ott at the halves and Willie Ragan, the club's leading rusher, at full. In the backfield on Rowan's Maroon unit, which will probably play as much as the Gold eleven and may start, will be Don Wattigny at quarterback, Don Blackwelder and Gordon Salsman at halves and Devone Payne at full. Wattigny is second in total offense with 162 yards.

Northwestern boasts a fast backfield led by Thompson, a stubby 171-pounder who has averaged six yards a rush this season. Thompson will be at once halfback post and probably Dennie Kelly at the other. J. M. Maricelli will be the Demon fullback. Northwestern has three good quarterbacks, Herbie Smith, Larry Crow and Don Beasley. Crow is the club's leading passer with six connections on eight throws for 107 yards.

New York Mets Sign A 30-Year Lease For Park

NEW YORK (AP) — The New York Mets, scheduled to begin play in baseball's National League next season, signed a 30-year lease Friday for use of the proposed $19-million sports stadium in Flushing Meadow.

The new Stadium, which is expected to seat 55,000, has a 1963 target date. The Mets, joining the Houston Colts as new entries in an expanded 10-team National League, will play in the Polo Grounds during their first season.

M. Donald Grant, board chairman of the Mets, signed for the club while Parks Commissioner Newbold Morris represented the city with Mayor Robert Wagner presiding at the ceremony. Mets' Manager Casey Stengel also was present.

At the same time, Harry Wismer, president of the New York Titans of the American Football League, signed a memorandum of agreement to occupy the new stadium for 15 years at a rate of $5,000 a game or 10 per cent of the gross receipts, whichever is greater.

The baseball lease calls for a minimum rent of $450,000 for the first year, with an annual reduction of $30,000 a year until the rent is leveled at $300,000 annually.

CAUSE UPSETS

'Little Things' Can Hurt Big Teams

By JACK CLARY
Associated Press Sports Writer

The little things an injured halfback, an underrated opponent, a sudden letdown — all lurk in the shadows around college football's elite Saturday and may cause a few shockers before the day is ended.

The injured halfback belongs to Iowa's Hawkeyes, ranked first in the current Associated Press poll. The player is Larry Ferguson, who won't face Southern California in a game that will be televised nationally (ABC-TV, 4 p.m. EST).

Coach Jerry Burns plans to use fullback Joe Williams as a part-time performer in the halfback spot, as well as his regular post, and also will call on sophomore Pal Krause.

Second-ranked Mississippi, 2-0, plays tough, little Florida State, a team that has allowed only a touchdown and a field goal in two games while winning one and tying Florida. Ole Miss, under quarterback Doug Elmore, has only given two field goals both against Kentucky, and is going for its 18th straight non-losing game.

Georgia Tech (No. 3), suddenly back in the upper strata it once inhabited regularly, will send its high-powered offense, guided by Stan Gann, against Louisiana State (1-1) in a Southeastern Conference night game. Tech also is defensively tough, having allowed only one touchdown, and last week beat Rice, 24-0. Rice knocked off LSU the week before 16-3.

Alabama (No. 4) and Vanderbilt fight it out for the early SEC lead in another conference night game, with 'Bama a slight favorite. Both are 2-0 overall.

The rest of the top 10 except idle Baylor (No. 10), play intersectional games. Stanford, another surprise with a 2-0 mark, and UCLA (1-1) of the Big Five invade the Big Ten strongholds of sixth-ranked Michigan State and eighth-ranked Ohio State, respectively. The Buckeyes will try to snap back from a surprising 7-7 tie with Texas Christian last week.

Offense-minded Texas (No. 5) plays Washington State, which boasts end Hugh Campbell, the nation's leading pass catcher last year, but has lost both its starts this season. Syracuse, ranked seventh and now the highest-rated team in the East, plays Maryland in its most important test so far.

Army, 2-0, goes against ninth-ranked Michigan's powerful Wolverines at Ann Arbor, Mich., in a battle of razzle-dazzle T-formation attacks.

There is other heavy conference activity, too, plus top games matching Notre Dame and Purdue, California-Missouri, Oregon-Minnesota and Pittsburgh at Washington.

The Ivy League has a full slate of four games, topped by Princeton's visit to Columbia. In the Southern Conference Virginia Tech will try to extend West Virginia's overall non-winning string to 19 in a row.

Duke, the Atlantic Coast Conference leader with a 2-0 record, plays Wake Forest as part of a three-game league program. Northwestern at Illinois and Wisconsin-Indiana are the only Big Ten games.

Colorado takes on winless Kansas in the Big Eight and Iowa State meets Oklahoma in another top conference tilt. Texas Christian, successful outside the Southwest Conference, plays a night game against member Arkansas at Little Rock while Utah State and Wyoming battle for the lead in the Skyline Conference.

Other Saturday games:

EAST: Holy Cross at Buffalo. Bucknell at Colgate. Cornell at Harvard. Villanova at Massachusetts. Dartmouth at Penn. Connecticut at Rutgers. Brown at Yale.

SOUTH: Kentucky at Auburn. Richmond at The Citadel. Virginia Military at George Washington. South Carolina at Georgia. Clemson at North Carolina. Mississippi State at Tennessee.

MIDWEST: Nebraska at Kansas State. Xavier at Cincinnati. Tulsa at Oklahoma State.

SOUTHWEST: Hardin-Simmons at Arizona, night. New Mexico State at North Texas State, night. Boston College at Houston, night. Texas A&M at Texas Tech, night. Wichita at West Texas State, night.

FAR WEST: Utah at Arizona State, night. Montana at Brigham Young, night. Texas Western at New Mexico, night. Idaho at Oregon State.

NAIA Rates Indians High In Statistics

Latest statistics released by the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics list Northeast State as one of the top teams in the country in team offense, rushing offense and rushing defense.

Coach Jack Rowan's Northeast eleven is ranked 13th in total offense among NAIA colleges with 1076 yards, an average of 358.6 yards per game. The Indians are 11th in rushing offense with 760 yards, 253.3 per game. Northeast has limited its three opponents to an average of only 90.6 yards per game on the ground to rank 17th in team rushing defense.

The only Northeast individual ranked in the NAIA statistics in quarterback Ronnie Myrick, tied for 19th in scoring with 24 points.

Northeast, 2-1 for the season, this week was also ranked 17th among the nation's small colleges in the Dick Dunkel ratings. The Indians also received votes in the Associated Press mall college grid rankings.

Mangham scored two touchdowns in the second period and played even with Columbia the rest of the way to go into the fourth period ahead 26-20.

Columbia tallied first with left end Larry Curry getting the TD from four yards out in the first period. Duff ran the extra point.

Mangham came back, still in the opening quarter, scoring on a 25-yard pass play from Dee Faircloth to Doug Wilkinson. Faircloth ran the PAT and it was 7-7.

Mangham went ahead in the second with two touchdowns runs by Noble Hatch. The first was a 30-yard run and Faircloth again ran the PAT.

The second came on a 21-yard run by Hatch, but the try after was not good.

Columbia stormed back and narrowed the margin to 20-14 at the half on a 49-yard scamper by Larry Curry. Curry also ran the point after.

Columbia tied the score in third quarter when Curry carried over from the seven the PAT attempt failed.

Mangham collected an easy one then, when Columbia fumbled and the ball rolled into the end zone where end Robert Hartwell recovered for Mangham. That made it 26-20 and set the stage for the last minute heroics in the fourth period.

Ironically, Columbia lost to Newellton 27-26 last Friday night.

It was the first district win for Columbia.

Bernice 7, Benton 6

BERNICE, La. (Special) — Bernice gave Benton the first punch in their dsitrict 1-B football game here last night and then pulled out a 7-6 victory with a third quarter touchdown and conversion.

Albert Laurence of Benton's winless ball club made it look bad for Bernice in the second quarter when he got loose on a 58-yard touchdown sprint. The Arcadia defense was able to contain Danny Gould in his attempted run for the extra point, and it ultimately meant victory.

Halfback Larry Fitzgerald brought the partisan Bernice fans to their feet in the third quarter when he broke free on a 46-yard gallop that tied the score.

Fullback Roger Reeves won it when he ripped the Benton line for the extra ponit.

Bernice led in first downs, 7-4.

Harold Jones played an outstanding defensive game for Bernice.

Tigers Top Ruston

RUSTON (Special) — Winnfield High won its first game from Ruston in modern history 21-6 here last night.

Outplayed offensively in the first half, the Tigers scored in the final minute of the second quarter to go ahead 7-6, then added two more TDs in the final period.

A 19-yeard pass play from tailback Melvin Shows of Ruston to end Larry Rabb put the Bearcats ahead 6-0 in the opening period, the PAT attempt failed.

But Winnfield quarterback Mike Tinnerello hit halfback Billy Barton on a seven-yard scoring pass with a minute left before the half to tie the score and center Carroll Long kicked the extra point, putting the Tigers out front 7-6.

Both clubs battled without scoring through the third quarter, then Tiger halfback James Lloyd Collins capped a 60-yard drive with a one-yard plunge for the first of Winnfield's TDs in the final stannza. Long tied the second of three PATs for the night.

The Tigers gained 132 yards to 107 for Ruston and the Bearcats got 11 first downs to eight for Winnfield.

Trojans Rout Bears

TALLULAH, La. (Special) — Six Trojans shared in the scoring as the Tallulah High Trojans smeared the Bears of Newellton, 45-7 here last night.

Chapman Lee burst over tackle and sprinted 72 yards for the Trojans' opening TD, and James Wilson followed with a 17-yard end run to paydirt. Lee kicked the point behind Wilson's score for a 13-0 quarter lead.

Freshman Mike Luckett dashed through tackle from the 30 for a second quarter TD, and again Lee converted to make it 20-0 at the half.

Luckett, only player to bag two TDs for the night, got his second with a 15-yard plunge over guard in the third quarter.

A bad Newellton pass from center gave Tallulah the ball on the Bear 10. Ed Yerger rammed center, fumbled, and second string tackle Mike Foster pounced on the loose ball for the TD. Lee again converted.

With Tallulah in possession and fourth and 32 from the Trojan 48, the Trojans elected to gamble instead of punt. James Reeves fired a pass to Edward Smith and he went the distance.

Then another bad pass from center by Newellton set up the final touchdown. Tallulah took possession on the bobble on the Bruin two from where freshman Don Martin rammed over to end the scoring.

Leonard Neumann, ace of the Tallulah backfield, was injured and saw service only for punting and a couple of running plays. Billy Ross Graves and Donald Hodge stood out in the Tallulah line, while Johnny Roberts, and Roy Sikes played good ball in the Newellton defense.

LaSalle Gains Tie

LaSalle scored 14 points in the last quarter last night to gain a tie with Menard.

Menard's scores came in the second and third quarters and gave them a comfortable 14 point lead until the hectic fourth when LaSalle came storming back.

Larry Moreau did most of the damage for Menard scoring all 14 of their points.

Moreau's first score came in the second on a four yard plunge, and he kicked the point after.

In the third he scored again on a 10 yard jaunt, after which he kicked the extra points.

In the last quarter Arnold got LaSalle's first score from one yard out. Jimmy Moody then kicked the extra point.

Johnny Higgins plunged over from the two for the last TD, AND THEN Moody ran the all important point after to give LaSalle a hard earned tie.

Natchitoches Winner

JENA, La. (Special) — Eran Buckley, a tackle converted to fullback this week due to injuries to regulars, led Natchitoches to a 26-13 district 3-AA win over Jena's Giants last night.

Buckley scored twice, once in the first quarter and again in the third. Each touchdown came on one-yard runs.

Red Devil quarterback Joe Beasley scored twice in the fourth period on a one-yard run and a 13-yard jaunt, and he ran one extra point to share the spotlight.

Left halfback Charles Pridgen ran the other extra point for Natchitoches.

Jena scored twice in the fourth period to lead briefly 13-12 on a 61-yard run by right halfback Doyle Allieen and a 55-yard runback of a pass interception by left end Raymond Bell.

Fullback Don Smith ran one extra for Jena.

This was the first district contes tfor both teams.

Coushatta Wins

ARCADIA, La. (Special) — A wildly centered ball and a blocked punt set up two last quarter touchdowns that enabled Coushatta to beat the Arcadia Hornets, 20-6, here last night in a non-league game.

The Hornets got the jump on the visitors when end Bo Powell blocked a Coushatta punt, scooped it up and ran 40 yards for the Arcadia touchdown in the second quarter.

Moments later Coushatta tied the score when Jack Price intercepted a pass and ran 20 yards to paydirt to make the score read 6-6 at the half.

After a scoreless third quarter, Coushatta took charge by taking advantage of the too-highly centered ball that started Coushatta on the way to the tie-breaker, a one-yard plunge by Stanley Dickson over the middle. The blocked punt minutes later set the stage for the final Coushatta thrust, a 20-yard touchdown burst by Henry Horton over the left side. Donald Horton ran for Coushatta points in the fourth period.

Sicily Island Wins

WATERPROOF (Special)— Sicily Island raced by Waterproof last night 34-0 in a 3B district tilt.

Sicily Island got off to a quick start in the first quarter scoring 21 points, then finished up for the night scoring 12 in the third.

Albert Krause led the scoring parade with three tallies.

Sicily Island's first TD came on a one yard buck by Krause, and it was followed by Henry Parker's successful kick for the extra point.

Johnny Young scored next on a 34 yard scamper, and again Parker kicked good.

Last tally in the first half came when Jerry Hinton scored from one yard out. The try for extra point was again good by Parker.

Early in the third Krause broke loose again and went 35 yards for his second score of the night. Try for extra point was blocked.

Sicily Island's final score came on a beautiful 75 yard scamper by Krause late in the third quarter. The extra point was blocked and that was all the scoring for the night.

Lake Providence Wins

WINNSBORO (Special) — The Lake Providence Panthers romped for touchdowns in the first and third quarters, then held off the surging Winnsboroo Wildcats for a 14-13 win.

It was Lake Providence's first win of the season, and carried Winnsboro below the .500 level for a 2-3 mark.

Johnny Overby got Lake Providence into the scoring column with a 30-yard jaunt in the first quarter, and Phil Stafford ran the extra point.

There was no more scoring until the third quarter when Stafford punched over from the four for Lake Providence's second TD. John Markey ran the extra point which was to spell the difference in the end.

Winnsboro came roaring back in the same quarter when David Elkins ran 17 yards to give the Wildcats their first score. The try for the extra point was no good.

In the final quarter Winnsboro scored again with Elkins going the last two yards for the score. Randy Shirley ran the extra point, but it wasn't enough and Lake Providence had its 14-13 win.

Vidalia, 7-0

VIDALIA (Special) — Wisner held strong Vidalia to a trim 7-0 win here last night in a 3-B district game.

Vidalia end Maurice Greer scored the winning and only TD on a two-yard pass play from quarterback Jimmy Stringer with 6:45 left in the fourth quarter. Halfback George Franklin kicked the extra point.

The score climaxed a 67-yard sustained drive for Vidalia. Wisner did not threaten.

The powerful Vikings of Vidalia picked up 14 first downs to seven for Wisner and gained a total of 329 yards against 89 for the losers.

Oak Grove Ties

OA KGROVE (Special) — Oak Grove and Rayville battled to a 0-0 tie in a defensive-minded district struggle here last night.

Oak Grove gained 142 yards and made six first downs; Rayville garnered 154 yards and eight first downs.

Defensive center and offensive fullback Zane Tubbs stoodout for Oak Grove and tackle Bill Miller performed well for Rayville.

Holly Ridge, 56-0

HOLLY RIDGE (Special)—The Holly Ridge Eagles, led by Claude Patrick, ran roughshod over the Sterlington Panthers last night, 56-0.

Patrick and Company completely dominated the game and they scored 14 points in every quarter to rack up the lopsided game.

All Mr. Patrick did was run for four touchdowns and five extra points for a total of 29 points for the night.

Bennie Stansell scored both of Holly Ridge's first quarter scores on runs of 40 yards and nine yards. Patrick ran for both extra points.

In the second quarter Patrick scored on a six yard plunge and then ran the extra point. Also in the second quarter Ronald Thompson broke through for a fine 60 yard touchdown and Patrick ran the extra point.

In the third it was more of Patrick as he scored two more on runs of nine and 16 yards. Tommy Winstead ran the first extra point, and Wayne McManus the second.

Patrick capped off his brilliant night in the fourth quarter with his last TD on a 14-yard scamper, and then for good measure ran the extra point. Jerry Futch scored the Eagle's last touchdown on a nine yard run. McManus then ran the point after.

Boys who were especially outstanding for Holly Ridge were Fred Morris, J. L. Morgan, Elvin Russell, Edward Bryant, Jerry Donald, and Melvin Bearden.

Pineville Edges

PINEVILLE (Special) — Quarterback David Bates threw two touchdown passes, one 13-yards to John Bryant in the first quarter, and the other 35-yards to Charles Frantom with two minutes left in the game to give the Rebels a 14-13 squeak over Ferriday here last night.

J. C. Rachell kicked the PAT AFTER THE FIRST M AND FUL back Wayne Martin ran over the clincher in the fourth. the half on a 70-yard drive with Ronnie Jeter going over from the two. Jeter plunged over for the PAT.

Dennis Jones got the other Bulldog TD in the third quarter, running 65-yards.

Quarterback Red Walker attempted to pass for the extra point that would have meant a tie game, but it was batted down.

Lafayette Wins

LAKE CHARLES, La. (AP) — Lafayette struck for a quick second period touchdown and opened a fourth period drive for another to defeat Lake Charles 13-0 in a triple-A football game Friday night.

A 35-yard punt return by Toby Warren followed by a 36-yard pass from Donald Hebert to Russell Caffery set up the first score. Warren blasted from the 3-yard stripe for the touchdown. Bill Moss kicked extra point.

Lafayette moved 59 yards in the fourth period, with Warren again scoring, this time from the 1 yard line.

Lake Charles threatened only once, driving to the Lafayette 22 on the opening kickoff.

Gaters Roll

LAKE CHARLES, La. (AP) — LaGrange, preseason favorite in triple-A football, looked like it for the first time this season Friday night as it rolled to a 27-7 triumph over Bolton.

Fullback Russell Fry scored the first two LaGrange touchdowns on 1-yard bucks and passed for the third touchdown, hitting Terry Franks in the end zone with an 11-yard toss. The final Gator marker came on a 75-yard pass play from Sammy Nader to John Thomas.

Bolton's tally came late in the fourth period on a 39-yard pass play from John McIntosh from Johnny Knox. Ed McNeill booted the extra point.

David Rogers kicked two extra points for LaGrange and passed to Charles Tanik for the third conversion.

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Redemptorist rolled to its fifth straight victory with a 31-0 pasting over Fortier in a triple-A football game Friday night.

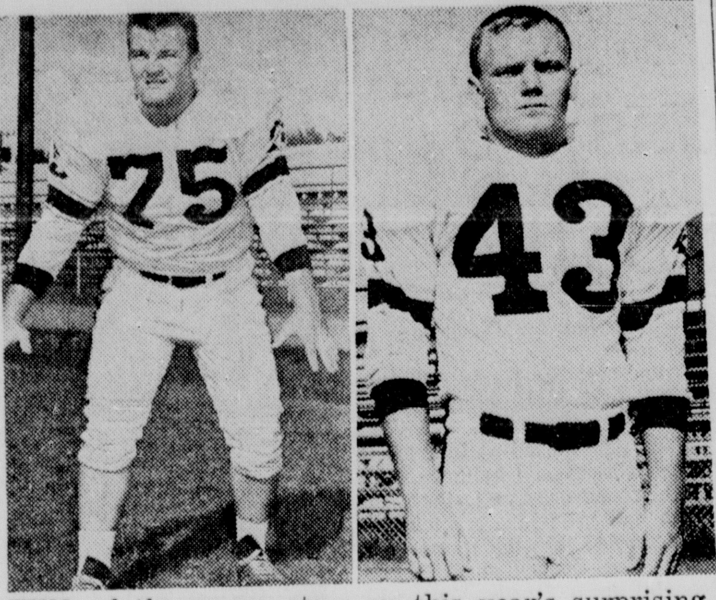
Pat Scully, the Rams' leading groundgainer with 54 yards in seven carries, scord on a 19-yard sprint, and substitute back Bobby Rabito added the final touchdown on a 3-yard run.



TWO of the young stars on this year's surprising Northeast State eleven are big Bill Burns (left), a freshman tackle from Shreveport and halfback Morris Douglas (right), a sophomore from Jonesboro. Burns played his high school ball at Byrd High and, along with Douglas, is one of the defensive standouts that will tackle undefeated Northwestern in Natchitoches tonight.

Tribe Plays First Conference Tilt

The two highest-scoring elevens in the Gulf States Conference — Northeast and Northwestern — clash Saturday night in Natchitoches' Demon Stadium in the first league clash for each.

The kickoff is scheduled for 8 o'clock.

Northeast has scored more points than any other team in the GAC this season, 98, but Northwestern is only one point behind at 97. Northwestern is unbeaten after three games while Northeast has won two and lost one.

FROM INDIAN TERRITTORY is Northwestern State College's Bob Martin, 203 - pound guard from Mangham. Martin is a member of the "Blue" defensive unit and is expected to see action against Northeast State tonight. He's a three-year letterman, returning for his final year of eligibility this season.

Jack Rowan's Northeast Indians have defeated Mexico Polytechnic, 28-0, and East Texas State, 36-0, while losing to Lamar Tech, 38-34. Jack Clayton's Northwestern Demons have beaten Stephsn F. Austin, 35-19, Mexico Polytechnic, 55-8, and Louisiana College, 7-6.

In addition to leading the conference in scoring, the two teams are also highly ranked in NAIA team statistics. Northeast is the NAIA's 13th ranked team in total offense and 17th in team rushing defense. Northwestern is 20th in total offense and 26th in rushing offense.

Northwestern leads in the friendly rivalry between the two schools, 7-2, but lost last year, 7-6. The other Northeast win came in the first game of the series in 1952. Both Northeast's president and head coach were formerly at Northwestern. President George T. Walker was dean at the Natchitoches collebe before being named head of Northeast in 1958 while Rowan was a Demon assistant coach before taking over his Northeast post, also in 1958.

Both the Indians and the Demons have been surprises this season after being picked for the GSC's second division in preseason polls. Northwestern is rated a slight favorite for the game.

Besides giving the winner a share of first place in the GSC, Saturday's game may also break a tie for the conference individual scoring lead. Northeast freshman quarterback Ronnie Myrick and Demon halfback Kenny Thompson share the lead with 24 points apiece, all scored on touchdowns.

Myrick is the pacesetter of the Northeast attack with 291 yards, 112 on the ground and 179 through the air. With Myrick in the Tribe's Gold team backfield will be Ken Newton and Al Ott at the halves and Willie Ragan, the club's leading rusher, at full. In the backfield on Rowan's Maroon unit, which will probably play as much as the Gold eleven and may start, will be Don Wattigny at quarterback, Don Blackwelder and Gordon Salsman at halves and Devone Payne at full. Wattigny is second in total offense with 162 yards.

Northwestern boasts a fast backfield led by Thompson, a stubby 171-pounder who has averaged six yards a rush this season. Thompson will be at once halfback post and probably Dennie Kelly at the other. J. M. Maricelli will be the Demon fullback. Northwestern has three good quarterbacks, Herbie Smith, Larry Crow and Don Beasley. Crow is the club's leading passer with six connections on eight throws for 107 yards.

New York Mets Sign A 30-Year Lease For Park

NEW YORK (AP) — The New York Mets, scheduled to begin play in baseball's National League next season, signed a 30-year lease Friday for use of the proposed $19-million sports stadium in Flushing Meadow.

The new Stadium, which is expected to seat 55,000, has a 1963 target date. The Mets, joining the Houston Colts as new entries in an expanded 10-team National League, will play in the Polo Grounds during their first season.

M. Donald Grant, board chairman of the Mets, signed for the club while Parks Commissioner Newbold Morris represented the city with Mayor Robert Wagner presiding at the ceremony. Mets' Manager Casey Stengel also was present.

At the same time, Harry Wismer, president of the New York Titans of the American Football League, signed a memorandum of agreement to occupy the new stadium for 15 years at a rate of $5,000 a game or 10 per cent of the gross receipts, whichever is greater.

The baseball lease calls for a minimum rent of $450,000 for the first year, with an annual reduction of $20,000 a year until the rent is leveled at $300,000 annually.

CAUSE UPSETS

'Little Things' Can Hurt Big Teams

By JACK CLARY
Associated Press Sports Writer

The little things an injured halfback, an underrated opponent, a sudden letdown — all lurk in the shadows around college football's elite Saturday and may cause a few shockers before the day is ended.

The injured halfback belongs to Iowa's Hawkeyes, ranked first in the current Associated Press poll. The player is Larry Ferguson, who won't face Southern California in a game that will be televised nationally (ABC-TV, 4 p.m. EST).

Coach Jerry Burns plans to use fullback Joe Williams as a part-time performer in the halfback spot, as well as his regular post, and also will call on sophomore Pal Krause.

Second-ranked Mississippi, 2-0, plays tough, little Florida State, a team that has allowed only a touchdown and a field goal in two games while winning one and tying Florida. Ole Miss, under quarterback Doug Elmore, has only given two field goals both against Kentucky, and is going for its 18th straight non-losing game.

Georgia Tech (No. 3), suddenly back in the upper strata it once inhabited regularly, will send its high-powered offense, guided by Stan Gann, against Louisiana State (1-1) in a Southeastern Conference night game. Tech also is defensively tough, having allowed only one touchdown, and last week beat Rice, 24-0. Rice knocked off LSU the week before 16-3.

Alabama (No. 4) and Vanderbilt fight it out for the early SEC lead in another conference night game, with 'Bama a slight favorite. Both are 2-0 overall.

The rest of the top 10 except idle Baylor (No. 10), play intersectional games. Stanford, another surprise with a 2-0 mark, and UCLA (1-1) of the Big Five invade the Big Ten strongholds of sixth-ranked Michigan State and eighth-ranked Ohio State, respectively. The Buckeyes will try to snap back from a surprising 7-7 tie with Texas Christian last week.

Offense-minded Texas (No. 5) plays Washington State, which boasts end Hugh Campbell, the nation's leading pass catcher last year, but has lost both its starts this season. Syracuse, ranked seventh and now the highest-rated team in the East, plays Maryland in its most important test so far.

Army, 2-0, goes against ninth-ranked Michigan's powerful Wolverines at Ann Arbor, Mich., in a battle of razzle-dazzle T-formation attacks.

There is other heavy conference activity, too, plus top games matching Notre Dame and Purdue, California-Missouri, Oregon-Minnesota and Pittsburgh at Washington.

The Ivy League has a full slate of four games, topped by Princeton's visit to Columbia. In the Southern Conference Virginia Tech will try to extend West Virginia's overall non-winning string to 19 in a row.

Duke, the Atlantic Coast Conference leader with a 2-0 record, plays Wake Forest as part of a three-game league program. Northwestern at Illinois and Wisconsin-Indiana are the only Big Ten games.

Colorado takes on winless Kansas in the Big Eight and Iowa State meets Oklahoma in another top conference tilt. Texas Christian, successful outside the Southwest Conference, plays a night game against member Arkansas at Little Rock while Utah State and Wyoming battle for the lead in the Skyline Conference.

Other Saturday games:

EAST: Holy Cross at Buffalo. Bucknell at Colgate. Cornell at Harvard. Villanova at Massachusetts. Dartmouth at Penn. Connecticut at Rutgers. Brown at Yale.

SOUTH: Kentucky at Auburn. Richmond at The Citadel. Virginia Military at George Washington. South Carolina at Georgia Clemson at North Carolina. Mississippi State at Tennessee.

MIDWEST: Nebraska at Kansas State. Xavier at Cincinnati. Tulsa at Oklahoma State.

SOUTHWEST: Hardin-Simmons at Arizona, night. New Mexico State at North Texas State, night. Boston College at Houston, night. Texas A&M at Texas Tech, night. Wichita at West Texas State, night.

FAR WEST: Utah at Arizona State, night. Montana at Brigham Young, night. Texas Western at New Mexico, night. Idaho at Oregon State.

NAIA Rates Indians High In Statistics

Latest statistics released by the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics list Northeast State as one of the top teams in the country in team offense, rushing offense and rushing defense.

Coach Jack Rowan's Northeast eleven is ranked 13th in total offense among NAIA colleges with 1076 yards, an average of 358.6 yards per game. The Indians are 11th in rushing offense with 760 yards, 253.3 per game. Northeast has limited its three opponents to an average of only 90.6 yards per game on the ground to rank 17th in team rushing defense.

The only Northeast individual ranked in the NAIA statistics in quarterback Ronnie Myrick, tied for 19th in scoring with 24 points.

Northeast, 2-1 for the season, this week was also ranked 17th among the nation's small colleges in the Dick Dunkel ratings. The Indians also received votes in the Associated Press mall college grid rankings.

Purkey And Stafford To Start Third Game

NEW YORK YANKEE Manager Ralph Houk, left, and pitcher Bill Stafford take a look at Crosley Field in Cincinnati as the Yankees worked out Friday in preparation for Saturday's third game of the World Series. Stafford is scheduled to be Houk's starting pitcher against the Reds today. Each team has one win in the best-of-seven series. (AP Wirephoto)

CINCINNATI (AP) — Cincinnati's Bob Purkey, a 32-year-old right hander with a wide variety of pitches, will oppose young Bill Stafford of the New York Yankees in Saturday's third World Series game as the clubs switch to chummy Crosley Field all even with one victory each.

The Yanks still were 3-1 Series favorites over the scrappy Reds.

The Reds drew a royal welcome from some 1,800 fans Thursday night when they flew home after beating the Yanks in the second game 6-2. The Yanks rode a train and did not arrive until mid-morning.

Bright, warm sunshine greeted the two teams in their workouts in the Cincinnati park. The temperature eased into the 80s and there was promise of more of the same Saturday and Sunday. The clubs will play the next three games at Crosley Field. If more are necessary, they will return to New York after another off day for travel Tuesday.

Fred Hutchinson, manager of the Reds, was so pleased with his club's performance Thursday that he said he would use the same lineup in the third game. That meant Elio Chacon, the speedy Venezuelan who dashed home with the tie-breaking run on a passed ball, would be at second base although Don Blasingame's injured hand was much improved.

Hutchinson also stuck with John Edwards, his rookie catcher who came through with two key blows in Thursday's victory. Darrell Johnson, the veteran who is supposed to be the No. 1 receiver on the club, still was bothered by a pulled muscle in his side.

Because of the difference in the parks, Hutchinson planned to shift Frank Robinson from letf to right field and to move Wally Post from right to left. That was a normal procedure for the club in home games.

The tidy Cincinnati park, freshly painted and groomed for its first Series games since 1940, presented a sharp contrast to spacious Yankee Stadium. Crosley Field can take care of only a few more than 30,000, compared to the stadium with its 70,000 capacity. While Yankee Stadium has shorter distances down the foul lines, it has far reaches of grass in left center and center field where outfielders can roam after long fly balls. Vada Pinson of the Reds pulled down a couple in New York that might have been homers in Cincinnati.

Crosley Field's fences all are reachable at less than 400 feet. The longest is 390 in right center. The fence behind the wall in left is 18 feet high, but the right field screen is only 9 feet. Particularly treacherous to the unwary or inexperienced outfielder is the terrace that runs around the entire outfield as a warning to the fielders that they are nearing the fence. Left field is the sun field, another headache for Yogi Berra, who had his troubles in left Thursday in New York.

Mickey Mantle remained a questionable starter because of soreness from minor surgery on an abscess on his right hip. Mantle missed the first two games but worked out with the club in the warm sunshine Friday. After hitting six or seven out of the park, he appeared improved. Roger Maris, the other half of the M&M boys, still was looking for his first Series hit. In fact, the man who hit 61 homers still hasn't hit the ball out of the infield against the Reds' pitchers.

If Mantle can't play, Manager Ralph Houk said he would use the same lineup as Thursday, with the exception of the pitcher. John Blanchard would be in right field.

After watching Mantle put on a batting show, both right and left-handed, Houk said, "Well I still am not ready to say he'll play but it looks less doubtful now."

Mantle hit five out of the park left-handed and one against the screen. Switching over to the other side, he hit one out of the park and another against the screen.

Purkey, a former Pittsburgh Pirate, said "I ate my heart out" last October watching his old mates play the Yanks in the World Series. On the strength of what he saw last year and what he learned in the first two games, he thinks he knows enough to beat the Yanks. While compiling a 16-12 record in the regular season, Purkey allowed 27 home runs. However, he shifted his main reliance to a knuckler in late season and didn't give up a single homer in his last seven starts since Aug. 25.

Stafford, 23, had a 14-9 record for the Yanks and pitched three shutouts. This is his first full season in the majors, although he came up from Richmond last season and pitched good ball.

After starting this season in the bullpen, he came into his own as a regular starter.

Hutchinson said he wasn't surprised at anything he had seen in the Series. "Mantle being out is bound to hurt them," he said. "Just as though we lost Frank Robinson."

When Houk was asked for a comment on the ball park, he said, "Well it is neat, freshly painted and the grass is green. I can tell you more after tomorrow."

The Yanks were somewhat concerned about Whitey Ford, who developed a stiff neck. Ford, the first game shutout winner, is due to face Jim O'Toole in another southpaw duel in Sunday's fourth game.

MAY BE TROUBLE

Yanks And Series Go To Red's Park

CINCINNATI (AP) — The New York Yankees may be heading for trouble in cozy Crosley Field with it's strange, sharp slope up to the outfield fence.

A sthe ace Cincinnati Red outfielder, Frank Robinson, says: "This is the only ball park in the world where a ball goes by you twice—once on the way up the slope, and then bounding back after you have climbed half way up."

The slope, only a gentle rise in right field, is a challenging 6-foot incline in left field where Yogi Berra of the Yankees will hold court.

"Nah, I don't know what it's like," said Yogi. "Won't know until I play it."

"No difficulty whatsoever," said baseball Commissioner Ford Frick. "It's just a warning slope so outfielders won't crash into the fence. It's really not as difficult as the wind in left field in Yankee Stadium."

T heleft field foul line is 328 feet here, and the right field line is 366, but the deepest spot in right center field is 390 feet. This compares with Yankee Stadium's moderate left field line of 301 feet, short right field line of 296 feet (which slopes away rapidly), and tremendously deep center field of 461 feet.

"It takes a pitcher longer to learn this park," conceded Manager Fred Hutchinson of the Reds whose team comes to grips Saturday with the Yankees with the World Series even at one game each. "He might be a little too careful to start with. It'tike Ebbets Field (the old Brooklyn park) but a little bigger."

Now that his team is home, Hutchinson is shifting Wally Post from right field, which he played during the two games in Yankee Stadium, to left field, and sending Robinson to right field—"because he covers more ground."

Hutchinson did not think the left field slope would bother Berra.

"He seems to know what he's doing everywhere else, but of course if you don't know the slope you can wind up on your knees," said Hutchinson.

The Yankees will find an odd set of ground rules here.

There is a white pole at the corner of the right field bleachers close to the 390-foot mark. A big sign says "Batted ball hitting wall to right of white line on fly home run." That means it's a homer even if it bounds back into play.

A ball that hits the big center field scoreboard is in play when it bounds back—but if it goes through one of the number holes it is a double.

A 40-foot screen exterds from the left field line to the score board. A ball that hits the screen is a home run.

Hog Offense Must Work Against TCU

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark (Special) — Either the pitching will have to be airtight — or the Razorbacks will have to hit to the opposite field. They're ganging up on the long ball hitter — Lance Alworth.

Every report that has come from an enemy camp this fall has told of special efforts — and even special defenses — to halt the outside running of Arkansas' All - America nominee Alworth. And — from the line of scrimmage — rivals have realized some success. Through two games, however, the senior with the fluid-drive gait again leads the nation in punt returns. He's carried seven for 136 yards — twice nearly going the distance.

"There's no question but that the defense has been effective against our outside attack," said Razorback coach Frank Broyles, "but that's not the whole story. First of all our blocking has not been as aggressive as it has to be to spring our halfbacks wide. Secondly, he continued, "our passing has got to improve or the defense has a real advantage against our wide plays. In fact — it takes good balance all the way around for any one part of the offense to be effective."

The Razorback coach took a look at the first two games. "Against Ole Miss our blocking was poor and playing with just one experienced quarterback (George McKinney) — the heat just sapped his strength. As a result we had no passing and Mississippi just ran over our offense. Last week," he added, "the rain ruined any chance to pass and made our outside game almost impossible. We still ran Alworth and (Paul) Dudley as decoys — then hit the middle with our fullbacks. It looked a little better. Now — with three tough conference games coming up — we've got to put the whole thing together and make it work."

Broyles will greet the return of quarterback Billy Moore in the TCU game. That will give the Razorbacks two healthy play - callers and an improved chance to throw the football. Billy Joe Moody and Jesse Branch now appear to be a sound fullback combination — so the question comes right back to Alworth and the halfback corps.

If the Razorbacks can pass more effectively — and if the fullbacks continue to make some progress into the middle of a bulky TCU line — the vaunted Razorback outside game might come into its own. At least — the A"Alworth shift" (slants to the outside by linebackers) might backfire. That's the hope of the Porkers as they begin a defense of their SWC crown.

McClendon Wins Ladies Golf Tourney

Virginia McClendon defeated Dot Nash, 3-2, to cap top honors in the Championship Flight of the Ladies Twin City Golf Tournament at Highland Park Country Club Friday.

The Championship Flight Consolation was won by Mary Irby as she defeated Betty Jagoditish, 3-2.

Norma Campbell defeated Madelon Smith one-up to take top honors in the First Flight, and Ellen Bage won First Flight Consolation by defeating Midge Kelly, 4-3.

Undefeated Tech Encounters USL

RUSTON, (Special) — Unbeaten Louisiana Tech and improving University of Southwestern clash here Saturday night in the second Gulf States conference encounter for each club.

Tech edged McNeese State 21-16 last week while USL was putting up a battle against Mississippi Southern before losing 22-6.

USL, which has lost three in a row and is supposed to lack depth, fielded a vastly improved team last week. Arlington State had whipped the downstate Bulldogs 26-0 and Southeastern had polished them off 27-0, but both of these future Tech foes have powerhouses.

Tech's ground attack has been nothing to brag about, but the Bulldog quarterbacks have found that they could move with ease through the air in two outings. Mickey Slaughter and Jerry Griffin teamed up last week for a passing and catching display that sent McNeese fans home unhappy.

The Mick completed 15 of 19 for 157 yards and two TD's. Griffin caught 10 of those for 120 yards and one TD. Johnny Hudson went three for three on passes and Pat Shows four for seven in the opener. They both just watched the Slaughter aerial show last weekend. Hudson, as alternate quarterback, did not throw against the Cowboys.

USL upset Tech 6-2 last year, handing the Bulldogs one of their two losses. Tech coaches fear a letdown by the Tech squad after the hard-fought victory over McNeese.

DON TIPPPIT,, Louisiana Tech guard from Dexter, Mo., and two-time all-Gulf States Conference performer, led the Bulldogs with eight individual tackles against McNeese State last week in a 21-16 Tech victory and will be up against Southwestern Louisiana at Ruston this Saturday night.

Ohio State Plays UCLA Today In Series Opener

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio State and UCLA, each with comeback hopes after last Saturday's disappointments, tangle here Saturday before some 82,000 fans. Game time is 1 p.m., EST, although the tickets say 1:30 p.m.

The host Bucks failed to live up to a 14-point favorite tag in their opener a week ago, and were tied 7-7 by Texas Christian. The coast club, after nicking the Air Force Academy in its inaugural, was squelched 29-6 by Michigan.

This is the first meeting between the Bucks and Bruins, and Ohio State is a two-touchdown favorite over the invaders—one of the few major college outfits featuring the single-wing offense.

Coach Woody Hayes, jarred somewhat by the tie with TCU, put his Ohioans through rugged workouts all week and came up with a couple of lineup changes.

Bob Middleton, 215-pound 6-3 right end, has won his job back from sophomore Ormonde Ricketts, and rookie Tom Jenkins, a quick 220-pounder, has moved in as offensive left guard.

Nittany Lions Topple Boston By 32-0 Count

By BOB HOOBING

BOSTON (AP) — Penn State abandoned its battering ground game for the forward pass in the clutch for a 32-0 victory over Boston University Friday night behing sophomore quarterbacks Pete Liske and Don Caum.

Liske, who inherited the No. 1 signal caller job when veteran Galen Hall was injured last week, capped an outstanding effort by sprinting literally out of a shoe on a 33-yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter. On a keeper on which he cut back up the middle, Liske stepped out of his shoe on the 10.

Liske passed Penn State into position for a touchdown with the game less than 3½ minutes old and his aerials set up Don Jonas' 35-yard field goal only 10 seconds before halftime.

State came out in the third period with a 10-0 advantage and Liske rattled the home forces by intercepting a Jack Farland pass on the second scrimmage play. State drove 47 yards in 13 plays but when the Nittany Lions bogged down inches from the Terrier goal, Caum came in and sent Al Gursky through right guard on fourth down for the score. Caum ran the two-pointer and Boston University was out of it, 18-0.

Just to make sure, Caum moments later combined with Hal Powell on a rollout pass which covered 50 yards through a befuddled Terrioer defense.

TCU Coach Says Sonny Gibbs Is Slowed By Hurt

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—Texas Christian Coach Abe Martin said Sonny Gibbs, his star quarterback, would be slowed down in Saturday night's Southwest Conference opener by a sprained ankle he suffered when a plane loading ramp collapsed Frdiay.

But he said Gibbs definitely would be able to play.

The ramp gave way as the team was boarding the plane in Fort Worth for the flight to Little Rock, where TCU meets defending champion Arkansas.

Several other players also fell but Martin said Gibbs was the only one who suffered an injury which might threaten his efficiency on the gridiron.

His ankle was packed in ice as soon as he got on the plane. He debarked at Little Rock carrying his right shoe and smiling.

'I't's going to slow him down some," said Martin, "but we're just thankful some boy wasn't really hurt." The 6-foot-7, 230-pound Gibbs leads the Southwest Conference in total offense with 271 yards and is second in passing with 12 completions in 24 attempts for 229 yards.

Martin said the whole team was shaken by the incident. Tackle Bobby Plummer was at the top of the ramp when it collapsed, and he fell about 13 feet. Martin said Plummer was bruised but not seriously.

"I lit on my fanny," Plummer said.

Two More Cards To Miss NY Tilt

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The St. Louis Cardinals, known as "The Incredible Cripples," will have two more players watching from the sidelines Sunday when the Redbirds play the New York Giants in a game that should help to unscramble the five-way tie for first in the National Football League's Eastern Conference.

The game will open the Cardinals' home schedule. The latest injured Cardinals are offensive end Hugh McInnis and flashy punt return specialist, rookie Pat Fischer.

McInnis injured his left knee and Fischer suffered a shoulder separation in last weekend's 30-27 upset of the world champion Philadelphia Eagles.

Two other Cardinals, fullback Frank Mestnik and defensive end Joe Robb, may see only limited action. Mestnik has a sprained arch and Robb a sore foot.

The Cardinals and the Giants both have 2-1 records along with the Dallas Cowboys, the Eagles and the Cleveland Browns.

Philadelphia is host to the Pittsburgh Steelers (0-3), who likely will play without old-timer Bobby Layne. Cleveland is at home against the Washington Redskins (0-3). Dallas steps over into the Western Conference to meet the Vikings at Minnesota (1-2).

Two other clubs deadlocked for first in the Western Conference face each other, the Baltimore Colts visiting the Green Bay Packers in the top tilt in that division. The Los Angeles Rams (1-2) travel to San Francisco to battle the "shotgun" attack of the 49ers and may have to do so without their No. 1 quarterback, Zeke Bratkowski. The Detroit Lions, stunned by last Sunday's 49-0 licking by the 49ers, are back home against the Chicago Bears (1-2).

The Packers, 49ers, Colts and Lions all have 2-1 records.

Baltimore Coach Weeb Ewbank has announced he will start both Jimmy Orr and Raymond Berry against the Packers. While Berry recuperated from a knee operation, Orr filled in at left end. Ewbank said Orr is too good a player to sit on the bench even though Berry has returned. Orr probably will be inserted at flanker back with Lenny Moore moving to inside half.

Layne is still nursing a bruised shoulder and side. Bratkowski has a badly sprained ankle. Guard Bernie Darre has a twisted knee and tackle Don Lawrence an ankle injury and figure to miss Washington's game with the Browns. Detroit's defensive tackle Gil Mains has a damaged knee and may be out of action for the season's remainder.

Purkey And Stafford To Start Third Game

NEW YORK YANKEE Manager Ralph Houk, left, and pitcher Bill Stafford take a look at Crosley Field in Cincinnati as the Yankees worked out Friday in preparation for Saturday's third game of the World Series. Stafford is scheduled to be Houk's starting pitcher against the Reds today. Each team has one win in the best-of-seven series. (AP Wirephoto)

CINCINNATI (AP) — Cincinnati's Bob Purkey, a 32-year-old right hander with a wide variety of pitches, will oppose young Bill Stafford of the New York Yankees in Saturday's third World Series game as the clubs switch to chummy Crosley Field all even with one victory each.

The Yanks still were 2-1 Series favorites over the scrappy Reds.

The Reds drew a royal welcome from some 1,500 fans Thursday night when they flew home after beating the Yanks in the second game 6-2. The Yanks rode a train and did not arrive until mid-morning.

Bright, warm sunshine greeted the two teams in their workouts in the Cincinnati park. The temperature eased into the 80s and there was promise of more of the same Saturday and Sunday. The clubs will play the next three games at Crosley Field. If more are necessary, they will return to New York after another off day for travel Tuesday.

Fred Hutchinson, manager of the Reds, was so pleased with his club's performance Thursday that he said he would use the same lineup in the third game. That meant Elio Chacon, the speedy Venezuelan who dashed home with the tie-breaking run on a passed ball, would be at second base although Don Blasingame's injured hand was much improved.

Hutchinson also stuck with John Edwards, his rookie catcher who came through with two key blows in Thursday's victory. Darrell Johnson, the veteran who is supposed to be the No. 1 receiver on the club, still was bothered by a pulled muscle in his side.

Because of the difference in the parks, Hutchinson planned to shift Frank Robinson from letf to right field and to move Wally Post from right to left. That was a normal procedure for the club in home games.

The tidy Cincinnati park, freshly painted and groomed for its first Series games since 1940, presented a sharp contrast to spacious Yankee Stadium. Crosley Field can take care of only a few more than 30,000, compared to the stadium with its 70,000 capacity. While Yankee Stadium has shorter distances down the foul lines, it has far reaches of grass in left center and center field where outfielders can roam after long fly balls. Vada Pinson of the Reds pulled down a couple in New York that might have been homers in Cincinnati.

Crosley Field's fences all are reachable at less than 400 feet. The longest is 390 in right center. The fence behind the wall in left is 18 feet high, but the right field screen is only 9 feet. Particularly treacherous to the unwary or inexperienced outfielder is the terrace that runs around the entire outfield as a warning to the fielders that they are nearing the fence. Left field is the sun field, another headache for Yogi Berra, who had his troubles in left Thursday in New York.

Mickey Mantle remained a questionable starter because of soreness from minor surgery on an abscess on his right hip. Mantle missed the first two games but worked out with the club in the warm sunshine Friday. After hitting six or seven out of the park, he appeared improved. Roger Maris, the other half of the M&M boys, still was looking for his first Series hit. In fact, the man who hit 61 homers still hasn't hit the ball out of the infield against the Reds' pitchers.

If Mantle can't play, Manager Ralph Houk said he would use the same lineup as Thursday, with the exception of the pitcher. John Blanchard would be in right field.

After watching Mantle put on a batting show, both right and left-handed, Houk said, "Well I still am not ready to say he'll play but it looks less doubtful now."

Mantle hit five out of the park left-handed and one against the screen. Switching over to the other side, he hit one out of the park and another against the screen.

Purkey, a former Pittsburgh Pirate, said "I ate my heart out" last October watching his old mates play the Yanks in the World Series. On the strength of what he saw last year and what he learned in the first two games, he thinks he knows enough to beat the Yanks. While compiling a 16-12 record in the regular season, Purkey allowed 27 home runs. However, he shifted his main reliance to a knuckler in late season and didn't give up a single homer in his last seven starts since Aug. 25.

Stafford, 23, had a 14-9 record for the Yanks and pitched three shutouts. This is his first full season in the majors, although he came up from Richmond last season and pitched good ball. After starting this season in the bullpen, he came into his own as a regular starter.

Hutchinson said he wasn't surprised at anything he had seen in the Series. "Mantle being out is bound to hurt them," he said. "Just as though we lost Frank Robinson."

When Houk was asked for a comment on the ball park, he said, "Well it is neat, freshly painted and the grass is green. I can tell you more after tomorrow."

The Yanks were somewhat concerned about Whitey Ford, who developed a stiff neck. Ford, the first game shutout winner, is due to face Jim O'Toole in another southpaw duel in Sunday's fourth game.

MAY BE TROUBLE

Yanks And Series Go To Red's Park

CINCINNATI (AP) — The New York Yankees may be heading for trouble in cozy Crosley Field with its strange, sharp slope up to the outfield fence.

A sthe ace Cincinnati Red outfielder, Frank Robinson, says: "This is the only ball park in the world where a ball goes by you twice—once on the way up the slope, and then bounding back after you have climbed half way up."

The slope, only a gentle rise in right field, is a challenging 6-foot incline in left field where Yogi Berra of the Yankees will hold fourt.

"Nah, I don't know what it's like," said Yogi. "Won't know until I play it."

"No difficulty whatsoever," said baseball Commissioner Ford Frick. "It's just a warning slope so outfielders won't crash into the fence. It's really not as difficult as the wind in left field in Yankee Stadium."

T heleft field foul line is 328 feet here, and the right field line is 366, but the deepest spot in right center field is 390 feet. This compares with Yankee Stadium's moderate left field line of 301 feet, short right field line of 296 feet (which slopes away rapidly), and tremendously deep center field of 461 feet.

"It takes a pitcher longer to learn this park," conceded Manager Fred Hutchinson of the Reds whose team comes to grips Saturday with the Yankees with the World Series even at one game each. "He might be a little too careful to start with. It'tike Ebbets Field (the old Brooklyn park) but a little bigger."

Now that his team is home, Hutchinson is shifting Wally Post from right field, which he played during the two games in Yankee Stadium, to left field, and sending Robinson to right field—"because he covers more ground."

Hutchinson did not think the left field slope would bother Berra.

"He seems to know what he's doing everywhere else, but of course if you don't know the slope you can wind up on your knees," said Hutchinson.

The Yankees will find an odd set of ground rules here.

There is a white pole at the corner of the right field bleachers close to the 390-foot mark. A big sign says: "Batted ball hitting wall to right of white line on fly home run." That means it's a homer even if it bounds back into play.

A ball that hits the big center field scoreboard is in play when it bounds back—but if it goes through one of the number holes it is a double.

A 40-foot screen extends from the left field line to the score board. A ball that hits the screen is a home run.

Hog Offense Must Work Against TCU

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (Special) — Either the pitching will have to be airtight — or the Razorbacks will have to hit to the opposite field. They're ganging up on the long-ball hitter — Lance Alworth.

Every report that has come from an enemy camp this fall has told of special efforts — and even special defenses — to halt the outside running of Arkansas' All - America nominee Alworth. And — from the line of scrimmage — rivals have realized some success. Through two games, however, the senior with the fluid-drive gait again leads the nation in punt returns. He's carried seven for 136 yards — twice nearly going the distance.

"There's no question but that the defense has been effective against our outside attack," said Razorback coach Frank Broyles, "but that's not the whole story. First of all our blocking has not been as aggressive as it has to be to spring our halfbacks wide. Secondly, he continued, "our passing has got to improve or the defense has a real advantage against our wide plays. In fact — it takes good balance all the way around for any one part of the offense to be effective."

The Razorback coach took a look at the first two games. "Against Ole Miss our blocking was poor and playing with just one experienced quarterback (George McKinney) — the heat just sapped his strength. As a result we had no passing and Mississippi just ran over our offense. Last week," he added, "the rain ruined any chance to pass and made our outside game almost impossible. We still ran Alworth and (Paul) Dudley as decoys — then hit the middle with our fullbacks. It looked a little better. Now — with three tough conference games coming up — we've got to put the whole thing together and make it work."

Broyles will greet the return of quarterback Billy Moore in the TCU game. That will give the Razorbacks two healthy play - callers and an improved chance to throw the football. Billy Joe Moody and Jesse Branch now appear to be a sound fullback combination — so the question comes right back to Alworth and the halfback corps.

If the Razorbacks can pass more effectively — and if the fullbacks continue to make some progress into the middle of a bulky TCU line — the vaunted Razorback outside game might come into its own. At least — the A"Alworth shift" (slants to the outside by linebackers) might backfire. That's the hope of the Porkers as they begin a defense of their SWC crown.

The Cardinals and the Giants both have 2-1 records along with the Dallas Cowboys, the Eagles and the Cleveland Browns.

Philadelphia is host to the Pittsburgh Steelers (0-3), who likely will play without old-timer Bobby Layne. Cleveland is at home against the Washington Redskins (0-3). Dallas steps over into the Western Conference to meet the Vikings at Minnesota (1-2).

Two other clubs deadlocked for first in the Western Conference face each other, the Baltimore Colts visiting the Green Bay Packers in the top tilt in that division. The Los Angeles Rams (1-2) travel to San Francisco to battle the "shotgun" attack of the 49ers and may have to do so without their No. 1 quarterback, Zeke Bratkowski. The Detroit Lions, stunned by last Sunday's 49-0 licking by the 49ers, are back home against the Chicago Bears (1-2).

The Packers, 49ers, Colts and Lions all have 2-1 records.

Baltimore Coach Weeb Ewbank has announced he will start both Jimmy Orr and Raymond Berry against the Packers. While Berry recuperated from a knee operation, Orr filled in at left end. Ewbank said Orr is too good a player to sit on the bench even though Berry has returned. Orr probably will be inserted at flanker back with Lenny Moore moving to inside half.

Layne is still nursing a bruised shoulder and side. Bratkowski has a badly sprained ankle. Guard Bernie Darre has a twisted knee and tackle Don Lawrence an ankle injury and figure to miss Washington's game with the Browns. Detroit's defensive tackle Gil Mains has a damaged knee and may be out of action for the season's remainder.

A SOFT TREATMENT FOR ROUGH ELBOWS

Elbows have to bear the brunt of so much weight and exposure, it's no wonder they callus and cry out for special care. In winter, the problem increases with the drying effect of cold temperatures.

The best technique for elbow-beautifying is to soak them in thick, warm soapsuds in the wash basin. Then scrub with a well-lathered pumice stone, rinse, wipe dry, and apply cream or lotion.

ROOM DIVIDER composed of a series of ready-made Mutschler kitchen cabinets fitted together has a custom built-look, can be adjusted to fit almost any specific situation. Paul McCobb who designed the off the floor units feels the light airy look is particularly suitable for modern houses. Shelves are closed off with glass doors and, in this case, where the installation is between dining room and kitchen colored glass has been used to accessorize the shelves with the result that the divider looks well from either side.

Kitchen Is Near Ideal

By BETTY PEPIS

If our country has perfected nothing else, it was agreed by a group of architects meeting in New York City last month, it has come near the ideal in kitchen planning. Even in such advanced areas in architectural thinking as the Scandinavian countries, a proud boast is "our kitchen is just like an American one."

Up until very recently however, such luxuries were only for those who could afford a custom installation usually supervised by an architect who knew how to specify dimensions, materials and even hardware. Today, however, improvements in commercially available kitchen cabinets make it possible to buy such units ready made and fit them into a remodelled kitchen as well as installing them in a new one. Achieving this is eased because the modern cabinets come in a wider variety of widths — and heights as well which makes it possible to fit them into almost any situation—including awkwardly broken up spaces.

Generally available in almost any of the widely distributed collections of cabinets are such conveniences as maple butcher blocks for chopping, pull out, lift up storage shelves designed to exactly fit such appliances as electric mixers and blenders, up and down dividers for trays and honeycomb partitions for wine storage.

Among recent additions hidden in the modern kitchen cabinets are to be found fiberglass utility trays to hold potatoes and the like, special compartment tall pull out shelves sized for soft drinks, lazy susan corner units which make the most of wasted corners, garbage disposal units and waste baskets built in on the inside of a door, as well as wire laundry hampers.

Special activities are also kept in mind. A slide out table extends to seat six. A sewing machine unit holds the machine in place for work but can be completely concealed when not in use. An ironing board folds away after the laundry is complete.

All the assets of modern kitchen cabinetry are not concealed. Prettiness has not been overlooked in the achievement of practicality. Wood finishes are available in tones from maple to mahogany and styles from colonial to contemporary.

The widest range of all seems to be a group which, along with conventional wood tones and assortment of twenty-two finishes, includes such high fashion colors as pumpkin and pink, mustard and mocha. There is a choice of hardware, too. Most unusual of all and particularly useful for modern houses which do not have enough walls are the room divider units which can be reached to ceiling heights thereby creating a wall where none existed before.

Rattlesnake, Copperhead Both Bite Man

ALBEMARLE, N.C. (AP)—Lennie Thompson, 46, a carpenter of Troy, was bitten by two different types of poisonous snakes—a copperhead and a rattlesnake—within an hour and a half and survived.

In bed at the Stanly County Hospital Friday, Thompson recalled the experience. Two swollen fingers, one on each hand, still showed fang marks.

"The copperhead hurt worse," said Thompson. "It's a deadly snake because it don't give you no warning."

Thompson and a companion were walking along a ditch bank about noon Tuesday in the Grassy Island section of Montgomery County, near the Pee Dee River. The copperhead struck him on the left hand. It dangled from his finger. Thompson tore the snake loose and stomped it to death.

The companion took Thompson to a doctor at Mount Gilead. After receiving antivenom serum, the carpenter and his friend went back to the river.

They spotted a rattlesnake whirring a warning. Thompson tried to catch it with a forked stick and it bit him on the right hand.

Your Baby And Mine

By Myrtle Meyer Eldred

Keeping the baby warm and comfortable at night during the cold months of the year is beneficial to his health and insures a long, restful sleep. Mrs. M. A. T. writes:

"Dear Mrs. Eldred:

"My little girl is five months old and a very restless sleeper. With winter coming on I am wondering how to keep her warm enough? My husband and I like to sleep in a well-ventilated, almost cold room, and we leave our door open so that we can hear her if she awakens.

"Will she be warm enough in sleepers and a sleeping bag if the temperature of the room gets in the fifties? I expect ours gets much lower. Should she have her window open? She is so wet in the early morning that I can imagine her being chilled to the bone when it gets really cold.

WAKES

"She also has a habit of awekening about an hour after she is put to bed at night and crying out as though she were frightened. When I pat her, she settles right down again. There seems no apparent cause, such as a loud noise or an awkward position. But she is so consistent that we can almost count on it at the same time each night. Do babies have nightmares at this age? Thank you so much for your help."

Heavy sleepers with feet in them and a winter-weight sleeping bag should keep your baby snug and warm even in the coldest weather. Sixty to sixty-five should be an ideal sleeping temperature. It is not necessary to have the window open if the room has been aired out before bedtime. When the weather is not too severe, it might be left open one inch at top and bottom in the early evening.

HEAT

So much depends on the heat in your home. If the temperature in the rest of the house does not drop too low, and there is heat on in the baby's room (do not open your door too wide), her room should stay warmer than yours.

Many mothers change their young babies after they are bedded down for the night and find they go back to sleep readily, or don't even awaken at all. She will be much drier in the morning if you change her. Use a light comforter on the coldest nights. Tuck it in and you may find she will keep it there until she awakens.

The heavy pajamas and sleeping bag can keep the baby too warm, in the early evening when the house is well heated. Wait until your bedtime and put the sleeping bag on when you change her.

I would wonder if your baby has not fallen asleep over her bottle and been put down without a good "burp." This could cause her to awaken crying, and as your patting releases the gas she settles right down. She is too young for nightmares.

YOUR PROBLEMS

By Ann Landers

Dear Ann Landers: I'm a normal boy of 17 who would like to take out a girl. I'm not sweet on any special chick but there are several cute ones at school I'd like to ask for a date. The problem is my mother.

She says a boy 17 (I'll be 18 in December) should not be thinking about girls, and if she catches me talking to a girl on the phone or sitting in a girl's house after school, she'll knock my block off.

Mom checks on me whenever I say I'm going over to a guy's house. She calls up there to ask me some dumb question. When I tell her I'm going to the library after school I find her sitting there "accidentally." The guys all know about this and the ribbing is murder.

Can you give me some help with my problem? —TAILED

Dear Tailed: It's your mother who has the real problem. A boy almost 18 who wants to date should be allowed to do so. Mothers who are too possessive sometimes need professional help. Show her this column and if she has any questions she'd like to ask me I'd be happy to oblige.

Dear Ann Landers: Why would a man profess his undying devotion to a woman, promise her marriage "when he is financially able" and at the same time buy her terribly expensive gifts, see her only on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, never introduce her to his business associates or friends, and ask her not to phone him at home because his mother is very nervous and the telephone bothers her.

I worship this man and because of him I have cut myself off from all other male contacts for the last three years. These questions plague me. Can you provide answers? —BLIND LOVE

Dear Blind: I can't provide answers, but I can hazard a guess or two.

This man is very much married and his "mother" who can't stand to hear the telephone ring is really his wife. Or—he is a mama's boy and is actually afraid to let his mother know he's interested in a woman.

In either case, the relationship doesn't stand the chance of a snowflake in New Orleans. Knock it off.

Dear Ann Landers: I run a high - class rooming house for working girls. I don't rent to just anybody.

A certain young woman who is 24 moved in about six months ago. She came from a small town and looked like Elsie Dinsmore—no make-up, hair the color God gave her and she carried her belongings in a suitcase with leather straps around it.

She got herself an office job the second day in town and two months later she went blonde learned to paint up and took on a second job modeling. I see her leave with a hatbox around dinner time and often she doesn't come home until it's light outside.

It's unhealthy for a young girl to work so many hours. I think she should give up one job or the other. Should I write to her mother and tell her what kind of hours her daughter is keeping? I always take the mothers' addresses in case of emergency. —MQTHER MOLLY

Dear Molly: This is no emergency. A girl 24 knows how many hours she wants to work. If you feel she's getting into deep water, talk to "her."

U.S. Seeking To Capitalize On Berlin Wall

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The United States Information Agency (USIA) is rushing out movies in 30 languages to capitalize on the Communist walling-in of East Berlin.

The films are being shipped for distribution overseas to theaters, private clubs and U.S. embassies which have an estimated monthly audience of 600 million persons.

At the same time, USIA is shipping documentary films for overseas television use to an audience estimated at an additional 150 million.

The films heavily stress the Communist denial of human rights in sealing off East Berlin. They include sequences comparing the economic prosperity of West Berlin with that in East Berlin, where much of the rubble of World War II still has never been cleaned up.

Irish Leader Dealt Blow In Election

DUBLIN, Ireland (AP) — Returns from Ireland's election Friday dealt a sharp blow to the power of Prime Minister Sean Lemass and his Fianna Fail party. New elections may have to be held in a few months.

With three districts still to report, Fianna Fail — Soldiers of Destiny—had lost its former majority over all other parties and captured only 68 of the 144 seats in the Dail—parliament. Before the election it held 78 seats.

Even capture of the remaining three seats would not give Fianna Fail a working majority, so Prime Minister Lemass either must form a minority or coalition government when the Dail meets next Wednesday.

The principal opposition party, Fine Gael, pumped up its strength from 41 seats to 47, but not enough to control the Dail.

The Labor party also jumped from 12 seats to 16.

Combined, the opposition could oust Lemass, but the Labor party has declared it would not join such a group.

Other parties to whom the prime minister could turn in seeking a coalition government included: Clann na Poblacta, 1 seat; Farmers, 2 seats, and independents 7.

A feature of the election was the complete eclipse of the extreme nationalist Sinn Fein party, political arm of the outlawed Irish Republican Army. All its 21 candidates, including its four members of the Dail, were defeated.

This made little difference in parliamentary maneuvering since the party has refused to take up the seats it won in previous elections as a protest against Ireland's partition.

Lemass keyed his campaign to promising economic expansion and seeking membership in the European Common Market. The involvement of Irish troops in the U. N. force fighting in the Congo played little part in a campaign which produced few issues.

U. N. To Hear Of Red Chinese Mass Murders

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — Tibet's exiled Dalai Lama plans to tell the United Nations that Chinese Communists murdered 600 Tibetan familes attempting to escape to India.

The charge is contained in a petition the Dalai Lama's brother says he will carry to the United Nations. He leaves for New York Saturday.

The petition accuses the Communists of using jet bombers to kill civilians and of machine-gunning women and children as they searched for food. Communist China took over Tibet in 1950. The Dalai Lama fled to India when the Reds crushed a rebellion in 1959.

U.S. Unveils New Income Tax Form

WASHINGTON (AP)—The new, simplified, two-page income tax form 1040 had its coming-out party at Internal Revenue Service Friday.

IRS Commissioner Mortimer M. Caplin, displaying the form at a news conference, acknowledged it won't make tax-paying a joy.

But it is more readable, better arranged, printed in bigger type on higher quality paper. And it substitutes plain English wherever possible for technical and legal language.

The form will be used for 1961 returns, replacing both the old 1040 and 1040W for the millions of individual taxpayers who get less than $200 of their income from dividends and interest.

It will be mailed out in December in a remodeled tax instruction book with perforated pages, so that taxpayers need remove only the sheets they need instead of the entire 16-page center section.

Taxpayers who have more than $200 of income from dividends or interest, and those who must report income from farming, partnerships, businesses, annuities or capital gains will have to attach the appropriate sheet or sheets to form 1040

But Caplin said the new 1040 would serve the great bulk of taxpayers whose income comes mainly from wages or salaries, including the 7.5-million persons who last year used form 1040W.

That was the supposedly simplified form introduced a few years ago. It did not work out well, tax men reported, because it was unfamiliar to most taxpayers, and presented a confusing choice of forms.

IRS is retaining the simplest form of all, the punch card return, 1040A. This may be used, however, only by taxpayers with less than $10,000 of total income.

The new 1040 is so arranged that all the tax computation is done on page 1. Almost every line has been shortened. A few items have been dropped out entirely.

The question about whether you owe any federal income tax for previous years no longer appears, but this doesn't open any new tax loophole. The commissioner remarked: "That information is available to us."

"As long as the tax form has to mirror the tax laws, we can't have complete simplification," he said. "But we think the great bulk of people can be better served with this new basic two-page form."

The form will be used for 1961 returns, replacing both the old 1040 and 1040W for the millions of individual taxpayers who get less than $200 of their income from dividends and interest.

It will be mailed out in December in a remodeled tax instruction book with perforated pages, so that taxpayers need remove only the sheets they need instead of the entire 16-page center section.

Taxpayers who have more than $200 of income from dividends or interest, and those who must report income from farming, partnerships, businesses, annuities or capital gains will have to attach the appropriate sheet or sheets to form 1040.

But Caplin said the new 1040 would serve the great bulk of taxpayers whose income comes mainly from wages or salaries, including the 7.5-million persons who last year used form 1040W.

That was the supposedly simplified form introduced a few years ago. It did not work out well, tax men reported, because it was unfamiliar to most taxpayers, and presented a confusing choice of forms.

IRS is retaining the simplest form of all, the punch card return, 1040A. This may be used, however, only by taxpayers with less than $10,000 of total income.

The new 1040 is so arranged that all the tax computation is done on page 1. Almost every line has been shortened. A few items have been dropped out entirely.

The question about whether you owe any federal income tax for previous years no longer appears, but this doesn't open any new tax loophole. The commissioner remarked: "That information is available to us."

"As long as the tax form has to mirror the tax laws, we can't have complete simplification," he said. "But we think the great bulk of people can be better served with this new basic two-page form."

BUSINESS HIGHLIGHTS

CHANGES NAME

NEW YORK (UPI)—E.F. Drew & Co., Inc., New York producer of vegetable oil products, has changed its name to Drew Chemical Corp. The company said the change was made to reflect the increasing role the production and sale of a wide range of industrial chemical plays in the business of the company.

RECEIVES ARMY CONTRACT

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Avco Corp.'s electronic and ordnance division has been awarded a $65,802,655 Army contract to produce 10,115 mobile radio systems for combat vehicles. RAISE OIL PRICE

DALLAS (UPI)—Two mid-continent home heating fuel suppliers Friday raised the price of No. 2 fuel oil by ¼ cent a gallon. Four other refiners have reported they are studying possible price boosts of ¼ to ½ cent a gallon. The strengthening of fuel oil prices was attributed to a sharp rise in demand brought on by colder weather over much of the middle west.

Stocks Post Mild Gains On Exchange

NEW YORK (UPI) — Prices on the New York Stock Exchange moved up moderately Friday despite a laggard blue chip group. Activity dropped about 12 per cent below Thursday's pace.

There were 583 advances and 440 declines in a fairly broad market of 1,282 stocks. Standard & Poor's index of 500 stocks reflected the rise with a gain of 20 cents, its high for the day, but the Dow - Jones industrial average, composed mainly of blue chips, slipped 0.24 to 708.25.

The Dow - Jones rail average was up a minor 0.04 to 140.74 and the utilities climbed a substantial 1.12 to 127.13. Besides the utilities, entertainment stocks, business machines, finance and some domestic oils were strong. Other groups were ragged.

Cosmetic shares weakened substantially on a report that the American Medical Association had renewed its attack on the industry for using drugs in its cosmetic products.

The number of stocks touching new 1961 highs Friday ran to 54 against 15 new lows. Activity dropped to 3,470,000 shares from 3,920,000 on Thursday as traders cooled off in advance of the weekend.

Mesabi Trust was the most active stock, up ½ to 13⅞ on 54,200 shares.

Stocks on the American Exchange were steady on balance as activity there dropped to 1,450,000 shares from 1,560,000 on Thursday. A big wire house Friday morning said to avoid Mead Johnson but the stock rose 3½.

COTTON

NEW YORK COTTON

NEW YORK (AP) — Cotton futures closed 50 cents a bale higher to 60 cents lower Friday.

New Orleans and Commission house buying imparted a steady tone to most deliveries. Switching from December to May was fairly active in nearby deliveries.

Most traders awaited the government cotton crop report next Monday. It is expected to be around 185,000 bales lower than the government's September forecast of 14,262,000 bales, according to recent private surveys.

Fallout Protection For All Is Urged

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy urged Civil Defense workers Friday to strive toward a goal of fallout protection for every American as rapidly as possible.

It can be accomplished, the President said in a letter to the meeting here of the Civil Defense Committee of the governors' conference.

"Radioactive fallout, extending down-wind for as much as several hundred miles," Kennedy said, "could account for the major part of the casualties which might result from a thermonuclear attack on an unprotected population. Protection against this threat is within reach of an informed America willing to face the facts and act."

Kennedy said, "Information is in preparation which I will use to inform the American people on what individuals should know and can do for their own protection."

The federal government is working on fallout shelter space for large groups of people, he said.

Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York, chairman of the governors' Civil Defense Committee, told newsmen the federal government was engaged in identifying shelter areas to protect 50-million persons in case of attack.

But as yet, Rockefeller said, it is not clear whether the federal, state or local governments should have the responsibility for safeguarding the remainder of the population.

Rockefeller talked to newsmen after conferring with the President.

Kennedy said in his letter that state and local governments could provide shelter in the construction of new public buildings and encourage private initiative in building shelters.

"Many homeowners, communities and business firms can and will provide more adequate, and better located shelter space for their own needs," Kennedy said. "The federal government is backing this effort with a massive dissemination of technical information."

Ford, Union Negotiators Still Apart

DETROIT (AP) — Top negotiators for the strikebound Ford Motor Co. and the United Auto Workers Union returned to the bargaining table Friday to assess chances for a quick end to the strike of 120,000 Ford workers.

Malcolm Denise, Ford vice president for industrial relations, and Walter P. Reuther, UAW president, led their respective teams.

Ford and the UAW had reached agreement on economic matters—such as wages and fringe benefits—before the strike began Tuesday. They became bogged down on the noneconomic issues—such as production standards—and on local issues involving Ford installations across the country.

Thirty-eight of Ford's 85 bargaining units reached agreement before the strike began, but they closed down too when the national strike began.

The UAW has insisted, as it did during the recent General Motors strike, that all local plant issues must be settled quickly along with the national contract terms.

Local bargainers for Ford and the UAW have been busy since the strike began trying to hammer out local agreements to clear the way for possible quick agreement on the national contract.

Reuther told newsmen Friday "Some of the plants are close to agreement, but some are not."

Denise said there had been "a few encouraging results in the last 24 hours." Asked if he thought a strike settlement could come this weekend, he replied, "I wouldn't say it is beyond the realm of possibility, but I am not predicting it."

One key unit which reached agreement Friday was the steel foundry at the Ford Rouge plant, biggest unit in Ford. About 3,100 of the 30,000 workers at the Rouge plant are in the steel unit.

Bussie Urges State Plan On Compensation

BATON ROUGE (AP)—A Louiana labor spokesman Friday asked the legislature to create an exclusive state fund to provide adequate workmen's compensation because the private insurance industry has failed.

Victor Bussie, president of the Louisiana State Labor Council, AFL-CIO, said the change to government sponsored workmen's compensation insurance would mean "a tremendous saving to the employers."

Employers over the state now foot the bill for insurance to provide for workers who are injured on the job.

The legislative committee, headed by Rep. T. T. Fields of Union Parish, has been seeking an answer to the question why Louisiana rates are higher than workmen's compensation isurance rates in other states.

Bussie offered a four-point proposal, including the request to create an exclusive state fund. Other proposals included unlimited medical care, increased payments to injured employes, and a professional study of the present costs and benefits of workmen's compensation.

$45,000 Tag Put On State Building Site

LAFAYETTE, La. AP) — Another property owner Friday put a $45,000 tag on a second site being considered for a state police headquarters at Lafayette.

Joe Gossen, local businessman, said he is asking that price for the land and a 3-year-old brick building located on Scott road, about five miles west of Lafayette.

Gossen said the building, formerly an office for his lumber company, contains 2,500-2,600 square feet and is on a lot with 100 feet frontage.

The State Bond and Building Commission has approved an allocation of $45,000 for a site owned by state Sen. French Jordan of Gretna.

The approval was contingent upon an appraisal by professional real estate men.

Murphy J. Roden, state public safety director, said Thursday his department was studying the Gossen property along with property owned by the state on Bertrand Drive, near Lafayette city limits.

Roden, who accused two newspapers—the Lafayette Advertiser and the Baton Rouge Morning Advocate—of giving misleading information about the controversial site owned by Jordan, said his department was not committed to using the site.

It was then he said his department was studying the two other possible sites.

The price asked by Gossen is the same as that asked by Jordan, a supporter of the administration of Gov. Jimmie Davis, who heads the bond and building commission.

Jordan's offer was recommended by Roden and Tom Burbank, state police superintendent, to the commission.

The Jordan property, some 2.31 acres on the Youngsville Road five miles east of Lafayette, includes a building smaller than that on the Gossen property.

Court records showed Jordan bought his property for $10,000 in 1958 and spent $15,000 putting up a building.

The Jordan land and the Gossen property will be on a secondary road when the federal interstate highway through Lafayette is completed.

Gossen did not estimate the value of his land, but said he has sold other property in the same vicinity for $100 per front foot. He said the building, constructed at current costs, would run about $40,000.

Patriotic Education Week Slated

Americanism goes to school next week. A seven-day observance of "Patriotic Education Week" starts on Thursday, October 12 — Columbus Day.

Both Monroe Mayor W. L. Howard and West Monroe Mayor J. Allan Norris plan to sign proclamations citing the event.

"Your Priceless Heritage — American Liberty", is the theme of the national Week, sponsored here by the Lt. Joseph Bowmar Society of the Children of the American Revolution.

Special emphasis will be placed on local "Landmarks of liberty".

All schools in the parish are being urged to participate in the program.

With more than 500 CAR societies in the nation sponsoring patriotic education week, the Lt. Joseph Bowmar group won first place recognition for the observance held in Ouachita parish last year.

"Let's fight Communism with Americanism . . . particularly in schools where teachers are in key positions to instill patriotism into youngsters," officials say.

The observance will not be confined to schools. Churches, civic organizations, radio, television, local businesses and newspapers will take part in the positive program, which ends on Oct. 19, the anniversary of the Battle of Yorktown, an American victory which won the Revolutionary War in 1781.

Patriotic and educational films will be available on a loan basis from Southern Bell Telephone Co.

Special program suggestions include emphasis on important battle fields, monuments, markers, old homes, old highways, cemeteries or landmarks of liberty in the parish, state or nation.

Articles and pictures, including Revolutionary War clothing maps, documents, copies of the Declaration of Independence, the Constitution of the United States and patriotic material will be on display.

U.N. Accused Of Violating Congo Truce

ELISABETHVILLE, Katanga (AP)—President Moise Tshombe has accused the United Nations of reinforcing its military position in this secessionist Congo province in violation of the Sept. 20 cease-fire.

He told a news conference Thursday the United Nations was doing all in its power to help the central government in Leopoldville start a civil war, and was obstructing the supply of his troops in outlying areas.

"You have only to look at the post office to see what they are doing," he said.

The post office, taken over by U. N. forces at the beginning of U. N. - Katangan fighting last month, apparently has been strengthened in its sandbag defenses.

Tshombe made his charge as U. N. reports in Leopoldville said Katanga was bringing in much war material and mercenaries from Rhodesia.

An exchange of prisoners—one of the points of the cease-fire agreement—apparently is depending on Katangan counterproposals. These may concern restoration of the control of two northern towns, Albertville and Nyunzu, to Katangan control.

Katangans say the United Nations arrested all European advisers in the government at Albertville and installed a regime hostile to Tshombe. At Nyunzu, they charge, the United Nations accepted the surrender of the Katangan garrison after the cease-fire.

Analyst Gives Thoughts On Week's News

By J. M.ROBERTS

Associated Press News Analyst

Some thoughts after scanning a week's news:

Will it be any the less appeasement if Bonn makes concessions to the East German Communists instead of the Big Three doing it themselves?

In 1948 the Communists set up blockades outside Vienna the same as outside Berlin. The British drove an armed column through, and there was no blockade of Vienna as there was of Berlin. Can't help wondering what would have happened if the Allies had started knocking down the wal lthrough Berlin on Aug. 13. Probably nothing.

Soviets are now buying off their newsstands more than 3,000,000 copies of each issue of America Illustrated, the U.S. Information Agency's Russian-language magazine.

Oakes Child, 5, Injured Friday

Deborah May Oakes, 5, of 315 N. 7th St., was slightly injured Friday when she darted into the path of an automobile just north of the Washington and North Sixth Street intersection in Monroe.

The child showed no visible injuries but was taken briefly to Wright Clinic.

She was struck by a 1958 sedan driven south on North Sixth by George N. Maddux, 37, of 2708 Fort Miro. Witnesses said the youngster darted into the street from behind a string of parked cars. No charges were filed by police.

Parish Voter Books Closed For Tax Election

Voter registration books for all of Ouachita parish outside the Monroe city limits are closed until November 8.

Mrs. Mae Lucky, registrar of voters, said that so many people came in to register Friday that she "didn't have time to count them."

Parish property owners will vote November 7 on the School Board's $7 million bond issue election.

State law requires that registration books be closed for 30 days preceding an election.

Since Monroe residents will not have a voice in the bond issue vote, registration books will remain open for wards three and 10 within the city limits.

2 Servicemen Are Booked Here

Two Altus, Okla., servicemen were booked Friday by West Monroe police and taken to Ouachita Parish jail as being A.W.O.L (absent without leave) from their posts.

Two young women, also of Altus, Okla., were booked for vagrancy and transferred to parish jail.

Charged with being A.W.O.L. are Richard E. Gilmore, 22, and John Valentine, 18. Booked for vagrancy were Margaret Smith, 32, and Barbara Ross, 27.

Fallout Protection For All Is Urged

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy urged Civil Defense workers Friday to strive toward a goal of fallout protection for every American as rapidly as possible.

It can be accomplished, the President said in a letter to the meeting here of the Civil Defense Committee of the governors' conference.

"Radioactive fallout, extending down-wind for as much as several hundred miles," Kennedy said, "could account for the major part of the casualties which might result from a thermonuclear attack on an unprotected population. Protection against this threat is within reach of an informed America willing to face the facts and act."

Kennedy said, "Information is in preparation which I will use to inform the American people on what individuals should know and can do for their own protection."

The federal government is working on fallout shelter space for large groups of people, he said.

Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York, chairman of the governors' Civil Defense Committee, told newsmen the federal government was engaged in identifying shelter areas to protect 50-million persons in case of attack.

But as yet, Rockefeller said, it is not clear whether the federal, state or local governments should have the responsibility for safeguarding the remainder of the population.

Rockefeller talked to newsmen after conferring with the President.

Kennedy said in his letter that state and local governments could provide shelter in the construction of new public buildings and encourage private initiative in building shelters.

"Many homeowners, communities and business firms can and will provide more adequate, and better located shelter space for their own needs," Kennedy said. "The federal government is backing this effort with a massive dissemination of technical information."

Ford, Union Negotiators Still Apart

DETROIT (AP) — Top negotiators for the strikebound Ford Motor Co. and the United Auto Workers Union returned to the bargaining table Friday to assess chances for a quick end to the strike of 120,000 Ford workers.

Malcolm Denise, Ford vice president for industrial relations, and Walter P. Reuther, UAW president, led their respective teams.

Ford and the UAW had reached agreement on economic matters—such as wages and fringe benefits—before the strike began Tuesday. They became bogged down on the noneconomic issues—such as production standards—and on local issues involving Ford installations across the country.

Thirty-eight of Ford's 85 bargaining units reached agreement before the strike began, but they closed down too when the national strike began.

The UAW has insisted, as it did during the recent General Motors strike, that all local plant issues must be settled quickly along with the national contract terms.

Local bargainers for Ford and the UAW have been busy since the strike began trying to hammer out local agreements to clear the way for possible quick agreement on the national contract.

Reuther told newsmen Friday "Some of the plants are close to agreement, but some are not."

Denise said there had been "a few encouraging results in the last 24 hours." Asked if he thought a strike settlement could come this weekend, he replied, "I wouldn't say it is beyond the realm of possibility, but I am not predicting it."

One key unit which reached agreement Friday was the steel foundry at the Ford Rouge plant, biggest unit in Ford. About 3,100 of the 30,000 workers at the Rouge plant are in the steel unit.

Bussie Urges State Plan On Compensation

BATON ROUGE (AP)—A Louiana labor spokesman Friday asked the legislature to create an exclusive state fund to provide adequate workmen's compensation because the private insurance industry has failed.

Victor Bussie, president of the Louisiana State Labor Council, AFL-CIO, said the change to government sponsored workmen's compensation insurance would mean "a tremendous saving to the employers."

Employers over the state now foot the bill for insurance to provide for workers who are injured on the job.

The legislative committee, headed by Rep. T. T. Fields of Union Parish, has been seeking an answer to the question why Louisiana rates are higher than workmen's compensation isurance rates in other states.

Bussie offered a four-point proposal, including the request to create an exclusive state fund. Other proposals included unlimited medical care, increased payments to injured employes, and a professional study of the present costs and benefits of workmen's compensation.

$45,000 Tag Put On State Building Site

LAFAYETTE, La. AP) — Another property owner Friday put a $45,000 tag on a second site being considered for a state police headquarters at Lafayette.

Joe Gossen, local businessman, said he is asking that price for the land and a 3-year-old brick building located on Scott road, about five miles west of Lafayette.

Gossen said the building, formerly an office for his lumber company, contains 2,500-2,600 square feet and is on a lot with 100 feet frontage.

The State Bond and Building Commission has approved an allocation of $45,000 for a site owned by state Sen. French Jordan of Gretna.

The approval was contingent upon an appraisal by professional real estate men.

Murphy J. Roden, state public safety director, said Thursday his department was studying the Gossen property along with property owned by the state on Bertrand Drive, near Lafayette city limits.

Roden, who accused two newspapers—the Lafayette Advertiser and the Baton Rouge Morning Advocate—of giving misleading information about the controversial site owned by Jordan, said his department was not committed to using the site.

It was then he said his department was studying the two other possible sites.

The price asked by Gossen is the same as that asked by Jordan, a supporter of the administration of Gov. Jimmie Davis, who heads the bond and building commission.

Jordan's offer was recommended by Roden and Tom Burbank, state police superintendent, to the commission.

The Jordan property, some 2.31 acres on the Youngsville Road five miles east of Lafayette, includes a building smaller than that on the Gossen property.

Court records showed Jordan bought his property for $10,000 in 1958 and spent $15,000 putting up a building.

The Jordan land and the Gossen property will be on a secondary road when the federal interstate highway through Lafayette is completed.

Gossen did not estimate the value of his land, but said he has sold other property in the same vicinity for $100 per front foot. He said the building, constructed at current costs, would run about $40,000.

Patriotic Education Week Slated

Americanism goes to school next week. A seven-day observance of "Patriotic Education Week" starts on Thursday, October 12 — Columbus Day.

Both Monroe Mayor W. L. Howard and West Monroe Mayor J. Allan Norris plan to sign proclamations citing the event.

"Your Priceless Heritage — American Liberty", is the theme of the national Week, sponsored here by the Lt. Joseph Bowmar Society of the Children of the American Revolution.

Special emphasis will be placed on local "Landmarks of liberty".

All schools in the parish are being urged to participate in the program.

With more than 500 CAR societies in the nation sponsoring patriotic education week, the Lt. Joseph Bowmar group won first place recognition for the observance held in Ouachita parish last year.

"Let's fight Communism with Americanism . . . particularly in schools where teachers are in key positions to instill patriotism into youngsters," officials say.

The observance will not be confined to schools. Churches, civic organizations, radio, television, local businesses and newspapers will take part in the positive program, which ends on Oct. 19, the anniversary of the Battle of Yorktown, an American victory which won the Revolutionary War in 1781.

Patriotic and educational films will be available on a loan basis from Southern Bell Telephone Co.

Special program suggestions include emphasis on important battle fields, monuments, markers, old homes, old highways, cemeteries or landmarks of liberty in the parish, state or nation.

Articles and pictures, including Revolutionary War clothing maps, documents, copies of the Declaration of Independence, the Constitution of the United States and patriotic material will be on display.

U.N. Accused Of Violating Congo Truce

ELISABETHVILLE, Katanga (AP)—President Moise Tshombe has accused the United Nations of reinforcing its military position in this secessionist Congo province in violation of the Sept. 20 cease-fire.

He told a news conference Thursday the United Nations was doing all in its power to help the central government in Leopoldville start a civil war, and was obstructing the supply of his troops in outlying areas.

"You have only to look at the post office to see what they are doing," he said.

The post office, taken over by U. N. forces at the beginning of U. N. - Katangan fighting last month, apparently has been strengthened in its sandbag defenses.

Tshombe made his charge as U. N. reports in Leopoldville said Katanga was bringing in much war material and mercenaries from Rhodesia.

An exchange of prisoners—one of the points of the cease-fire agreement—apparently is depending on Katangan counterproposals. These may concern restoration of the control of two northern towns, Albertville and Nyunzu, to Katangan control.

Katangans say the United Nations arrested all European advisers in the government at Albertville and installed a regime hostile to Tshombe. At Nyunzu, they charge, the United Nations accepted the surrender of the Katangan garrison after the cease-fire.

Analyst Gives Thoughts On Week's News

By J. M.ROBERTS
Associated Press News Analyst

Some thoughts after scanning a week's news:

Will it be any the less appeasement if Bonn makes concessions to the East German Communists instead of the Big Three doing it themselves?

In 1948 the Communists set up blockades outside Vienna the same as outside Berlin. The British drove an armed column through, and there was no blockade of Vienna as there was of Berlin. Can't help wondering what would have happened if the Allies had started knocking down the wal lthrough Berlin on Aug. 13. Probably nothing.

Soviets are now buying off their newsstands more than 3,000,000 copies of each issue of America Illustrated, the U.S. Information Agency's Russian-language magazine.

Oakes Child, 5, Injured Friday

Deborah May Oakes, 5, of 315 N. 7th St., was slightly injured Friday when she darted into the path of an automobile just north of the Washington and North Sixth Street intersection in Monroe.

The child showed no visible injuries but was taken briefly to Wright Clinic.

She was struck by a 1958 sedan driven south on North Sixth by George N. Maddux, 37, of 2703 Fort Miro. Witnesses said the youngster darted into the street from behind a string of parked cars. No charges were filed by police.

Parish Voter Books Closed For Tax Election

Voter registration books for all of Ouachita parish outside the Monroe city limits are closed until November 8.

Mrs. Mae Lucky, registrar of voters, said that so many people came in to register Friday that she "didn't have time to count them."

Parish property owners will vote November 7 on the School Board's $7 million bond issue election.

State law requires that registration books be closed for 30 days preceeding an election.

Since Monroe residents will not have a voice in the bond issue vote, registration books will remain open for wards three and 10 within the city limits.

2 Servicemen Are Booked Here

Two Altus, Okla., servicemen were booked Friday by West Monroe police and taken to Ouachita Parish jail as being A.W.O.L (absent without leave) from their posts.

Two young women, also of Altus, Okla., were booked for vagrancy and transferred to parish jail.

Charged with being A.W.O.L. are Richard E. Gilmore, 22, and John Valentine, 18. Booked for vagrancy were Margaret Smith, 32, and Barbara Rea, 17.

FROM 30 FEET

Diving Act Big Fair Attraction

The night is cold and there's a crisp, autumn bite in the air as a lone, dark figure, caught vividly in the glare of nearby spotlights, slowly ascends the steeply rising ramp which terminates some 30 feet in the air at a diving platform over-looking a six-foot tank of water.

At the top, the diver pauses dramatically. Her muscles tense for the leap. Far below, awed onlookers catch for breath and crane their necks. She's away, her supple body, awkward at first, quickly blossoming into the characteristic form of the swan dive, perfectly executed.

There's a hollow splash as she knifes through the waters. Her head reappears and she swims for the side of the tank. Nothing remains but the ovation of the crowd — Sioux City Sue has done it again.

This is the scene which will be re-enacted each night at 9 p.m. next week, from Monday through Saturday, for visitors to the Ouachita Valley Fair in West Monroe.

What's so special?

Granted that though 30-foot dives are a bit beyond the capacity of many of us, they're still not the most electrifying things in the world.

Nevertheless, this is pretty special.

Sioux City Sue is a mule, a 40-inch-tall (or short) hybrid resulted from the mating of the tiny Sicilian jack and shetland pony mares. Together with four other mules, of similar description, and a mischieveous chimpanzee named Gypsy who gets his kicks from mule - back riding, she holds the featured role in one of the country's most unique acts — Jonny Rivers and his Diving Mules.

Now in their second year on the circuit, following the sun across most of the nation, it will be the act's first booking in the southeastern United States. Widely known, Sioux City Sue and the rest of the "bathing uglies" held center stage at last year's Minnesota State Fair. Most of the 1960 season was spent in performances at the famous Pacific Ocean Park in Santa Monica, Calif.

The owner, Jonny Rivers, also is well - known, as an animal trainer and producer of novelty rodeo and circus acts. A graduate of Father Flanagan's Boys Town in Nebraska, he is said to have devoted over two years to the selection and training of his unlikely divers. Since only about one mule in a thousand has the affinity for water needed, his quintet had to be accustomed to it by swimming them in the Florida surf.

The idea came to him while in Florida with a show horse act. Rivers discovered that a tiny mule among the horses liked to swim in the ocean. From that it was only a matter of a few lessons to produce the four-legged high diver he was looking for.

That mule was Sioux City Sue, the mainstay of the act.

She was joined subsequently by Leaping Lena and Lucky Lucy, also veterans of two years on tour, and Minnie the Moocher and Hambone, performing now for a year.

Short in the saddle, Gypsy is a comparative newcomer to the act, which, later this year, will perform in South America.

Four Area Men Fined In City Court Activity

Monroe City Judge W. M. Harper Friday fined four area men $425 and costs or seven months in jail on separate violations of driving while under the influence of intoxicating beverages. A fifth forfeited bond of $490 on the same charge.

Fined were G. L. Telano, 30, of 506 Harper St. in West Monroe; Costanza, 41, of 409 Hall; Alvin J. Rachall, 41, 403 Stone; and John W. Swares, 22, of Vivian. Forfeiting the bond was James S. Meeks, 45, whose address was given as the Alvis Hotel.

Negro Tommie Potter, 29, no address listed, drew $100 or 60 days for the illegal use of a weapon and $25 or 25 days for public drunkenness.

A 17-year-old Negro, Betty Johnson, of 1120 Washington, was fined $50 or 30 days for disturbing the peace, while conviction of public drunkenness brought fines of $25 or 25 days for William Price, 49, of Route 1, Hamilton, West Monroe, and 64-year-old Negro Nelson Gibson, of 515 Mill St.

A case of simple battery was nolle prossed against Aubrey E. Floyd, Negro, 38, of 310 Smith, as was one of vagrancy against a 33-year-old Negro, Johnnie Lee Perry, of 406 8th St.

In traffic court, bonds were forfeited on the following: $5 for speeding, 18 cases; $5, running red lights, eight cases; $2, overparking, three cases; $25, following too close, one case; $5-$20, running stop signs, four cases; and $25, reckless driving, four cases (another case drew $10 or 10 days).

Wininger Rites Held On Friday

Funeral services for Mrs. J. N. Wininger, 71, of Downsville route two, were held Friday at 2 p.m. at the Aulds Chapel Church with the Rev. Frank Smith and the Rev. Roy Weist officiating.

Mrs. Wininger died Thursday night in a local hospital after an illness of about six months.

She was a native of Batesville, Ark., and had resided around Downsville since the age of 11.

Burial was in the Aulds Chapel Cemetery under the direction of Kilpatrick Funeral Homes of West Monroe.

Survivors are her husband, J. N. Wininger, Downsville; two sons, A. L. Wininger, Downsville; B. E. Wininger, Oak Grove; one daughter, Mrs. C. R. Crawford, West Monroe; four brothers, William Johnson, Downsville; Johnny Johnson, Batesville, Ark.; Roy Johnson, West Monroe; Mack Johnson, Monroe; four sisters, Mrs. Martha Pearson, Batesville, Mrs. Dora Garland, Downsville; Mrs. Hattie Walker, Downsville; Mrs. Georgia Whitlock, Downsville; 13 grandchildren, and eight great grandchildren.

Pallbearers were Dallas Jordan, Carl Jordan, W. J. Jordan, Willard Green, Ivy Frost and George Greer.

Winnsboro Man Booked For DWI

West Monroe police Friday booked a 24 year old Winnsboro man for driving while under the influence of intoxicating beverages.

He was Hollis R. Rayburn, of Box [illegible], Winnsboro.

Diving Act Big Fair Attraction

The night is cold and there's a crisp, autumn bite in the air as a lone, dark figure, caught vividly in the glare of nearby spotlights, slowly ascends the steeply rising ramp which terminates some 30 feet in the air at a diving platform over-looking a six-foot tank of water.

At the top, the diver pauses dramatically. Her muscles tense for the leap. Far below, awed onlookers catch for breath and crane their necks. She's away, her supple body, awkward at first, quickly blossoming into the characteristic form of the swan dive, perfectly executed.

There's a hollow splash as she knifes through the waters. Her head reappears and she swims for the side of the tank. Nothing remains but the ovation of the crowd — Sioux City Sue has done it again.

This is the scene which will be re-enacted each night at 9 p.m. next week, from Monday through Saturday, for visitors to the Ouachita Valley Fair in West Monroe.

What's so special?

Granted that though 30-foot dives are a bit beyond the capacity of many of us, they're still not the most electrifying things in the world.

Nevertheless, this is pretty special.

Sioux City Sue is a mule, a 40-inch-tall (or short) hybrid resulted from the mating of the tiny Sicilian jack and shetland pony mares. Together with four other mules, of similar description, and a mischieveous chimpanzee named Gypsy who gets his kicks from mule - back riding, she holds the featured role in one of the country's most unique acts — Jonny Rivers and his Diving Mules.

Now in their second year on the circuit, following the sun across most of the nation, it will be the act's first booking in the southeastern United States. Widely known, Sioux City Sue and the rest of the "bathing uglies" held center stage at last year's Minnesota State Fair. Most of the 1959 season was spent in performances at the famous Pacific Ocean Park in Santa Monica, Calif.

The owner, Jonny Rivers, also is well - known, as an animal trainer and producer of novelty rodeo and circus acts. A graduate of Father Flanagan's Boys Town in Nebraska, he is said to have devoted over two years to the selection and training of his unlikely divers. Since only about one mule in a thousand has the affinity for water needed, his quintet had to be accustomed to it by swimming them in the Florida surf.

The idea came to him while in Florida with a show horse act. Rivers discovered that a tiny mule among the horses liked to swim in the ocean. From that it was only a matter of a few lessons to produce the four-legged high diver he was looking for.

That mule was Sioux City Sue, the mainstay of the act.

She was joined subsequently by Leaping Lena and Lucky Lucy, also veterans of two years on tour, and Minnie the Moocher and Hambone, performing now for a year.

Short in the saddle, Gypsy is a comparative newcomer to the act, which, later this year, will perform in South America.

Four Area Men Fined In City Court Activity

Monroe City Judge W. M. Harper Friday fined four area men $425 and costs or seven months in jail on separate violations of driving while under the influence of intoxicating beverages. A fifth forfeited bond of $490 on the same charge.

Fined were G. L. Telano, 30, of 506 Harper St. in West Monroe; Costanza, 41, of 409 Hall; Alvin J. Rachall, 41, 403 Stone; and John W. Swares, 22, of Vivian. Forfeiting the bond was James S. Meeks, 45, whose address was given as the Alvis Hotel.

Negro Tommie Potter, 29, no address listed, drew $100 or 60 days for the illegal use of a weapon and $25 or 25 days for public drunkenness.

A 17-year-old Negro, Betty Johnson, of 1120 Washington, was fined $50 or 30 days for disturbing the peace, while conviction of public drunkenness brought fines of $25 or 25 days for William Price, 49, of Route 1, Hamilton, West Monroe, and 64-year-old Negro Nelson Gibson, of 515 Mill St.

A case of simple battery was nolle prossed against Aubrey E. Floyd, Negro, 38, of 310 Smith, as was one of vagrancy against a 33-year-old Negro, Johnnie Lee Perry, of 406 8th St.

In traffic court, bonds were forfeited on the following: $5 for speeding, 18 cases; $5, running red lights, eight cases; $2, overparking, three cases; $25, following too close, one case; $5-$20, running stop signs, four cases; and $25, reckless driving, four cases (another case drew $10 or 10 days).

THIS WAS THE CIVIL WAR

By MERTON T. AKERS
United Press International

October 1861 was half gone, the Civil War was six months old, but nobody was fighting.

That was not the way President Abraham Lincoln wanted it. He wanted action. The generals were dragging their feet.

"All Quiet Along the Potomac," the newspapers reported. After the battle of Bull Run (Manassas) that was a phrase the North read with relief.

Now in October, more than two months later, it was beginning to have a hollow ring.

All was quiet along the Ohio, too. And along the Mississippi and along the Missouri. Too quiet for Lincoln.

So early in October, Lincoln wrote a memo to himself. He called it "Memorandum for a PLAN of Campaign." (The capitalization was him.)

He started out:

"On, or about the 5th of October, (the exact date to be determined hereafter) I wish a movement made to seize and hold a point on the Railroad connecting Virginia and Tennessee, near the mountain pass called Cumberland Gap."

Lincoln was making his second excursion into the field of military planning. His first had resulted in disaster at Bull Run — a major disaster it seemed at the time — when he ordered the Federal army to attack while it was only half organized. But a big, awkward country was fighting a big, awkward war — no pattern, no plan, no coordination among the armies, big and little, hesitating on the rim of the Confederacy from Virginia to Missouri.

Old Gen. Winfield Scott was past bringing any order out of this chaos. Maj. Gen. George B. McClellan, commanding the Army of the Potomac, was drilling his troops, then reviewing them with all the panoply he could muster, then drilling them again. He showed no signs of fighting.

Maj. Gen. John C. Fremont in Missouri was running out his string and knew it.

Some one had to think for the Army.

Lincoln nominated himself in the absence of anyone better.

In his memo, Lincoln ticked off the Federal forces available for the Cumberland Gap expedition:

—Gen. George H. Thomas had 5,000-6,000 troops in Kentucky, 25 miles from Lexington.

—Gen. William T. Sherman had about 8,000 men at Muldraugh's Hill 40 miles south of Louisville, Ky.

—Smaller forces were stationed at Fort Holt in Kentucky, Bird's Point in Missouri, Cairo and Mound City, Ill., and Evansville and New Albany, Ind.

Opposed, Lincoln noted, was Gen. Felix Zollicoffer with 6,000-7,000 Confederates guarding Cumberland Gap, the quiet gateway to the west through the Appalachians.

Gen. Simon Buckner had about 5,000 grayclads against Sherman.

Lincoln did not mention it but the Confederates also had a force at Columbus, Ky., on the Mississippi in western Kentucky, too far away from Buckner and Zollicoffer to be of much help.)

At the proper time, Lincoln wrote, the Union forces were to strike south.

"Sherman merely is to stand fast," Lincoln wrote, "while all at Cincinnati, and all at Louisville, with all on the lines, concentrate rapidly at Lexington, and thence to Thomas' camp joining him, and the whole thence upon the Gap."

Cumberland Gap is about 100 miles southeast of Lexington. Zollicoffer was supposed to be at Barboursville, Ky., about 75 miles from Thomas. There was no railroad, only dirt roads, some places no better than trails.

Lincoln also planned a move against the Confederate east coast to be conducted simultaneously with the Cumberland Gap expedition.

The coast movement, to be directed against Port Royal on the South Carolina coast between Charleston and Savannah, Ga., would come in less than a month, but the Cumberland Gap campaign never would get off the ground.

In planning a drive on Cumberland Gap, Lincoln had in mind giving some help to East Tennessee where Unionists predominated but were completely surrounded and harried by Confederates.

East Tennessee lay close to Lincoln's heart and several times during the early part of the war he would try to send an army into the region. But it was 1863 before the Federals occupied Knoxville and liberated the East Tennesseans.

While Lincoln's Cumberland Gap plan was a comparatively minor one, it pointed up his native ability as a strategist.

From the start, Lincoln visualized the whole war.

Earlier than most, he realized that the North must take the offensive and strike — not in overwhelming force in one theater — but in force on many fronts at the same time. A break-through would come in a weak spot if the pressure was kept on. Only that way could the superior numbers and equipment of the North be brought to bear against the weaker but defensive South.

Sooner than the generals, Lincoln saw that the chief objectives of the Union armies must be the armies of the South, not the cities or strategic points.

American generals of that day, having learned their war from books written by Europeans, hoped to win battles by outmaneuvering the enemy and forcing him from strategic points with as little bloodshed as possible. The theory was that the enemy, outmaneuvered at every turn, eventually would give up the war as a bad job.

Lincoln knew better. He borrowed books from the Library of Congress and burned the midnight oil at the White House so he could talk to the generals in their own language.

The army had no such thing as a command staff in 1861 and would not perfect one for two years. Each general did his own campaign planning and kept his plans to himself. No one in Washington acted as a clearing house, much less as chief of staff.

When Lincoln wanted to know about what was being done in any war theater, he usually had to write to the general in command there to find out.

More often than not, the generals replied with long letters of complaint instead of answering the questions. Lincoln wanted decision and action. What he got in 1861 and 1862 was indecision and delay. What he wanted was victory. What he got was excuses.

If the generals would not fight the war, the rapidly learning amateur in the White House would.

Owing to shortages of metal and lack of industrial capacity, many Confederates carried canteens made of cedar wood sometimes covered with cotton cloth. Union soldiers carried canteens of metal covered with canvas and holding about three pints.

A wide variety of weapons used in the early part of the Civil War complicated the ammunition problem. One collector picked up 125 different varieties of bullets.

Early in the Civil War Union soldiers ate in squads, one man being assigned as cook. Later cooks were hired for each company.

Judges May Be Brought Under Conflict Laws

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Estes Kefauver, D-Tenn., said Friday he would urge legislation next year to bring federal judges under the conflict of interest laws.

He told a reporter that his decision was prompted by the announcement that U.S. District Court Judge Royce H. Savage of Tulsa, Okla., was resigning Oct. 31 to become general counsel of the Gulf Oil Corp.

Kefauver said that less than two years ago Savage dismissed government charges that Gulf and 28 other major oil companies conspired to raise prices during the Suez Canal crisis of 1956-57.

Kefauver, chairman of the Senate Antitrust and Monopoly subcommittee, said it "doesn't look right for Judge Savage to leave the bench to go to work for one of the defendants in the case.

"This may not violate the letter of any law or canon of ethics," Kefauver said, "but I question the propriety of it."

HUMAN TRAGEDY

Berlin Wall Splits Families Of Many

BERLIN (AP) — The human tragedy of the Communist wall in Berlin has rent the families of the city's 6,900 Jews just as it has split the lives of other Berliners.

Hundreds of Jewish families who visited periodically between the Western and Communist halves of the city have lost almost all contact. Many old people in the Communist East, who relied on visits from their children in the West, are alone and isolated.

"But," said Heinz Galinski, head of the Jewish community in West Berlin, "the problem of the Jews is no greater than of millions of other Berliners. The wall through Berlin perhaps makes a deeper impression on our people because of the suffering and horror the Jews suffered under the Nazis."

Galinski, in an interview, said the Communist division of the city had caused no particular apprehension or fear among the Jewish community. "No unusually large numbers of Jews have left the city and, on the contrary, 30 to 40 Jews are returning to their home city each month from other countries to take up residence," he said.

Six thousand of Berlin's Jews live in West Berlin, the remainder in the East.

Those behind the wall, Galinski said, are predominantly elderly folk, drawing pensions from the East German regime as victims of Nazi persecution. A few Jews have worked actively for the Communist regime, Galinski said, and there are a few practicing professional men.
